

Town Men Cast Ballots For AIM Council Seats

Concluding the balloting for AIM council representatives, the bloc of independent men students living in town will vote tonight and tomorrow night for representatives to the 76-man body.

Postcards telling the time and location of elections in each of the 26 wards were mailed earlier this week to each student eligible to vote.

As in all previous AIM elections, members of the AIM committee will be on hand at the ward polls to supervise the nominations and balloting.

Portraits Due For Mardi Gras

Pictures of king candidates for the Mortar Board Mardi Gras must be handed in at the Student Union desk by noon today in order to make the candidate eligible for election.

Pictures of the candidates will be posted in show windows of downtown stores prior to the election.

Voting, which will cost a penny a ballot, will be carried out at one end of the gym. A blackboard with the names of the candidates will show the tabulations of the number of votes for each candidate as the ballots add up.

The Mardi Gras carnival at Recreation Hall, from 8 to 11 p.m., Friday night, offers a variety of entertainment among which will be informal dancing to popular recordings and a variety of side-show features offered by the various sororities and other groups.

Freak shows, fortune telling, penny pitching, weight guessing, and ring tossing are just a few of the numerous booths provided to set the carnival atmosphere.

A general admission of 25 cents will be charged but there will be no extra charge for dancing.

Sigma Eta Alpha Taps Nine Students

Sigma Eta Alpha, hotel administration honorary society, recently tapped nine students, who will be initiated into the organization in December.

Those tapped include Richmond, Donald Book, David Browne, Edward Green, David Hassler, Mary Kriner, Howard McCoy, Jack Uhler, and Walter Zaden.

Kurt A. Smith, general manager of the Penn-Sheraton hotel in Philadelphia, will receive the honorary's award as "Outstanding Hotelman of the Year."

Late AP News Courtesy Station WMAJ

Truman, Dewey Tour Midwest; Campaign Nears Completion

CHICAGO—Both President Truman and Republican presidential candidate Thomas Dewey are touring the midwest as the campaign nears completion. Governor Dewey, in his speech last night in Chicago, pointed his talk at his policies on labor, business, and agriculture, and gave his assurance that those policies would all be friendly.

Mr. Truman seemed greatly encouraged by the welcome he received in Chicago. Yesterday he visited Indiana for the fifth time in the campaign, spoke at South Bend, and then crossed into Ohio where he again assailed the Republicans in a speech at Toledo. Last night he spoke at Cleveland.

WASHINGTON—A American credits totaling 310 million dollars have been made available to Great Britain under the delayed lending program of the Marshall plan at two and one-half per cent interest. It is the first loan to reach Britain since a loan of nearly four billion dollars in 1946.

Results of both tonight's and tomorrow night's elections, as well as a complete list of representatives from the town wards, will be printed in Friday's Daily Collegian.

If less than one-third of the men eligible to vote in any ward fail to do so, results of that ward's elections will be declared invalid, the committee reported. Results of last week's tri-dorm elections were not accepted for this reason and voting for council representatives at Watts, Irvin, and Jordan halls were rescheduled for last night.

Following Thursday night's balloting all 76 seats on the council will be filled, less any election results thrown out, and formal recognition by All-College Cabinet should be forthcoming shortly afterward.

The new body's first move will be to accept the AIM constitution. Following that it will be fully organizational, elect an executive committee, and seat its president on All-College Cabinet.

The schedule for voting is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Time and Wards. Tonight: 6:30 p.m. Wards 1 to 6, 7 p.m. Wards 7 to 13. Thursday Night: 6:30 p.m. Wards 14 to 18, 7 p.m. Wards 19 to 26.

Hat Society Council

The Hat Societies Council group picture will be taken at the Penn State Photo Shop at 6:45 tonight, announced William Bonsall, hat society council president.

The Skull and Bones group picture will be taken at the Penn State Photo Shop at 8 o'clock tonight.

