

Panhel Reminds Sororities Of Pre-Rushing Silent Period

Sororities were reminded of the rushing "silent period" now being observed and urged to impress absolute silence between their members and prospective rushees by Adelaide Finkelston, president of Panhellenic Council, at its meeting Tuesday night.

Miss Ellamae Jackson informed Panhel that all girls desiring to be rushed and pledged this semester should bring their transcripts to her in the dean of women's office so that she may average their grades. This would function as a double service in providing all College averages for the girls and a list of coeds who desire to be rushed.

Miss Jackson also advised the Council that photostatic copies of transcripts could be made in 309 Old Main at five cents a copy for each member of a group and ten cents a copy individually.

Open Houses
Gilda Greco, chairman of the rushing committee, reported the division of sororities for the two open houses scheduled to begin this semester's informal rush period. Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Gamma, Delta Zeta, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta and Zeta Tu Alpha will hold open houses on Saturday, February 26, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Open houses will be held at the same time on Sunday, February 27, by Alpha Omicron Pi, Beta Sigma Omicron, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phi Mu and Theta Phi Alpha. Alpha Epsilon Phi, Phi Sigma Sigma and Sigma Delta Tau will also hold open houses on Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m.

Reject Petition
Panhel voted to reject the petition of Alpha Sigma Chi to establish a chapter at the College following a rule made last Spring by the Council to accept no sororities for two years.

In following up a suggestion made to revise Panhel by including presidents of sororities as representatives, the Council approved a plan designating a committee to obtain information on the representation and functioning of Panhellenic Councils on other campuses.

Spring Queen
Each sorority was asked to submit a 3 1/2 by 5 picture of a candidate for Spring Queen to Student Union by Friday. Other business at the meeting included the appointment of a committee to appraise the situation of providing Panhellenic keys for members of the Council and a report from the Religion-in-Life-Week committee.

The next meeting of Panhel will be held in the Phi Mu house on Tuesday, February 22, at 7 p.m.

Leonides Plan Pajama Party

Arrangements are being made for a pajama party to be held in Atherton and McAllister dormitories and Women's Building so that all new women may become acquainted with Leonides.

Rose Eifert, president of Leonides, women's independent association, appointed a committee Monday night to organize the party for February 27.

Those on the committee for the parties are Kay Kuharsky, coordinating chairman, Marie Card, Joyce Youndt, and Gloria Zack.

It was decided by Leonides representatives to set dues at 25 cents per semester for independent women.

Plans were also discussed concerning the mixer to be given by the independent men and Leonides February 27 at the Tub. The mixer will be an open affair.

Sarah Robertson was appointed to work on plans for a carnival booth during Spring Week.

Lock Haven Editor To Be Guest at Tea For Journ Women

All women students in journalism are invited to a tea to meet Miss Rebecca Gross, managing editor of the Lock Haven Express, in the main lounge of Simmons Hall from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday. Theta Sigma Phi, women's professional journalism honorary, will sponsor the affair.

Miss Gross, one of three women editors of daily newspapers in the state, won first prize with her editorial on leadership in the national contest sponsored by the Ladies Home Journal. She was also a Neiman Scholar at Harvard University several years ago. This is an award given to an outstanding journalist every year for graduate study in the social sciences.

Miss Gross, a Theta Sigma Phi, was initiated at the student chapter at Temple University. She just returned from Columbia University where she attended a series of discussions for editors of small city dailies.

The tea is an opportunity for women journalism students to meet a prominent woman in journalism and to meet other journalism students on the campus. Frances Keeney is in charge of arrangements for the affair; Dorothy Hunsberger, refreshments; Diane Peterson, invitations; and June Snyder, decorations.

Clothing for WSGA Collected Tomorrow

Boxes of clothing collected during the WSGA sponsored clothing drive will be gathered tomorrow Shirley Gauger, president of House of Representatives, announced. Clothing contributions will be accepted until time of collection.

The boxes will be taken to the office of one of the hostesses in each dormitory. They will then be collected by Mrs. A. L. Schweitzer, 617 Park Ave.

In the near future plans for the annual May Day celebration will be started.
