

College Debaters Enter Tournament In Vermont Today

Penn State Men's Debating Team opens their season today in a debating tournament at the University of Vermont. The topic of the debate is, "Federal Aid to Education."

Thirty-six colleges are entered in the tournament and 136 teams are participating. Each team will take part in four debates and critical decisions will be given.

On the Penn State team, Richard S. Schweiker and Herman A. Latt will take the affirmative side in today's debate.

Other colleges entered in the tournament are: Army, Boston U., Boston College, Brooklyn, Bates, Champlain, Colby, Dartmouth, University of Maine, Navy, New Hampshire, NYU, Rutgers, Syracuse, Temple, Wake Forest and Williams.

Joseph F. O'Brien, debate coach, will accompany the team this weekend.

Representative Speaks On Israeli Independence

Yechiel Shemi, representative of the Histadruth, the Israeli labor movement, will speak on Israel's struggle for independence in Sabbath Eve services at Hillel Foundation at 8 p.m. today.

A native of Haifa, Mr. Shemi currently is on a special mission to the United States. He was among the small group of men and women who several years ago established on the desert shores of the Dead Sea, the colony called Beth Ha'aravah (House in the Desert).

The Hillel synagogue is located at 133 West Beaver avenue.

PSCA Open House

The motion pictures entitled "Mutiny on the Bounty" and "Music in America" will be shown at the PSCA open house in 304 Old Main at 7:30 tomorrow night.

Fees Deducted from Book Checks Itemized

Fees amounting to $3.10 for men and $4.10 for women have been deducted from veterans' book refund checks.

A La Vie fee of $1.25, a Collegian fee of $.75, class dues of $.75 and a combined Glee Club and Debating fee of $.35 have been deducted from both groups. Agriculture students will also have a $1.00 activities assessment. Two-year agriculture students will have only $1.00 for class dues deducted. Special full-time students will be assessed only $.35 for Glee Club and Debating.

A special La Vie fee of $1.25 has been charged sophomores to make up the amount they would have been assessed for the year-book had they been on campus the first semester of their freshman year.

NAACP Lauds Amherst Phi Psi

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People decided at its meeting Wednesday to send a letter of commendation and encouragement to the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity chapter at Amherst College for pledging a negro man to their chapter.

Philip Evans and William Hymes were appointed by President William Meek to investigate the amount of literature in the College library written about Negroes or by Negroes. If the amount is small, it was suggested that the library be requested to augment it either by purchase or contribution.

Sylvia Schwartz and Pat Sullivan will investigate the possibility of negro professors at the College, and a course in negro history and culture, will be investigated by Louis Glickman.

PROVE CAMEL MILDNESS IN YOUR "T-ZONE!"

Prove for yourself what throat specialists reported when 30-day smoking test revealed

NO THROAT IRRITATION due to smoking CAMELS!

In that test, hundreds of men and women, from coast to coast, smoked Camels, and only Camels, for 30 consecutive days—an average of one to two packs a day. And the noted throat specialists who examined the throats of these smokers each week—a total of 2470 careful examinations—reported not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels!

Make the Camel mildness test. Test Camels yourself for 30 days in your own "T-Zone"... T for Taste and T for Throat.

Let YOUR OWN TASTE tell you about the rich, full flavor of Camel's choice tobaccos—so carefully aged and expertly blended. Let YOUR OWN THROAT tell you the wonderful story of Camel's cool, cool mildness.

You'll enjoy the test...every puff of it. You'll enjoy Camels.

Money-Back Guarantee!

Try Camels and test them as you smoke them. If, at any time, you are not convinced that Camels are the mildest cigarette you ever smoked, return the package with the unused Camels and we will refund its full purchase price, plus postage. (Signed) R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., Winston-Salem, N. C.

According to a Nationwide survey:
MORE DOCTORS SMOKE CAMELS THAN ANY OTHER CIGARETTE

Doctors smoke for pleasure, too! And when three leading independent research organizations asked 113,597 doctors what cigarette they smoked, the brand named most was Camel!