Bus Drivers Strike

NEW YORK—City bus drivers walked off their jobs for about four hours yesterday but were ordered back to work by President Michael Quill of the CIO Transport union early yesterday afternoon. However, the rank and file later split on whether they would continue the strike and the issue remained in doubt.

Strike in France

PARIS—One miner was killed and four soldiers were seriously wounded in France yesterday as the government called out military tanks for use against striking coal miners. Troops occupied four mines in southern France and shooting broke out 50 miles northwest of Marseille.

Security Council Adjourns

PARIS—After Arab leaders strongly accused the Security Council of bias against them, the council yesterday adjourned its current debate on the Palestine question until Thursday. A charge that the council was indifferent to Egyptian complaints

LA Student Finds 'Rather Large' Council

Who says that Liberal Artists don't run the College?

Monday night 85 candidates and staff members of Froth magazine crowded onto an inadequate platform at the Penn State Photo Shop. The photographer, working in feverish haste to arrange the persons in a symmetrical group, finally placed everyone in position and prepared to take the photo.

Suddenly one of the audience, who was scheduled to have his photograph taken later, that evening, rushed up to the group and said to one of the photographers, "Hey, you don't belong in this picture!"

"Sure I do," he retorted as he surveyed the immense staff. "Isn't this the Liberal Arts Student Council?"

AP Drops Lions To 12th Place

For the first time in two years, the undefeated Nittany Lion football team dropped below the ten national leaders in the Associated Press weekly football poll as it skidded to the 12th spot, five places behind the University of Pennsylvania.

Although the Lions were still far ahead of last week's rival, Michigan State, which placed 17th, the 176 points earned by the Blue and White was far below the 1,885 points recorded by the first place Michigan aggregation.

Army clung to fifth place with 1,214 and maintained the top position in the East, 709 points above Penn.

The only team in the first ten not holding an undefeated record is Northwestern which lost to Michigan two weeks ago.

Table with 2 columns: Rank and Points. Top 15 teams are: 1. Michigan (117) 1,885; 2. Notre Dame (19) 1,615; 3. North Carolina (46) 1,568; 4. California (13) 1,239; 5. Army (4) 1,214; 6. Georgia Tech (1) 929; 7. Pennsylvania 565; 8. Missouri (1) 396; 9. Northwestern 325; 10. Nevada (3) 257; 11. Southern Methodist 257; 12. Penn State (1) 176; 13. Clemson 125; 14. Oregon 82; 15. Minnesota 78.

Lines from the Lion

Upstate N.Y.

Dear Gang, I very nearly gave up my job of scouting for the Hig. I came up here and some guy with a mustache, I think his name is Dewey Thomas, asked me to campaign with him for some kind of job which would get him a very influential job in some white house.

But since our boys played such a fine game last weekend I thought I'd stick with them.

The first thing I noticed when I got here was the shiny Pensodent smiles all the football players displayed. You could single each player out from the rest of the students by his smile.

I understand instead of paying their players or giving them scholarships they receive a life-time supply of Colgate toothpaste and that accounts for it.

The team up here has been below par for the last two seasons. I read the following in the student newspaper:

"To the editor: Something has to be done here. We can't afford another dreadful football season. Soon celebrities will be refusing our honorable degrees."

There's a blonde handing out free samples of Colgate toothpaste—I'd better get some. (I don't like the stuff but, oh, that blonde!)

For the above THE LION.

Tribunal Fines Thirteen For Traffic Violations

Tribunal fined 13 violators of traffic regulations and issued warnings to 12 other offenders Monday night. Two cases were deferred for further action.

Fines collected by Tribunal go to inter-class finance. Its expenditures are controlled by All-College Cabinet.

Harold Brown, chairman of Tribunal, attributed the large number of traffic violations to "ignorance of the rules" on the part of students.

Other members of Tribunal are Paul Farrell, Robert Keller, Robert Leeper, Richard Morgan, James Richards, Robert Sankey and John Tiley.

Traffic Regulations

For the benefit of student drivers, Collegian is reprinting current traffic regulations below. Students without campus permits may park only in West Parking Area.

