

Student Church Organizations Plan Special Weekend Events

Student foundations of the various churches at the College have planned special events for the first school weekend.

Wesley Foundation of the Methodist Church, under the leadership of the Rev. Bruce E. Gideon, has planned Sunday morning Sunday School classes in the upper room of the Foundation, where Mr. Montgomery, pastor of the Church, and Mr. Gideon, social pastor, will be introduced.

Beginning at 5 p.m. will be the Student Friendly Hour, and Student Supper, a 35c meal prepared and served by students. Worship in the upper room will follow. Mr. Gideon will show colored pictures of Foundation activities of last year at the evening service.

Westminster Foundation, at the Presbyterian Church, headed by the Rev. Donald W. Carruthers, begins its special program with the student department, 9:30 a.m. Sunday. Westminster Fellowship will be in the Fireside Room, 6:20 p.m. The Bible Study Hour is 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, and Thursday morning Matins, in the Fireside Room, 7 a.m. Thursday.

Hillel Foundation, the Jewish students' "home away from home," starts the weekend with regular Sabbath Eve services at the Foundation, 8 p.m. Friday. Rabbi Benjamin M. Kahn and Louis L. Cohn, student president, will be introduced. A reception will follow.

Edel Addresses Chapel Choir Sunday Chapel Plans Tryouts

Dr. William W. Edel, president of Dickinson College, will speak at regular Sunday Chapel services at the College, in Schwab Auditorium, 11 a.m. Sunday. His topic will be "Wisdom, One; Required for Graduation."

The Chapel service, non-denominational in character, consists of a simple devotional service by the Chaplain, the singing of familiar hymns, music by a student choir of 110 voices, and addresses by outstanding preachers and laymen of all creeds.

As the Choir has not been organized for this year, Maynard Hill, tenor, will sing a solo.

Dr. Edel received the AB and D.D. degrees at Dickinson, and the S.T.B. degree from Boston University. He was ordained in the Methodist ministry in 1916 and served with the Chaplain's Corps of the U.S. Navy from 1917 to 1946 when he retired with the rank of Captain.

During World War II, Dr. Edel served as senior Chaplain at the Sampson Naval Base and later as the Area and Force Chaplain on the staff of the Commander of the South Pacific.

James T. Smith, acting chaplain of the College for the past two years, will continue in that capacity for the first semester. He had previously announced his resignation.

Tryouts for Chapel Choir will be conducted for upperclass men and women next week, said Prof. Willa W. Taylor, director.

Tenors will audition from 7 to 8 p. m. Monday and from 4 to 4:30 p. m. Tuesday. Tryouts for basses will be held from 8 to 9 p. m. Monday and from 4:30 to 5 p. m. Tuesday.

Alto tryouts are scheduled from 3 to 3:30 p. m. and 7 to 8 p. m. Tuesday. Sopranos will be heard from 3:30 to 4 p. m. and 8 to 9 p. m. Tuesday.

All tryouts will be held in 211 Carnegie Hall.

More than 40 per cent of last year's choir membership must be replaced because of graduation, said Mrs. Taylor. In addition to singing at each Sunday chapel service, the group will present a major choral work next spring.

The choir's first rehearsal will be held in Schwab Auditorium from 7 to 9 p. m. next Thursday. Unless otherwise indicated, all subsequent rehearsals will take place in 117 Carnegie Hall.

The first issue of the Student Handbook was published in 1894.
