

Students Attend Health Meeting

William E. Bowser '48 and Jane McCormick '48 represented the student body at the 27th Annual Convention of the Pennsylvania State Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation at the Penn-Sheraton Hotel in Philadelphia yesterday.

Dr. Lloyd Jones, professor of physical education, spoke at the student section on the topic "After Graduation, What Then?"

The alumni of the School of Physical Education and Athletics of Penn State also held its annual meeting at the Convention at the Garden Court Restaurant yesterday. T. Stuart Marlow and Louis Grossman, Alumni, were in charge of the arrangements.

Fellowship Actors Portray Yule Scene In One-Act Drama

A one-act Christmas play, "No Room in the Hotel," will be presented at the Faith Reformed Church at 7 p.m. Sunday by members of the United Student Fellowship.

Members of the cast are Rosemere Baum, Jean Brown, Martha Dash, Mary Alice Eshelman, Robert Goodman, Robert Gregory, Julie Halow, Emerson Ketterman, Wilbur Kraybill, and Robert Wenner.

The play was written by Dorothy Clarke Wilson and portrays the Christmas Eve events in a small hotel in a modern American town.

Correction

The meeting of the Penn State Chapter of American Society for Metals will be held in the Mineral Industries building art gallery at 8 p.m. Tuesday, not Sunday as stated in Collegian yesterday.

Gamma Phi Beta

Gamma Phi Beta sorority will entertain the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity at a dessert party in the playground of Grange Tuesday night. After the party the two groups will go Christmas caroling together.

The first student publication on campus was a monthly called the "Free Lance." It ceased publication in 1904.
