

Seniors Move Into Simmons

Upperclass women will move into the new Simmons Hall Thursday afternoon. The first meal to be served will be breakfast on Friday morning.

In a letter to each of the 534 women students who will occupy the dormitory, Dr. Pearl O. Weston, dean of women, explained that workmen were rushing the building to completion and requested that the girls delay their return to the campus until Thursday afternoon.

Dean Weston explained that the girls might be inconvenienced during the first few days in the dormitory since some interior work is not completed but requested their co-operation, pointing out some of the advantages they will have living in the ultra-modern dormitory.

The new dormitories are Georgian colonial in design, and extend approximately 600 feet along the east side of Shortlidge Road. The plan has been termed "open formal" and the buildings were designed to take advantage of the sloping topography and the view down the Nittany Valley.

The first May Day ceremony to be held outdoors was in 1922. Previously the queen was crowned in McAllister Hall.

The Class of 1909 was the first to wear freshman dinks.

Women students interested in joining a sorority are reminded to register at the entrance of Atherton Hall between 8 and 5 p.m. on Thursday or at the same place between 8 and 12 a.m. on Monday, said Adelaide Finkelston, Pan-Hellenic president.

Registrants must have a 1.00 All-College average and pay a $1.00 registration fee. Students with deferred grades may not register.

All coeds who are registered for rushing are invited to attend the three Open Houses to be held this weekend. The first one will be from 2 to 5 p.m. Saturday, the second one from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday and the last from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Sunday.

Acquaint Coeds

These Open Houses are planned to acquaint the new coeds with sorority women, as well as the sorority system. The Pan-Hellenic Governing Board has set up a rotating schedule which it believes will greatly facilitate rushing, and help the girls become acquainted with more sororities and more sorority women. This schedule was printed in Monday's issue of the Daily Collegian.

No personal invitations are issued to the Open Houses. A rushee may stay no longer than 30 minutes at any one sorority, nor may she revisit the same sorority. Rushees visiting Jewish sororities may spend one hour at each sorority and may revisit each sorority twice.

Houses Temporary

All sorority houses are temporary, since all sororities will eventually move into a suite in the new dorms or in Grange Dormitory. Therefore, rushees should not let the fact that a sorority is presently situated in a house influence their choice.

Sororities will hold their Open Houses in the following places: Alpha Chi Omega, Grange 2nd floor west; Alpha Epsilon Phi, Simmons ground floor center; Alpha Gamma Delta, Simmons ground floor north center; Alpha Omicron Pi, house east campus; Alpha Xi Delta, Simmons 2nd floor southwest corner.

Rushees are requested to read thoroughly the Pan-Hellenic Guidebook which will be distributed during Orientation Week. Rushees are also asked by Miss Finkelston to keep all rushing dates. If it is impossible to keep a date, the rushees should inform the sorority at once. This is the only condition under which telephone calls may be made between sorority and rushee.

Outstanding Women

The College can boast about its famous women graduates of the past 75 years. Among the fields in which Penn State coeds have proved themselves are education, home economics, journalism, music, physics, and psychiatry.

The College has at its disposal 24 loan funds established by philanthropic individuals, groups, and organizations, half being specifically designated for women students.

IWA, Pan-Hel Greet Coeds

New women students will be acquainted with the functions and organization of the Panhellenic Council, sorority governing body, at the mass meeting in Schwab Auditorium, 7 o'clock tonight.

At the same time clubs and organizations for independent women will be explained, and a skit combining the two will be presented by Chimes members.

Panhellenic Council is a cooperative organization established "to maintain on a high plane fraternity life and inter-fraternity relationship, to co-operate with college authorities in their effort to maintain high social and scholarship standards throughout the whole college and to be a forum for the discussion of questions of interest to the college and fraternity world."

National Congress

National Panhellenic Congress, of which the local council is a member, comprises 22 fraternities, admitted according to the requirements set up by the Constitution of the National Panhellenic Congress. National Panhellenic functions through a biennial Congress and an interim administration by an Executive Committee.

The local Panhellenic Council is composed of two members of the 19 sororities on campus. The group meets every other week and sets up rules and regulations for the sorority chapters. If a sorority violates these rules, the case is brought before the Executive Board, and the chapter is penalized accordingly.

Scholarship Cup

The Council presents a scholarship cup to the sorority maintaining the highest group average for a semester. It also awards a $50 scholarship to an undergraduate coed each spring.

Officers

Officers of Pan-hel are chosen on a sorority rotating system, based on the founding of the sorority at Penn State. This year's officers include Adelaide Finkelston, president; Delores Jelacic, vice-president; and Lillian Skraban, treasurer. The secretary is an independent, paid to keep the records.
