

Hosterman, Hannah Win Berths On Soccer All-America Squad

Soccermen Ralph Hosterman and Dick Hannah were named by the National Soccer Coaches Association to its 1948 All-America collegiate soccer squad.

Instead of naming an All-America first and second team, as had been the custom in previous years, the association selected an All-America squad of collegiate soccer stars. Two players were named for each position.

Both Lion booters performed at a halfback slot, Hosterman at center half, Hannah at right half. Both were named for outstanding field generalship and aggressive style of play.

SCORES GOAL

Hosterman, a junior and a two-year letterman, reached his performance pinnacle against Temple when he scored a goal, an outstanding feat for a halfback. Last year he participated in try-outs for the Olympic team.

Hannah, also a junior, will see one more year of action for the Blue and White. His superb passing play enabled the Lion forward performers to break through for rapid scoring plays numerous times throughout the year.

The association named the University of Connecticut the nation's outstanding soccer team, with Navy second and Cornell—a team that was deadlocked, 2-2, by the Jeffreyemen—third in the nation.

BROTHERS

Ralph Hosterman is the fourth of a quartet of brothers who have starred in Penn State soccer.

His older brother, Walter, now assistant graduate manager of athletics at the College, was named to the first-team All-American right halfback post in 1939 and '40.

The eldest of the four Hostermans, Woody, starred for three years at outside left, beginning in 1935.

Ken Hosterman was the kingpin in Lion scoring in 1946, but was injured in the Penn game of '47 and was forced to give up playing.

Double Celebration

Penn State's veteran football coach, Bob Higgins, observed his 55th birthday the day before Christmas.

Fogg Chooses Ski Lineup

Coach Sherman Fogg has been rounding his ski team into shape for the coming meet with Colgate Saturday.

The meet will be held at the Ski Jump in Boalsburg, and will begin at 10 a.m. with the slalom, the first of the four events comprising the meet. Following the slalom are cross country at 11 a.m., the downhill event at 2 p.m. and jumping at 3 p.m.

Squad members competing will be: Sterling Bankert, Huston Brosius, Gordon Drane, Bob Drew, Charles Fries, Bill Graf, Craig Houston, Tom Minto, Otto Pfefferkorn, Jim Raymond, Harry Swimmer, Herb Wahl.

Likely official entries—those who will count in the scoring—named by Coach Fogg to compete in the various events are:

Cross-country—Bankert, Graf Pfefferkorn, Raymond.

Jumping—Bankert, Graf, Raymond, Wahl.

Slalom—Brosius, Drane, Drew, Wahl. These four will also compete in the downhill event.

Forerunners for the downhill and slalom will be Hans Eichenberger and Roy Jansen, and Cliff Carts will be the forerunner for the cross-country event.

To score in skiing, a coach must name four official entries in each event and the best three efforts of the four score for their team. Other team members may be included in each of the events for practice and experience, but they cannot score for their team even

Colgate Forward Shatters Record

Ed Brett, Colgate University set-shot expert, holds the new Rec Hall individual point record.

Brett, who starred in Saturday's 58-40 win by the Red Raiders over Penn State, was crowned king by virtue of scoring 25 points.

In taking over the throne he succeeds a teammate Ernie Vandeweghe, who posted 24 tallies against the Lions last year.

Previous high had been made in 1944 by Tom Hewson of Temple in a five-period game against the Centre Countians in which he scored 23 points. Jack Biery, star of last year's Lion court aggregation, notched 23 markers twice, once before the war and again following the war. Biery holds the Penn State record.

Berletics Nip Drewlers, 21-19

In a fight to the end that flared to a slim 21-19 decision, the independent IM Berletics jumped into sole command of "D" league basketball at Rec Hall Monday night, bouncing the old leaders, the Drewlers, off the pace in the same breath-taking contest.

Ed Taggart's stellar floor work, accounting for a dozen markers all in crucial moments, swept the Berletics to their fourth straight victory. The loss was the Drewler's first but left them a half game behind the leader with a four and one record.

It was a night of close action in other games also. The Red Flashes, behind, 8-7, at the mid-period rent, flashed back to snare an 18-17 win over the Privateers; Dorm 33 turned on the current to upset Dorm 37, 17-13; and Dorm 40 stuck it out for a 10-6 edge over Dorm 41.

Some high-scoring outfits wouldn't be denied, however, as Dorm 25 whipped the Whiz Kids, 21-10; the Smooth Schmoos ran wild over the Speedsters, 28-4; Beaver House shellacked Jordan Hall, 27-7; and Q. Quintet battered Ward 2, 29-18.

Dorm 39 won by forfeit over Dorm 43.

Last Friday night saw two consistent losers take it on the chin again when Omega Psi Phi
