

WSGA To Sponsor Little Sister Tea; All Coeds Invited

Informal class dress will be the prerequisite to attend the "Big-Little Sister" tea sponsored by WSGA in Simmons Hall lounges from 3 to 5 p.m. Tuesday, said Nancy Schott, co-publicity chairman.

The big sisters will invite their little sisters to the tea. This is an open affair, however, and any sophomores or transfer students who have not been assigned a big sister are welcome, Miss Schott added.

Co-Chairmen of the tea from the WSGA Senate are Joan Bergdoll and Ann Fickenscher. Committee chairmen from the House of Representatives include Jean DuBois and Phyllis Tamor, invitations; Margaret Bastian and Helen Pond, decorations; Dolores Hoeker and Barbara Morris, refreshments.

Ann Forrest and Ella Louise Williams, hostess; Lois Kenyon and Cindy Settler, music; Shirley Gauger and Patricia McNarney, clean-up; and Marilyn Hoke and Miss Schott, publicity.

WRA Schedules League Meets

Women's intramural basketball competition begins in White Hall at 7 p.m. next Tuesday and intramural bowling begins at 6:30 p.m. Monday.

Practice basketball games were held on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week between the 24 sorority and independent teams. Scores of these games will not be included in determining the winners of the three leagues.

Basketball League I games will be played on Tuesday nights, League II on Wednesdays, and League III on Thursdays. Teams representing Mac Hall and Philotes will play only through default of teams in the leagues as they did not sign up in time to be included on the schedule.

Bowling competition is also divided into three leagues. League I will bowl on Monday nights, League II on Tuesday nights, and League III on Wednesdays.

Basketball competition will be held until January 19 when final playoffs will be held among the teams leading each of the three leagues. Bowling playoffs are scheduled for January 18.

At 7 p.m. Tuesday on the basketball court Kappa Alpha Theta will meet Kappa Delta and Nittany Co-op will oppose Simmons. At 8 p.m. Alpha Xi Delta is scheduled to meet Theta Phi Alpha and Gamma Phi Beta will meet Delta Zeta.

At 8:30 p.m. Monday the bowling team of Kappa Alpha Theta will oppose the team of Kappa Delta. At 7:45 Nittany Co-op will meet Simmons, at 8:30 Alpha Xi Delta will bowl against Theta Phi Alpha and at 9:15 Gamma Phi Beta will oppose Delta Zeta.

Schedules, including all basketball games and all bowling contests, are available in the WRA room of White Hall for the intramural representatives of the competing groups.
