

WSGA Names Elizabeth Taylor Judicial Committee Chairman

Elizabeth Taylor, junior in Education, was named chairman of Judicial by WSGA at its meeting Thursday night. The action followed a recommendation by Judicial and will not be effective until second semester when Birdie Berman, present chairman, will have graduated.

Mary Louise Henry was welcomed to WSGA as the new representative from Leonides, independent women's organization. She is vice-president of the latter organization.

Other business at the meeting included a report from Judicial that the dean of women's office will try to make one o'clock traveling permissions, as part of the blanket permission, effective by next semester.

Shirley Gauger, vice-president, reported from the House of Representatives that approximately $19 more had been turned in to the WSGA Christmas Drive. This money will be added to the $75.55 already donated to the Estelle H. Hetzel Memorial Fund. WSGA will not meet next week.
