

Champion Roller Skater Vies For Freshman Beauty Crown

This is the second of a series of thumbnail sketches of the finalists in the Miss Penn State Freshman Coed contest. Miss Patricia Bowles is Swarthmore Center's candidate for Miss Penn State Freshman Coed.

Patty Bowles is a whizz on wheels. An excellent roller skater, she has won the Philadelphia junior and novice championship no less than five times, and the State championship twice.

Patty and her partner reached the elimination round of the National Championship in 1945. There were eight couples left at this point when Patty caught the measles and was forced to withdraw.

She is 18 years old and her home is at 21 Treaty Road, Drexel Hill, a suburb of Philadelphia.

Tuesday, Harrisburg and Hazleton Center's entries will be presented in thumbnail sketch. Watch for ballots in the Daily Collegian and vote for your choice of Miss Penn State Coed.

Patty was graduated from Haverford High School in June, 1948. At Haverford High she was Publicity Chairman for Student Government, a columnist for the school paper and a member of the choir.

In 1947 and 1948 she studied modern ballet and tap dancing and participated in a show, "Springtime Review," at Philadelphia's world famous Academy of Music.

At Swarthmore Center, Patty is President of the Dance Club, and Secretary of the Dance Committee of the Student Association. She is Feature Editor of the State Centaur (the Swarthmore paper) and the writer of a column, "This 'N That."

A journalism major, Patty is one of the nine students out of the Center's 530 who made the Dean's List. She completed last semester with a 2.50 average.

As the editor of the State Centaur said, "She's going to be hard to beat."

Zinn Urges Coeds To Fill Out Cards

Coeds who have not yet filled out their yellow Student Personnel Record Cards are urged to do so as soon as possible, Miss Edith Zinn, assistant to the Dean of Women, stated. The announcement applies especially to town girls and new girls on campus.

Miss Zinn further asked women students to bring up to date their WSGA activity cards or in the event that they are new students to fill one out. All cards are available in the dean of women's office.

Board Plans Tapping

Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, is sending out letters to advisors and hostesses for the purpose of selecting girls for its spring tapping.

In order to be tapped for Mortar Board, a girl must be in her sixth or seventh semester. She must participate in two major activities and have an all-College average .3 point above the average for women. This year the required average will be approximately 1.8.

Russ Randall in contending positions.

Perri, Ed Ericson and Pete Wisherd, Navy, will vie for first place at 165 pounds, with Charles Cope, F&M, and Dean Mulder, Army, in second-ranking positions.

Heading the 175-pound entrants are Jackson and George Gebhardt, Syracuse. Last week, Gebhardt decided Jackson in a dual meet bout. Herb Agocs, Penn, and Fred Reeves, Cornell, are worthy of consideration.

Undeclared Homer Barr, Penn State, is the lone favorite in the heavyweight division, with Dick Clark, Cornell, and Gus LaSasso, Lehigh, as challengers.
