

Lions Invade Raider Camp, Seek to Preserve Streak

Coach Bob Higgins will take a string of 14 games without a defeat onto the Colgate gridiron this afternoon with the intention of increasing it to 15, as the Nittany Lion gridders clash with the Colgate Red Raiders.

This will be the 12th battle between the colleges, the Lions holding a slim edge with six wins, four defeats and one tie. Colgate scored its last victory, a 7-0 decision, in 1941 and the teams played to a scoreless tie in 1943.

Last year's 48-0 drubbing handed to the Raiders was the highest scoring contest of the 37-year series, while two years ago the Lions squeezed out a 6-2 win over the Hamiltonians.

In that contest, Joe Colone passed to Wally Triplett on the 15. Triplett scampered over for the only touchdown of the keenly fought battle.

After a brief workout last night at Baker Field, Elmira, the traveling Lions are in top conditions to meet the determined Colgate eleven.

Even though Negley Norton will be missing from the lineup and Joe Drazenovich is listed for limited duty, Coach Higgins

(Continued on page three)

Witches Reign At PUB Mixer

Witches and skeletons will dominate the Hallowe'en atmosphere of the Harvest Mixer, social gathering being sponsored by independent men and women, at the PUB at 2 p. m. tomorrow.

Orange and black crepe paper will be strung about the room and the witches and skeletons placed in prominent places, said Donald Paul, Nittany Dorm social chairman who originally presented the idea for a mixer.

The mixer is "only the beginning of independent social activities," Claire Lefkoe, president of the AIW said. If this mixer is successful, it is hopeful that many more such mixers will be planned, she added.

Special permission has been granted by Dean of Women Pearl O. Weston and Dean of Men Arthur R. Warnock for women to be in the PUB for this mixer.

Independent women wishing to attend the mixer will be met by men at the women's dormitories. The informal mixer will include dancing and games. Entertainment and refreshments will be provided.

PUB is the men's old dining commons in Pollock Circle now used as a recreation room for men.

Late News, Courtesy WMAJ

Truman Blocks UN Crackdown

WASHINGTON — A telegram from President Truman is supposed to have blocked a United Nations crackdown on Israel. Yesterday the UN Security Council suddenly reversed its decision and pigeon-holed a plan to boycott Israel economically.

Michigan Ballot

WASHINGTON — A technicality in Michigan that threatened to take President Truman's name from the state ballot has been removed when Michigan Secretary of State Fred M. Alger, Jr., advised he would accept the certified list of Democratic presidential electors.

Peruvian Crisis

PERU — Representatives of the Peruvian army have demanded that President Joe Luis Bustamante resign, claiming that this is the only solution to Peru's current political crisis. President Bustamante has refused to quit.

PRR Pitcairn Fire

PITCAIRN — Fire raged last night in the Pitcairn shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad, destroying the large blacksmith shop and spreading to an adjoining shop. No casualties were reported.

Weather

The weather for today is partly cloudy.

Rabbi Speaks On Living Faith

Rabbi Joshua Trachtenberg of the Congregation Covenant of Peace, Easton, will speak on "The Test of a Living Faith" at chapel service in Schwab Auditorium, 11 a. m. tomorrow.

Authors Three Books

Rabbi Trachtenberg, who has held his Easton position since 1930, is the author of three books, including "Jewish Magic and Superstition," published in 1939. He has contributed to the American Jewish Yearbook, and has won prizes in contests on anti-Semitism and universal disarmament.

Born in London, the speaker came to the United States at the age of three. He received his education at the College of the City of New York, Columbia University, and Hebrew Union College.

Delegate to Zurich

Rabbi Trachtenberg was a delegate to the World Zionist Congress in Zurich, 1937; belonged to the board of directors of United Palestine Appeal; organized and directed the Cincinnati region of National Youth Judea, and now is president of the Jewish Community Council of Easton.

Nittany to Show French Movie

"Fanny," the second French film in a trilogy, will be shown at the Nittany Theatre Monday and Tuesday nights.

Starring Raimu, Charpin, and Fresney, "Fanny" follows "Marius," using the same setting of a small street near the waterfront in Marseilles. The film, however, is a complete story in itself. The third film in the series is "Cesar."

"Fanny" is being shown in cooperation with the modern languages departments and the International Film Club, and has English sub-titles.

