

Independents Form Cody Manor Group

Approximately forty men, with twenty more house members as prospectives, turned out last night for the final organization meeting of Cody Manor independent men.

Herman H. Kaplan was elected president; Harold Hetrick, vice-president; and Edward McFadden, secretary-treasurer. The athletic committee appointed by Kaplan is composed of Robert Eicholtz, and Wally Haldeman, Ted Gamble, Donald Bardner, and Charles Swingle were appointed to the social committee.

The Cody Independents have already been entered in the Intramural Football and Bowling League.

Delta Zeta

At the Delta Zeta National Convention held this past summer Mary Alice Hodgson of the Gamma Delta chapter was presented a token of honor in competition for the Grace Mason

Lundy award. This award was presented for an exceptional record of leadership and service of a girl to her school and sorority.
