Optimistic

At the weekly meeting of the State College Quarterbacks Club at noon yesterday, Nittany Coach Bob Higgins voiced optimism Gridders about his team's chances against Syracuse.

He told scores of Quarterback Club members and boosters of Penn State football: "Last week we pulled a lot of mistakes, but many of them are ironed out by now. I think we're a little bit better than they are, but you never can tell. We should win."

Bed-fast

We missed Bucknell's soph sensation, Smokey Jim Osten-darp, who was hospitalized with grippe. A week previously in the Bison-Alfred tilt, he was reportedly injected with a fiery shot of penicillin and enabled to leave his hospital bed for four hours to romp against the

70 Students Qualify For Golf Tourney

Seventy student golf enthusiasts have entered their qualifying scores for the all-College golf tourney with Jerry Smith, a member of the Lions' undefeated golf team last spring, turning in medalist honors with a two-under-par 68.

Alex Munro, a sophomore golfer from DuBois, qualified with a sizzling 69 for the 18-hole course, while Charles Yerkes, a Williamsport golfer, qualified with an even-par round of 70.

The tourney is divided into four flights of 16 players each and one flight of six players. Pairings are now posted in the caddy house.

The first elimination match must be played by October 8 and the second match by October 15. Third-round eliminations must be completed by October 22. while Finals are to be played by October 29.

Alumni Homecoming will be observed at Penn State on the weekend of the Michigan State game, October 23.