This marks the first time foreign films have been shown weekly in State College.

Other films to be presented in the near future are the English movie, "I Know Where I'm Going," and the French film, "Volpone."

Dormitory Residents Elect Council Chairmen, Members

Committee chairmen and members of the Nittany Dormitory council were elected recently.

Committee chairmen and the groups they head are: Daniel Cottle, executive; John Andrews, public welfare; Maurice Damiano, recreation; James Rinehardt, scholarship; Paul J. Kritsky, dining hall; and Donald Paul, social.

Members of the council, who are the presidents of their respective dormitories, are Joseph W. Lane, 21; Ralph S. Anderson Jr., 22; John Andrews, 23; John T. Repsher, 24; Paul M. Neff, 25; Robert W. Sparks, 26; Charles Brackbill, 27; F. A. Aldrich, 28; Donald Paul, 29; William Dunegan, 31; Joseph L. Swartz, 32; Robert Hornbaker, 33; George Teel Jr., 34.

Traffic Regulations

One way traffic, traveling from west to east between Burrowes road and Shortlidge road, will go into effect on Pollock road on Monday.

The new system will provide spaces for approximately 100 cars. Parking is restricted to drivers with campus permits.

George W. Eberl, director of the department of the physical plant, has requested that all vehicles discontinue stopping on the south side of the road.

Tiny Tim's Band Serenades Alums

The mystery of the little marching band which serenaded alumni parties in Fraternity Row last Saturday evening after the football game has been explained.

Producing noise enough for twice their number, "Tiny Tim" Baker's ten lads stepped out for a festive parade after providing dinner music at Pi Kappa Phi, where alumni and guests joined the chapter in consuming a feast of whole roast apple-in-mouth pig.

The big bass drum, played by Baker himself resounded over the entire area, with many decibels too, from Ken Reese on the cymbals, and Bud Preston, trumpet. The lively tenor included also Huff Hall, Howard Kerstetter, Fred Hughes, Dave Fishburn, Paul Hallman, Bill Rogers, and Gene Witman.

Pitt Tickets

Students desiring tickets to the Pitt football game are reminded to mail their applications, with the exact payment, to the Penn State Athletic Association, after 7 p. m. tomorrow, but before midnight Monday.

A maximum of two tickets may be ordered, at $3.90 each. Applications received in the same envelope will be filled with tickets for adjoining seats.

Political Parties To Nominate Sophomore Class Candidates

Both campus political parties will meet tomorrow to nominate candidates for sophomore class offices, the Lion party convening in 10 Sparks and the State party in 121 Sparks. The time of both meetings is 7 p. m.

The State party last week elected Jack Boddington sophomore clique chairman, and Lewis Shallcross was elected to that position in the Lion party.

Lion rules permit a person attending his first meeting to nominate sophomore candidates, but to elect Lion candidates, attendance at two meetings is required.

According to State rules, anyone attending a meeting may make nominations, but only representatives may vote on them. Representatives are allotted two to a fraternity and one to each 15 independents.

Sophomores to staff campaign committees now being formed are sought by the Lion party. The State party has formed publicity and campaign committees under temporary chairmen.

Party Publicity

Sophomores interested in publicity work for the State Party will meet in 415 Old Main at 2 p. m. tomorrow.

AIM Releases Tally; Town Voting Scant

On the heels of the most disastrous elections yet conducted to name representatives to the Association of Independent Men Council, the AIM committee yesterday released the names of 13 of the 24 men who will occupy the seats allotted to the town segment of the 76-man council.

Only about 5% of the 1400 independent men living in the wards polled cast ballots in the elections staged Wednesday and Thursday nights.

College Denies Voting Holiday

Last minute efforts of the American Veterans Committee to have an election day recess granted at the College proved abortive yesterday.

Acting President James Milholland of the College informed AVC Chairman Corbin Kidder that it was too late to consider AVC petitions, signed by nearly 1,600 students, which demanded the holiday.

Kidder presented the petitions and an accompanying letter to Wilmer E. Kenworthy, executive secretary to the president, yesterday morning and received President Milholland's answer late yesterday afternoon.

AVC protested a ruling of the College Senate which declared that, although there would be no voting holiday, students would be excused for absences by having the judges of elections in their districts sign excuse blanks to be presented to class instructors. Distribution of the excuse blanks began yesterday at the Student Union.

