

Girls Nominate WRA Officers

Open nominations for sophomore representative, secretary, and assistant intramural chairman of WRA, all sophomore offices, will be held in 312 Sparks, 7 p.m. Tuesday, October 12.

Girls have already been chosen by the WRA executive board to represent its slate when elections are held sometime later. Those girls put up during open nominations must meet the same qualifications as those on the slate and have the same chance of election as these girls.

All candidates for nomination must have an all-college average of at least 1.5. No other specific qualifications, other than being a member of the sophomore class,

Collegian Pick-ups

The Collegian pick-up list which is now in effect includes also Sigma Phi Alpha as a distribution center. Alpha Chi Sigma and the Allen Street Co-op will receive their Collegians at Sigma Phi Alpha. "All distribution centers are urged to cooperate with the Collegian staff," requested Brett Kranich, circulation manager.

are required of the candidates, although those active and interested in women's athletics are most likely to be elected.

In order to be nominated a coed must have some friend or acquaintance present during open nominations to present her name and to tell of the nominee's most outstanding capabilities and activities.

IWA Schedules First Meeting

IWA, the independent women's association on campus, will hold its first regular meeting in the form of a social on October 17.

At the present time a committee is working on a new constitution to be submitted and discussed by the group at the social. Further plans for the coming year will also be discussed.

According to Jane Kelly, president, all independent women will be contacted.
