

'Mademoiselle' Begins Contest For Aspiring Guest Editors

Mademoiselle, women's fashion magazine, has opened its annual contest for College Board members and its 1949 Guest Editors.

College Guest Editors will be taken to New York City for four weeks, June 6 through July 1, to help write and edit the annual August College issue of Mademoiselle. Transportation plus a regular salary will be paid these editors and each of these girls will have the opportunity of interviewing a top celebrity in her chosen field. They will also be taken on field trips to newspaper offices, fashion work-rooms, radio stations, stores, agencies and printing plants.

In order to be chosen as College Guest Editors, undergraduates must be members of Mademoiselle's national College Board during the 1948-49 college year. Twenty Guest Editors will be chosen.

To become a member of the College Board, contestants must submit a report of two typewritten, double-spaced pages on any new phase of campus life, such as a new academic course, a fashion, a fad, a campus activity, an interesting organization, etc. They must also submit a snapshot, plus complete data on college and home addresses, class year, college major and minor, other interests and activities and paid or volunteer jobs held.

All material must be mailed to the College Board Editor, Mademoiselle, 122 East 42 Street New York 17, New York, and post-marked no later than midnight November 1, 1948.
