

Between The Lions

By Tom Morgan
SPORTS EDITOR

"All"-Team Fortunes

'Tis only after the entreaties of Persistent Perc, our admiring fraternity brother, that we set down here a summary of Penn State football fortunes on the "all"-team front.

Included in the list which follows are some of the more important All-America and other selections, including four all-opponent teams which have reached our desk.

Bear with us as we wade through accomplishments of 13 Nittany Lions:

Sam Leads List

End Sam Tamburo—Collier's All-America, Associated Press third team, International News Service All-America offensive team, AP All-East first team, INS All-East first team, AP All-State first team, Pitt all-opponent first team, Colgate first team, Syracuse first team.

Fullback Francis Rogel—Grantland Rice's second team, National Editorial Association second team, AP All-East second team, INS All-East second team, AP All-State first team, Pitt first team, Syracuse first team, Michigan State first team, Colgate first team.

Guard Joe Drzenovich—AP honorable mention, AP All-East first team, INS All-East honorable mention, AP All-State first team, Pitt first team, Syracuse first team, Colgate first team.

Guard Paul Kelly—NEA third team, AP All-East honorable mention, INS All-East first team, AP All-State honorable mention, Michigan State first team.

Wingback Wally Triplett—AP honorable mention, AP All-East honorable mention, INS All-East honorable mention, AP All-State third team, Syracuse first team.

Tailback Elwood Petchel—Grantland Rice's third team, AP All-East honorable mention, AP All-State first team.

Quarterback Chuck Drzenovich—AP All-State honorable mention, Michigan State first team, Syracuse honorable mention.

Tackle Negley Norton—AP All-East honorable mention, AP All-State third team, Syracuse first team.

Center Chuck Beatty—AP All-

Lions Conquer W & J For First Court Triumph

Penn State's green but willing court combine tacked up its initial basketball triumph December 18 by subduing a previously unbeaten Washington & Jefferson cage quintet, 40-38, in the Lions' home opener at Rec Hall.

A crowd—virtually studentless—of only 2000 spectators saw a classy exhibition of foul-shooting plus the back-court wizardry of the Lions' two pint-sized play-makers, Milt Simon and Joe Tocci, pay off to break a Nittany losing streak that had reached three straight.

Coach John Lawther's proteges hit for only 10 field goals, but sank 20 out of 27 free throws which provided the margin of victory. The contest bordered on the ragged side with the hosts striking from the field for 17.2 percent while the Presidents hit for 18.3 percent of their shots.

As usual, field-generals Simon and Tocci provided the ball-handling pyrotechnics, sparking the Lions' mixed fast break, set play offense.

The Presidents hopped off to a first-period 9-8 lead only to see the Centre County courtmen surge forward and carry off a 25-23 halftime lead. Coming back after the interim, the Lions built up a 34-30 advantage and managed to protect the van for the final 40-38 count.

The lineups:

W	J	FG	F	TU
Devic, f	0	2	2	2
Knoche, f	0	0	0	4
Easton, c	1	2	4	4
Osso, g	3	3	9	9
Hartman, g	0	0	0	0
Mestrovic, f	0	0	0	0
McKinney, f	1	1	3	3
Turney, c	2	3	7	7
Parkinson, g	1	0	2	2
Singer, g	3	5	11	11
Totals	11	16	38	38
Penn State	FG	F	TU
Lamie, f	1	0	2	2
Nordbloom, f	2	5	9	9
Costa, c	1	4	6	6
Simon, g	3	2	8	8
Tocci, g	1	2	4	4
Ruhlman, f	0	0	0	0
A. Pichella, f	0	0	0	0
Schisler, c	0	0	0	0
Bozinski, g	1	3	5	5
Weiss, g	0	0	0	0
Totals	10	20	50	50
Score by periods:
W & J	9	28	30	38
Lions	8	25	24	40
Officials:	Kostecki, Melman.

