

Phi Mu Downs DG in Bowling

Only one bowling game was played this week when Phi Mu chalked up a score of 564 to Delta Gamma's 398 in the League III game. For League II Alpha Chi Omega won by forfeit over Phi Sigma Sigma as did Alpha Xi Delta over Gamma Phi Beta in League I.

In basketball, League I had one game played when Simmons defeated Kappa Alpha Theta 26-16. The other games in League I were won by forfeit; Kappa Delta over Philotes, Gamma Phi Beta over Alpha Xi Delta, and Coop over Delta Zeta.

League II only saw one game played, also, when Delta Delta Delta triumphed over Zeta Tau Alpha 20-17. Alpha Omicron Pi won by default over Leonides as did Alpha Chi Omega over Sigma Delta Tau. Alpha Epsilon Phi and Atherton I had a double forfeit.

Class basketball was played in League III with two sophomore teams competing against a junior team and a senior team. The sophomore and junior game came out to a score of 24 for each, resulting in a tie. In the sophomore and senior game, the sophomores piled up 34 points to the senior's 30.

Panhel Workshop To Meet Tomorrow In Simmons Hall

The Panhellenic Workshop meeting concerning the attainment of closer relations with alumnae will be held in the Delta Zeta suite in Simmons at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, instead of in the Alpha Xi Delta suite as previously stated Adelaide Finkleston, president, said.

Meetings scheduled at the same time on the problems of rushing and officer training will be held in the Zeta Tau Alpha suite and Alpha Epsilon Phi suite, respectively.

All participants in the Workshop will meet in the main lounge of Simmons at 2:30 p.m. for a mass discussion on decisions reached in the smaller conferences. At least five girls from each sorority are requested to attend the discussion groups.
