 ranged immediately. Lynch refers to himself in these negotiations as a "pig in a poke," for it is a rarity in concert annals for a star to be signed sight unseen. As a result of his appearances in radio and in two very successful concert tours Lynch has endeared himself to the whole nation in the short span of his career.

IFC Considers Weekend

Three representatives from the Interfraternity Council appointed by George Chapman, president, and a Panhellenic Council representative are working with Froth to investigate the possibilities of a Spring "big" weekend, according to James Dunaway, Froth promotion manager.

The committee members include Robert Bossler, Robert Chase, Judith Dantsker, Dunaway, and Jack Senior. At the present time, this committee is taking a poll to determine suggestions that meet with the greatest campus approval. If the plans for the tentative "Spring Week" are accepted, the whole college will participate. The date for the proposed weekend is that of the Panhel-IFC dance in April.

"The committee will welcome any suggestions," said Dunaway. He expressed the desire that people who wish to give the committee any ideas contact them immediately.

IFC votes on advisability of the publicized "Spring Week" December 15.
