

Pitt's Upset Halts Streak ---

 In the first period, Jimmy Joe Robinson, safety Panther back, raced forty yards behind excellent blocking to the Nittany 24. The Blue and Gold drive stalled on two rushes and two passes. The Blue and White squad took over at that point and the ball stayed between the 35-yard line until the end of the half.

 Three times the previously undefeated Centre County team marched down to the shadow of the Pitt goal and each time the outstanding defensive Pitt line repulsed it. Early in the first period a bad center on the Pitt 47 was recovered by John Finley on the 34 and it appeared as if the Nittanyites were ready to score.

NULLIFIED

Following an incomplete pass by Petchel, Rogel smashed down to the 22, but an offside penalty nullified the play, Triplett lost a yard on a reverse, and Petchel, unable to pass, was smothered on the 48, a loss of 16 yards in three plays. Captain Joe Colone punted to the Nittany 24. After Pittsburgh was stopped cold in three plays, Bil Hardisty punted to the Lion 40.

Six plays later Don Fisher, a center, intercepted a pass and cut the Nittany drive down before it could pick up momentum.

Robinson's 40-yard run in the second period gave the home team an advantage throughout the second half. A 22-yard pass, Petchel to Bob Hicks, placed the ball on the Pitt 45, but again the drive died, this time on the 36 and Pittsburgh took over.

DRIVE

Colone kicked off to open the second half, and after five plays, Hardisty punted to the Nittany 17. From there Rogel drove, with three breaks in which Triplett and Petchel picked up a yard, to the Pitt 15 1/2-yard line where he was stopped by the Panther forward wall.

This drive ended the third period, and when the game appeared to be mired in a scoreless tie, Hardisty punted over the Nittany goal and three plays later Bolkovac intercepted the Petchel pass to score the game's only marker.

With four minutes to go, Penn State started its final drive toward the Blue and Gold goal. Triplett, Rogel and Petchel carried the all from the Penn State 46 to the Pitt 35. Petchel was stopped for no gain on the first play and thrown for a 4-yard loss on the second. A statute-of-liberty with 50 seconds to go recorded no gain, and when Robinson intercepted Petchel's fourth-down pass, the crowd, certain that the game would die there, moved down to the field.

PENALTY

But an interference penalty gave the Lions the ball on the 21, and after missing with a pass to John Smidansky, Petchel hit Cooney on the 11 as the clock showed 20 seconds to go. Smidansky caught an aerial on the 2-yard line and with just 10 seconds left to play, State called time out.

Rogel was sent into the lineup to replace Colone and the Nittany powerhouse smacked into the left side of the Panther wall and bounced back just short of a goal as the final gun sounded.

Grinding out 15 first downs and 240 yards on the ground and in the air, the Lions were far superior to the Smokey City team that was able to record only four first downs and 77 yards.

Alumni Pilot High School Grid Team

An all-Penn State staff, headed by Sever Toretti, formerly of Steelton High School, was in command of football at Williamsport High School this year. The team bettered its record of the previous year, winning four, losing four and tying one.

Toretti, an outstanding line-man during his undergraduate years, chose two of his former teammates as his assistants in his first season with the Cherry and White. Tom Vargo, of Johnstown, coached the ends and Charles "Chuck" Peters, of Shamokin, directed the backs.

Vargo, who was a top-flight terminal as a collegian, formerly coached at South Williamsport High School, and after the war switched to McKeesport. Peters coached at both Morris Township and Shamokin.

Lion Coach Bob Higgins rates these three among his best players in the pre-war era. Toretti, a Monongahela boy, enjoyed unusual success as head man at Steelton.

 petitive race for Ashenfelter, Bates, Longenecker, and Williams along with five other members of the squad who did not make the trip.

The fourth place the Lions captured was the lowest they have finished in the 10 year history of the event. A third place was previously the worst showing of the Wernermen.

They have captured two NCAA titles, including last year's race run in six inches of snow at the East Lansing course.

Midwestern schools dominated this year's competition, only Syracuse and Penn State from the East managing to place among the first ten teams.

The order in which the teams placed was:
 Michigan State, Wisconsin, Syracuse, Penn State, Notre Dame, Purdue, Kansas, Indiana, Miami (O.), and Cornell College of Iowa.

 because State lost, nor has the College been relegated to the gridiron backwoods.

A happy sight to us was the crowd of cheering students which met the team when it returned to State College. Disheartened team members took solace from the fact that the student body is still backing them.

After all, as Coach Bob Higgins said last week, "Defeat has to come sooner or later."
 That's the way the football bounces.
