

AVC Demands Voting Holiday

The American Veterans Committee has begun circulation of a petition asking the College Senate and the acting president of the College to declare November 2 a holiday so students may go home to vote in the presidential elections.

However, the next regular meeting of the Senate is not scheduled until November 4—two days after the elections. The Senate last week ruled not to set the day aside as a holiday but to allow voting students to be excused from their classes election day.

Against Excuse System
The AVC, deciding on its move at a meeting Tuesday night, also believes that the excuse system should be abolished, a spokesman said. A student missing classes is required to present to his instructors an excuse signed by the judge of elections in his voting district.

The petition, which may be signed at the Student Union desk, states that "the College should grant to its students the unobstructed opportunity" to vote.

Officers
At Tuesday's meeting, these new officers were elected: Corbin Kidder, chairman; Martin Light, vice-chairman; Larry Rothstein, treasurer; Earnest Millard, historian. Kidder and Rothstein were named delegates to the state AVC convention the weekend of November 6, and Kidder, former Chairman Leo Troy and Melvin Kheinsky were named delegates to the national convention Thanksgiving weekend.

Law School Dean To Speak Monday

Dr. Paul Shipman Andrews, dean of the Syracuse University Law School, will speak to political science majors in 321 Old Main at 8 p.m. Monday, said Frances Welker, president of Pi Lambda Sigma, pre-legal honorary sponsoring the lecture.

He will discuss problems connected with entrance into law school, what to expect at law school, and law as a profession.

Others who are not political science majors but are interested in the legal field may attend the lecture, Miss Welker added. No admission will be charged.

Lion Party

A mass meeting of the Lion Party will be held in 121 Sparks, 7 o'clock tomorrow night to help in Sophomore class organization.

For Your Library

Two handsomely bound volumes of "George Washington," by Douglas Southhall Freeman, enclosed in a duo case.

Each volume illustrated with reproductions of original documents, portraits, maps and plans.

Volume I—The general background and youth of Washington.

Volume II—Covers period of his military schooling.

at Keeler's

News Briefs

Ski Club

The Penns Valley Ski Club will begin trail-clearing activities Sunday afternoon. Club members are asked to meet at the first lean-to and report to John Krimmel, chairman of the trails committee.

Beyond Our Control

The radio class quiz program scheduled for Thursday night over WMAJ was postponed due to technical difficulties. The show will be heard 9:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 28, said Prof. Harold E. Nelson, advisor.

Navy Electronics

The Navy Electronic Warfare Co. 4-12 will meet in the N.R.O.T.C. headquarters in Engineering E at 8 p.m. Tuesday. All members of the company and all former Army, Navy and Marine Corps radiomen who are interested are urged to attend.

State Party

A meeting of the State Party sophomores will be held in 10 Sparks at 7 o'clock tomorrow night. Elections of sophomore clique chairman will be held and the party platform will be approved.

Alpha Xi Delta

Alpha Xi Delta will entertain its State College alumnae chapter at the chapter house from 7:30 to 9 o'clock tomorrow night. Dessert will be served.

Jim Crow-

(Continued from page two)

and the women from whom I might learn.

Roll Along Through Night

We'd roll along through the night, our destination the Negro section of a town perhaps 200 miles away, and for hours I'd listen while he recited long passages from Macbeth and Hamlet, Ingersoll's essay on Napoleon—page after page from the best in English literature. All his life he has fought against the oppression, the injustice and the discrimination weighing on his people. But there is no bitterness, no hatred in the man. To him, his "Southland," as he always calls it, is the fairest country in the land. He loves his Georgia above all other states—he would live nowhere else in America.

In four weeks and 4,000 miles of travel we met and talked with the Negro leaders of the South. If in four weeks any one can get the actual picture of the life of the Negro in the South—then I got it. Because that friend of Walter White showed it to me.

