

WRA Studies IM Sports Bill

WRA Executive Board discussed several proposed plans for improving the women's intramural sports schedule at yesterday's meeting. No definite action has been agreed upon, however. Shirley Giles, sophomore representative, was appointed as delegate to the World Student Service Fund.

Intramural badminton was played Monday night in League IV and League V. Alpha Zeta Delta triumphed in singles over Delta Zeta 15-9 and 15-4. Whitney and Underwood played for Alpha Zeta Delta while Bauer and Gulliver represented Delta Zeta. Alpha Gamma Delta won by forfeit over Beta Sigma Omicron.

Atherton II, competing against Zeta Tau Alpha, captured one singles, 15-14, 15-5, and one doubles, 15-8, 15-4. Zeta Tau Alpha annexed the other singles, 11-1 and 11-3.

Philotes and Phi Mu in League V played another close game with Philotes winning both singles 11-5, 11-7 and 11-5, 12-10. Phi Mu triumphed in the doubles 15-13, 11-0 and 15-12.

Women's bowling tournaments began Monday night and will continue at 7 p.m. every Monday until play-offs. Girls interested in participating should sign the list posted in the locker room at White Hall.

Sigma Delta Tau

Sigma Delta Tau initiated seven girls at ceremonies held last Friday night. The new initiates are Shirley Bouch, Doris Caplan, Abbie Gavanthor, Carol Kuper-smith, Joan Lappen, Sonya Tilles and Frances Yoffee.