Students living in Pollock and Nittany Dorms must park in the lots there.

Parking in service drives is prohibited. This includes Atherton Hall service drive.

All-night parking on campus is permitted only in West Parking Area.

Students without permits may not park in lots provided at Electrical Engineering, Forestry, Mineral Industries, Osmond Lab, Rec Hall and Sparks Building.

Students may not park on Burroughs, Curtin, Pollock or Shortlidge roads.

Camus Roads

Students may not drive on Central Campus roads during the hours from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday to Saturday noon. Central Campus extends from College avenue to Park street and from Burroughs road to Shortlidge road.

Parking in Windcrest is reserved for Windcrest residents.

Students operating cars on campus are required to obey all directive signs.

Students with campus permits may park in the parking lots. Visitors' cars are accorded the same privileges as permit holders.

Blue Key

Blue Key members are requested to be at the Penn State Photo Shop at 6:45 o'clock tonight for their La Vie picture. After the picture is taken there will be a very important meeting in 409 Old Main, announced Bill Shade, Blue Key president.

Players To Give Wilder Comedy

Thornton Wilder's Broadway hit of 1942, "Skin of Our Teeth," will be presented by the Penn State Players in Schwab auditorium on November 11, 12, and 13. The play is a comedy with a serious underlying moral concerning man's endless struggle against nature and himself.

A weird variety of stage settings and even a dinosaur and baby mammoth will be used as the action moves back into the Ice Age and forward again to the present. In each age catastrophe looms and man is faced with what he feels to be the inevitable end of all civilization. The crisis passes and man finds he has escaped by the "skin of his teeth," and must now set about to rebuild his world.

Antrobus

The play centers around the activities of the deathless Antrobus family and their maid, Sabina, as they switch from one characterization to another with the passing of the various eras. Mr. and Mrs. Antrobus are busy holding their little family together as they go through time from the invention of the wheel and alphabet to the perfection of high altitude bombing.

Collegian Members Receive Promotions

Promotion of nine members of the Collegian business staff has been announced by Vance C. Klepper, business manager. Those named to the junior board, advertising section, are Marion Goldman, Betty Jane Hower and Sue Stern. Marlin Weaver, of the promotion section, was also named to junior board.

The following have been added to the sophomore board, advertising section: Mark Arnold, Donald Baker, Huston Brosius, Robert Clark and Edward Hinkle.

News Briefs

Football Movies

Movies of Saturday's Michigan State-Penn State football game will be shown in Schwab Hall at 7 p.m. today. James O'Hara will give an account of the plays.

Treble Singers

Anyone else who wishes to try out for Treble Singers, old or new members, should report to 117 Carnegie Hall at 7 p.m. today.

Mortar Board

Mortar Board members will have their La Vie picture taken at the Penn State Photo Shop at 6:30 p.m. tonight. Members are asked to pick up their caps and gowns at the Dean of Women's Office today.

Masquerettes

Masquerettes will have their picture taken for La Vie at the Penn State Photo Shop at 7 p.m. today. Members should wear white V-necked blouses.

Meeting Postponed

The Circulo Espanol meeting has been postponed until 7:30 p.m. tomorrow, according to Angela Piccino, publicity chairman.

Varsity Swimming

Bill Gutteron, varsity swimming coach, said yesterday that all members of the swimming team, candidates for the team, managers and candidates for managerships should report to Glennland pool at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Clover Club

The Clover Club meeting scheduled for tomorrow night will be postponed until next Thursday.

Clinic Exams

Students and faculty who have not received their reports of the Nutrition Clinic examination, under the Ellen H. Richards Institute, should make an appointment for an interpretation of results with Mrs. Helen Campbell or Mrs. Terry Leonard in 118 Osmond between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. as soon as possible.

Hallowe'en Dance

Hillel Foundation will give a Hallowe'en Dance at the Foundation from 9 p.m. to 12 a.m. on Saturday. The Crest Ottermiller Quintet will play.