East honorable mention, AP All-State honorable mention, Syracuse honorable mention.

Guard John Simon—AP All-East honorable mention, AP All-State second team.

End Bob Hicks—AP All-State honorable mention.

Tackle Don Murray—Syracuse honorable mention.

End Dennie Hoggard—Syracuse honorable mention.

Phone Changes

If you're calling the intramural department, and give the operator the old number, 86-M, and a man answers, hang up. It's the wrong man.

Eugene C. Bischoff, IM Director, or his sidekick, Clarence (Dutch) Sykes, can be reached now by calling 95.

86-M now belongs exclusively to Nick Thiel, lacrosse coach.

IM Basketeers Renew Action

IM basketeers shake off their vacation stupor and whip into court activity at Recreation hall again tonight when they line up for nine drag-em-out battles on the college hardwood. Time for the first set of contests is 8:45 p.m.

With the schedule moving nearer to the mid-point, and most teams still in the fight for their respective league crowns, action promises to be fast enough for heavy fan support. Phi Delta Theta, with four wins and no losses in the fraternity B league, is the only team to show marked superiority in circuit standings so far.

Intramural Athletic Director Eugene C. Bischoff announced yesterday that the department will concentrate on basketball for the remainder of this semester, not beginning any other IM sports until the Spring session begins.

Schedule for tonight follows:
8:45 p.m.—Berletics vs. Nittany Co-op, court one; Ath Hall Men vs. Cody Manor, court two; Lions vs. Murgas, court three.
9:25 p.m.—Section 10 vs. A.R.O., court one; Ceramics vs. Architects, court two; Alpha Epsilon Pi vs. Triangle, court three.
10:05 p.m.—Phi Sigma Delta vs. Kappa Delta Rho, court one; Sigma Chi vs. Phi Kappa, court two; Pi Kappa Alpha vs. Phi Gamma Delta, court three.

Pentti Lund, rookie forward of the New York Rasgers of the National Hockey League, was born in Helsinki, Finland. He is the only Finnish player in the big ice wheel.

Bowls Claim Lion Attention

Although New Year's Day bowl games usually signify the end of collegiate grid campaigns, two Penn State football players, Elwood Petchel and Sam Tamburo, will continue to keep the sport alive by participating in the Hawaii Bowl tomorrow and again on January 12.

Oddly enough, the Nittany passing combination opened the post-season campaign for Penn State on Christmas night as they played on the North All-Star team against the South. Tamburo completed two Northern aeriels and Petchel halted a South drive by recovering a fumble in the Christmas night battle.

New Year's Day the action shifted to the West Coast where three Nittany gridders, Larry Cooney, John Simon and John Finley, participated in the East-

Continued on page four

MARTY COSTA

The number of models of hunting arms produced by American manufacturers in 1948 increased almost 15 percent over 1947.

REMOVAL SALE!

STARTS WEDNESDAY OPEN ALL DAY

We are moving to a new and larger store, but before we do we will sell everything at below cost prices!

- COATS
- SUITS
- DRESSES
- SKIWEAR
- ROBES
- EVE. GOWNS
- SKIRTS
- BLOUSES
- LINGERIE
- PAJAMAS
- JEWELRY
- SWEATERS

SPECIAL . . .
SHEER NYLONS 89c

CHARLES

109 S. ALLEN ST.

SPECIAL SALE . . . Artists' Course Tickets

SEE - HEAR

VLADIMIR HOROWITZ HELEN TRAUBEL
RENOWNED PIANIST MET SOPRANO
JANUARY 6 FEBRUARY 28

For Only $6.60

Get tickets for these two fine concerts at Student Union Office, Lobby Old Main

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5
8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

This sale saves you almost $3.00 for these concerts. Single tickets for each number will be sold on the night of the performance only at prices of $5.00 for Horowitz and $4.50 for Miss Traubel. A limited number of lower priced seats are also available for the two concerts at rate of $5.40.