

Catholic U. To Exhibit Crack Squad in EIBA Bouts

Undefeated contestants in this weekend's Eastern boxing tournament will be hard to find but apparently the newcomer to the EIBA ranks, Catholic University of Washington, D. C., will bring to the Nittany Valley the greatest contingent of all-triumphant ringmen.

The Capitol boxers have unbeaten representatives in the 120, 130, 145, 155 and 175 weight divisions. Stealing into the ring limelight once again will be 125-pounder Tom Cronin. The hard hitting Catholic slugger, defeated in the NCAA tourney last year by Penn State's John Benglian, has gone undefeated in four outings this season.

Occupying the all-important leadoff position for the Lions will be ring-wise Fred Smith. The Nanticoke seinoer will appear for the last time in a Rec Hall bout. Plagued by a rib injury throughout part of the season, the veteran Smith compiled a record of one win and two draws during the present mitt campaign.

125 POUNDERS
Leonard Coiner, a Virginia boxing neophyte, will get Coach Al York's nod in the 125-pound contest. The Cavalier mittman sports a 2-2-2 season record.

Sophomore Jim Huba (Hubba) will be Syracuse's choice at 125 pounds. In EIBA competition he drew with Penn State's Freddie Smith, while losing a bout to Cronin of Catholic. He has yet to win a collegiate fight.

Western Maryland will have no entrant in the 125-pound class while Army's representative will be either Stan Scott or Charles Gildart.

Unbeaten in EIBA wars, Virginia's Allen Hollingsworth will be top-seeded man in the 130 division. The tall Virginian captured last season's 125-pound toga. Last week in a hotly contested decision, he outpointed Penn State's John Benglian.

BENGLIAN, HOLLINGSWORTH

Southpaw John Benglian floored Hollingsworth twice last week. These two mitters are rated one-two in the 130 division although undefeated John Redmond of Catholic U. might upset the dope. The classy Capitol slugger owns a 3-0-1 for the year.

Henry Mueller, (6-2-0) will be Western Maryland's entry at 130 pounds, while Syracuse will be represented by Chuck Pichette, (1-3-0). Either Doug Stickley (0-3-0) or Medon Bitzer (2-1-3) will represent the Cadets in the lightweight class.

Holder of the best intercollegiate record of any contestant entered in the tourney tomorrow is Syracuse's Al Sauerwine. Rangy for his weight and having a great competitive spirit, Sauerwine has garnered six triumphs without a setback to establish himself as top-seeded in the 135-pound class.

A feature match is in the making if Sauerwine squares off against last season's 130-pound champion, Grover Masterson of Virginia. Masterson, conqueror of John Benglian once last year, moved up a weight this season. The hard-hitting 'Bat' owns an impressive string of four victories, one setback and one draw.

Having not yet decided on whom to send into the squared circle to represent the Blue and White, Coach Leo Houck has Ollie Wallace, uppercutting Negro battler, or left-jabbing Lou Guthrie, on hand for the weekend's fight agenda.

At 135-pounds Joe Incarnato is Eddie LaFond's Catholic U. mentor choice. Harry Lefew, (0-3-0), is Western Maryland's entry while West Point's contestant will be either John Cunningham (1-3-0), or Doug Stickley, (0-3-0).

John Seiland, a fast moving ringman who garnered Western Maryland's only win in a dual meet at Rec Hall this year, will be the Terror's choice in the 145 weight class. Although he competed in only three meets this year, he seems to be the number-one man in that division. His record shows three straight wins.

Number-two man most likely will be Tim Curley of the Orange. The Syracuse boxer turned in an undefeated slate in Eastern competition (3-0-1) but dropped

WHAT'S NEW ON THE CAMPUS? MOTHER is a FRESHMAN!

Did someone say today's college campus has the new look? You said a megaphone-full, brother. Our old rah-rah brethren of the raccoon twenties and frantic thirties would hardly recognize it.

THESE days, Joe College and Betty Co-ed are frequently Mr. and Mrs., with junior minding the Quonset hut.

20TH CENTURY-FOX has come up with a novel and delightful twist on the new theme with a charming contribution entitled "Mother is a Freshman." And this 1949 version of Alma Mater turns out to be Loretta Young.

HOLD that wolf-whistle, Fraternity Row! Because what we didn't tell you is that mother—the college widow—has a full-fledged sophomore daughter attending the same school. Okay, wolves . . . whistle!

INTRIGUING? The plot really starts to perk when they both go after the same guy. Who's the lucky boy? He looks like Van Johnson! He is Van Johnson! And when you see what comes off, you get a liberal education in an institution of higher yearning! Even the Technicolor tells tales out of school.

Two things every college man should know!

1. This is an electrical engineer. Really a live-wire but frequently gets Ohm-sick. Knows what's Watt. Never goes sparking without a "Manhattan" tie.

2. This is a "Manhattan" tie. Painstakingly engineered. Foulard pattern with contrasting stripe current favorite in college circuit.