One last word as I begin this account of my four weeks of life as a Negro in the deep South. Don't anybody try to tell me that the North discriminates against the Negro, too, and seek to use that as a defense against the savage oppression and the brutal intolerance the black man encounters in the South. Discrimination against the Negro in the North is an annoyance and an injustice. In the South it is bloodstained tragedy.

In the North the Negro meets with rebuff and insult when he seeks service at hotels and restaurants. But, at least in states like Pennsylvania and others, he can take his case to court and he invariably wins.

Children Denied Education

But in the South he is barred BY LAW from white hotels and restaurants. He is fined and jailed, and frequently killed, if he seeks to enter a railroad station through an entrance reserved for whites, to ride in the forward end of a street car or bus, or a railway coach sacred to the white man. His children are barred from white schools and denied an adequate education in the tumble-down shacks in which little black citizens are forced to seek learning.

No Northern white can deny that there is discrimination against the Negro in the North. Prejudice against the black citizen breaks out in race riots from time to time, as witness Detroit in recent years, and Chicago and Springfield, Ill., in an earlier day. But in the North both black and white rioters go to prison. In the South only the black ones climb the steps to a gallows or serve term in a cell.

In short, discrimination against the Negro in the North is usually in defiance of the law. In the South it is enforced and maintained by the law.

Next: Going South by Jim Crow Car.

LOOK INTELLIGENT

Fool your friends. Jerks, half-heads and dopes are often mistaken for people because they look awake, alert. You, too, can do it. Take a NoDoz Awakener. Wake up... LOOK BRIGHT EVEN. 25c at drug stores.

Alumni... Are We Right?

Whether you last carried books down The Mall in '08 or '48, we're betting there's some item of college jewelry you've lost—and miss very much. It might be that fraternity ring you'd be mighty proud to show the boys in the office. Or perhaps you never did get around to ordering that class ring. . . .

While you're in town get the situation right. Come in and let us show you our complete line of Penn State jewelry. Or, if you just can't "break away" today, write us for information. We'd like to hear from you!

L.G. BALFOUR CO.

STATE COLLEGE OFFICE IN THE ATHLETIC STORE

'The Face Is Familiar . . .'

Glad I met'cha,
Won't forget'cha
How 'bout a date for the

'Plumb Bob Ball'

OCTOBER 30
TUB

INFORMAL

Les Michener

Bucknellians

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil
Because He Flunked The Finger Nail Test

REMEMBER the mane? You should have seen the one on this social lion before he switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil. It was positively beastly! So may we paws to make a suggestion: try a little Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic on your own hair. You'll roar with approval when you see how it grows your hair neatly and naturally without that greasy, plastered down look. How it relieves dryness, removes loose dandruff and helps you pass the Fingernail Test! Wildroot Cream-Oil is non-alcoholic and contains soothing Lanolin. Ask your barber for a professional application. And get a bottle or tube for your den today. You'll find it at any drug or toilet goods counter. We aren't lion when we say you'll like it better than any other hair tonic. Most of the cats do!

* of 327 Burroughs Drive, Snyder, N. Y.

Wildroot Company, Inc., Buffalo 11, N. Y.

WELCOME ALUMNI

The Eutaw House

Intersection Pennsylvania Highway 53 and
U. S. Highway 322
Telephone Centre Hall 48R3 Potters Mills, Pa.

An ideal place to bring your parents and friends . . .
You don't want to miss this unique atmosphere . . .

A fine setting combined with delicious, specially prepared food . . .
Pay us a visit soon and you will become one of our many regular customers . . .

TRY OUR SUNDAY DINNERS
OPEN SUNDAY 12:00 UNTIL 7:30
SIRLOINS AND T-BONES CUT TO YOUR ORDER
ALSO A WIDE VARIETY OF SEA FOODS
DELICIOUS FOOD SERVED IN THE EUTAW HOUSE STYLE
A Colonial Hotel That Made History for Pennsylvania