Exchange Dinner

The Chi Phi and Kappa Delta Rho fraternities held an exchange dinner Wednesday night. Each house played host to 20 members of the other fraternity.

Chem Council Holds Election

Nominations for the 12 vacancies existing in the Chemistry and Physics Student Council will be held Monday and Tuesday, preliminary to elections in the lobby of Osmond Laboratory Wednesday. Nomination sheets will be posted on the Osmond and Pond Laboratory Bulletin boards.

Senior positions of the council are available to two chemical engineers, one chemist, and one commercial chemist. Junior openings include two for chemical engineers, and one each for science or pre medical and physics students. One science or pre medical, one physics, and one chemistry or commercial chemistry student is needed to complete sophomore representation.

Unlimited nominations may be made in each category listed for each class, according to Abram Bosler, president of the council.

Two Midshipmen Win Rifle Medals

Two midshipmen on the current NROTC rifle team received rifle medals for their work with last year's squad.

The medals were presented to Paul E. Baumgardner and Richard K. Pulling, by Capt. William T. McGarry, USN, professor of naval science.

Other members of last year's team who have been graduated and hold naval or marine commissions received their citations by mail.

Correction

Alpha Sigma Phi will entertain Kappa Delta at a tea dance tomorrow, rather than Kappa Alpha, as yesterday's Collegian reported.

In six of the wards not a single person appeared to nominate or vote for an AIM representative.

Results in nine other wards, where representatives have been named, were not available. Donald Little, chairman of the committee, has asked the representatives in wards 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 9, 12 and 24, to contact him by calling 4332 as soon as possible.

AIM representatives in the 13 wards where election returns are available are Robert Craig, ward 5; Nicholas Matichak, ward 8; Phillip Neely, ward 11; Joseph Karcha, ward 13; J. B. Allen, ward 14; J. M. Jones, ward 16.

William Dorcross, ward 17; Leon Rabenold, ward 18; D. F. Conover, ward 19; Floyd Echols, ward 20; Clarence Good, ward 21; Edgar Lowe, ward 22; and Edmund Walacavage, ward 23.

"Results of the elections will be accepted as official," Little declared, "despite the fact that far less than the one-third minimum

(Continued on page two)

Tribunal to Air Traffic Cases

Tribunal will hear 26 traffic violation cases in 201 Old Main starting at 8 p. m. Monday. The violations represent a drop of eight from last week according to Richard Morgan, chairman of the eight-man committee.

Eight cases from last week are also scheduled to be heard during the two-hour session.

Groups Divided

The groups will again be divided in order to facilitate fast moving of the cases.

Those scheduled for 8 p. m. hearings are Thomas Beard, Richard Black, Richard Bonsall, William Brown, Vincent Chominski, and William Cotner.

For 8:30 p. m. Claud DiPasquale, E. T. Donohue, James Fluke, Robert Frankhouse, Herbert Cedrich, and K. N. Grant.

Other Cases

For 9 p. m. Paul Harvey, Robert Hazel, Richard Huet, Joseph Kucel, Richard Lahr, Lynn Lawson, Charles Lipshutz.

For 9:30 p. m. John Long, Harold McGagen, Don Metzler, Kenneth Moore, Joseph Ondrey, Jack Santoro, and D. M. Shelley.

For 10 p. m. Joseph Sloan, Braden Souders, Kenneth Suter, Anthony Tomassetti, Curtis Truver, A. L. Weil, John Wilson, and Arthur Yeatman.

News Briefs

Observatory

The Observatory will open for the first time this semester on Sunday from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m. and will be open every Sunday and Wednesday at this time according to Prof. Henry Yeagley. A member of Alpha Mu, astronomy honorary, will be present to explain the stars seen at this season.

Scavenger Hunt

The Penn State Club and Philotes will stage a scavenger hunt and Hallowe'en dance originating at their clubroom 321 Old Main 7:30 p. m. today.

Newman Initiation

Dancing will follow the initiation ceremonies of new members into the Newman Club at the Elks Home 7:30 p. m. tomorrow. President John Novotny urges all new members to be present.

Cave Explorers

Dr. Stuart W. Frost, professor of entomology at the College, will address the Nittany Grotto, local cave explorer's club, on "Cave Fauna" in 110 Electrical Engineering at 7:30 p. m. on Tuesday.