A larger group, including the undergraduate chairman, architects, and members of the college administration, later toured union facilities of five midwestern colleges: University of Michigan, Michigan State, University of Wisconsin, University of Illinois, and Purdue.

Women Basketball Teams End Week Of League Activity

League III teams of women's intramural basketball will meet in White Hall tonight to complete the first week of the basketball tournament. League I and League II games were played Tuesday and Wednesday nights, respectively.

At 7 p.m. tonight Chi Omega will meet Town and Kappa Kappa Gamma will oppose Atherton III. At 8 p.m. Phi Mu is scheduled to meet Atherton II, while Delta Gamma and Alpha Gamma Delta will oppose one another.

Referees, umpires, and time scorers are mainly coeds in the Physical Education 110 class, although some are volunteers. Those coeds still wishing to act as officials during the games should contact Nancy Zierler, assistant intramural chairman of WRA.

Tournament finals among the winners of the respective leagues will be held January 19. Twenty-four teams are scheduled with weekly games, while Mac Hall and Philotes teams will play only through default of any of the teams on the schedule.

So Mild!

• Yes, Camels are so mild that a nationwide 30-day test of hundreds of smokers revealed not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels! The people in this test — both men and women — smoked Camels exclusively for 30 consecutive days. Smoked an average of one to two packages of Camels a day. Each week their throats were examined by noted throat specialists—a total of 2470 exacting examinations. From coast to coast, these throat specialists reported

DUE TO SMOKING CAMELS!

Prove it Yourself
MAKE THE CAMEL 30-DAY TEST
IN YOUR "T-ZONE"!

Money-Back Guarantee! Try Camels and test them. If, at any time, you are not convinced that Camels are the mildest cigarette you have ever smoked, return the package with the unused Camels and we will refund the full purchase price, plus postage.
