

Colgate Topples Lions ---- points but showed true class in his teamwork.

Vandie was nothing fancy on the pivot in comparison with some of the other outstanding centermen, but he handled the sphere with workmanlike precision and once he drove in for a shot he was practically unstoppable.

Colgate mentor Karl Lawrence tried unsuccessfully to crack the Lawther-zone by using a steady 1-3-1 attack the first half, but switched to a fireball, blitzkrieg type of warfare under which the Lions soon wilted the second. The visitor's floor length passes again and again caught the State hosts with their defenses down as the game went into the final quarter.

State salvaged one thing, however, out of Saturday's fray. The Center Countians came up with another shifty scorer to augment Milt Simon and Joe Tocci on the firing line. He was 5-foot 9-inch Ken Weiss, an unheralded forward, who came into his own by highlighting State's story-book first half finish.

LEAD SCORER

The tiny blonde tabbed 12 points to lead the Lions' scorers. Milt Simon with one field goal and five-out-of-six free throws captured eight points and Syl "Stretch" Bozinski and Terry Ruhlman both came through with six counters.

With three minutes of play remaining in the second quarter and the score 24-14 in Colgate's favor, Weiss, hotter than a dime-store pistol, electrified the huge crowd by scoring eight consecutive points to bring the Lions to within a field goal of the visitors.

With ten seconds of time left, Weiss took a hurried three-quarter floor length shot and fell about three feet short, but State's alert forward Ruhlman caught the ball and banked through an off-the-ear shot as the half-time gun sounded.

LOW-SCORING

After the low scoring first-half, during which it appeared the Colgate attack would break out any moment in a point rash, the Red Raiders really poured it on the final two periods. The initial 20 minutes saw Weiss lead the Staters with eight points while Vandeweghe kept his team in the game with a like number.

Colgate really surged to the front the final 10 minutes as Brett and Vandeweghe began to hit from all angles. Simon, Bozinski, Nordblom, Weiss and Ruhlman all scored for State in the final half.

Big Red Wins ----
