

Panhel Sends Jelacic, Milligan To U. of Maryland Workshop

Panhellenic Council voted Tuesday night to send Delores Jelacic, president, and Helen Milligan to a Panhellenic Workshop sponsored by the University of Maryland's Council on March 19.

Panhel was particularly desirous of accepting the invitation in view of a similar workshop which the Council plans to hold at the College next year.

Council also voted to allow the use of men in rushing during the informal period which ends Monday at 8 a.m. when bids may be sent to rushees. Another strict silent period will be observed for two weeks after this time in which no contacts may be made with prospective rushees except with those girls accepting bids.

Nancy George, Alpha Xi Delta, was formally installed as vice-president of the Council and Jo-Anne Hobbes was appointed representative to CORE. Josephine Bihl and Louise Phillips were named a committee to investigate scholarship reports.

A report concerning the regulations directing sororities in the Panhel-IFC sing was given by Nancy George. Changes in the previous rules set include permission to use an accompanist who is not an undergraduate and no maximum limit on the number of girls who may sing for one sorority.

Miss Jelacic asked sororities to hand in to her the reports of all deplodings. The next meeting of Panhel will be held in the Delta Gamma suite March 22.

Mary Cohen Places In Second Round Of Bowling Contest

Mary Cohen, Penn State coed, placed in the second round of the Intercollegiate Bowling tournament held recently.

In the individual two-game series Miss Cohen rolled 325 for fifth place, behind Charlotte Denman's first place score of 339 for Indiana University. Penn State's total in the five-man two-game series was 1358 for ninth place. Indiana University won this event with 1567 points.

In December the first round of the tenth annual tournament was held. Miss Cohen bowled 173 for seventh place in the one single game matches. Peggy Wedgewood was first with 221 for Michigan State Teachers College. In the five-man two-game series Penn State finished in eighth place with 1368 points as opposed to first place Cortland State Teachers College of New York with 1568.

Penn State's total points for the contest were 8.5, putting them in eighth place. Stephens College of Missouri was first with 32.5 points.

The third and last round will be held in the next few weeks. Highest results of these rounds will be telegraphed to campuses throughout the country.

Phi Mu Beats Atherton II

Phi Mu captured one singles and one doubles from Atherton II in League V badminton on Monday night.

Philotes won their doubles game over Zeta Tau Alpha, 15-2, 15-3, and both teams forfeited the singles. In League IV badminton Alpha Gamma Delta emerged victorious in both singles and a doubles over Delta Zeta. Beta Sigma Omicron won one singles and one doubles over Alpha Gamma Delta.

Alpha Chi Omega in League II badminton lost by default to Kappa Kappa Gamma. Alpha Omicron Pi won one singles and one doubles over Kappa Alpha Theta.

Table Tennis
Co-op played against Simmons in League I table tennis Tuesday night and won one singles and one doubles.

Chi Omega also secured one singles and one doubles win from Gamma Phi Beta.

Continuing with table tennis, Atherton I in League III lost by forfeit to Leonides. Delta Delta Delta chalked up one singles and one doubles win over Kappa Delta.

Interclass volleyball was played on Tuesday night between the seniors and the sophomores. The seniors were victorious 35-33. Brooks, Forncrook, and Lyons chalked up most of the senior's points and Garretson, Schoch, and Yougle were high scorers for the sophomores.

Etiquette Survey Closes Tomorrow

Blanks constituting the 1949 College Etiquette Survey sponsored by the authors of "Your Best Foot Forward", which have been distributed to coeds should be returned to the dean of women's office by noon tomorrow.

Miss Dorothy Stratton and Miss Helen Schleman, authors of the book which is based on some 6500 questions submitted by college students in 1939, are revising the present version and wish to include in the revision the etiquette problems and social usage questions which students face on campuses in 1949.

Miss Schleman, now Dean of Women at Purdue University, acted as chief consultant to the dean of women's section of the Eighth Pennsylvania Workshop, sponsored by the College last summer.

We the Women

by Frances Keeney

Today's column is dedicated to the "line-hoppers."

In case your curious, this club is composed of too many coeds, who's chief occupation is gracefully skipping ahead of their dormitory sisters while they stand in line for meals.

These "line-hoppers" are chiefly active at the noon meal, although they often carry over their activities into the evening meal. They usually employ what they believe to be coy strategy in carrying out their projects.

Techniques

The most popular technique used by the "line-hoppers" is to suddenly find a long-lost friend to whom must be told very vital news — immediately. They start from the back of the line, politely excuse themselves past the other girls, find their friend, and proceed to engage in a lengthy conversation which lasts until the girls have completely gone through the line.

Other members of the club aren't as subtle. They brazenly plough through the lines, and go as far front as their nerve will let them.

No Conscience

"Line-hoppers" have no conscience or feelings. If they would, they couldn't help but hear the comments from those unfortunate ones not holding membership in the club, and who consequently have to remain in line waiting for their turn to eat.

"Line-hoppers" have been a menace to Simmons, Atherton, and McAllister Hall Dining Rooms long enough. We propose a campaign to exterminate the organization from the campus.

ZTA Trounces Leonides in IM

All four table tennis contests Wednesday ended with the winners each taking a full-house.

Phi Mu won every game in their battle with Philotes. Yvonne Worrell took her match away from Smith 21-14, 21-9, and Lois Van Vactor and Barbara Keller teamed up against Marguerite Naumann and Sharf to win 21-10, 21-8. Philotes forfeited the second set of singles.

Zeta Tau Alpha won against Leonides when Virginia Diver beat Helen Rusinko 21-18, 21-19 and Margaret Rothermel walloped Nancy McCormick 21-8, 21-6. Helen Baily and Shirley Gauger followed through by lacing Ann Stork and Ruth Gross 21-6, 21-5.

Alpha Epsilon Phi beat Sigma Delta Tau, taking all three matches. Joan Green faced Sonya Tilles and won 21-12, 21-6. Bernice Goldberg took two wins from Sarabelle Mazer 21-14, 21-18, but lost one 21-19. Marion Goldman paired with June Elden to beat Suzanne Halperin and Janet Rosen 21-16, 21-19.

Alpha XiDelta trimmed Delta eta in a triple win. Joyce Cotter kept Jean Bower to a low of 21-2, 21-9. Ronnie Mowles and Mary Cohen beat duo Jackie Wengert and June Kratz 21-16, 21-12, but lost one 21-17.

Judicial 'Dictator' Human; Active in Chimes, Sports

"Many people consider a member of Judicial as a coed version of Sherlock Holmes, but really that is not our purpose," stated Elizabeth Taylor, chairman of the Judicial Committee.

She continued by saying, "Judicial's real purpose is to interpret the dormitory and WSGA regulations set up by student government, and to penalize women students who violate any of these rules."

Miss Taylor, who succeeded Berdie Berman as chairman of Judicial this spring, is in elementary education and calls Mount Union her home town.

Libby Taylor

A member of Kappa Alpha Theta, she is also active in Treble Singers; president of Pi Lambda Theta, woman's education honorary; secretary of Chimes, social chairman of Association of Childhood Education; and a member of Senate and All-College Cabinet.

The friendly blue-eyed, red-haired junior has many outside interests. However, she places dancing, swimming, field hockey and riding at the top of her list. She particularly likes riding, and as a member of the beginner class in riding, placed in the finals of the College Horse Show last spring.

May Queen Pictures

All Living Units must turn in a picture of their May Queen and Maid of Honor entrants by March 22. Pictures may be 3 by 4 inches up to 5 by 7 inches.

Chi Phi

Chi Phi will entertain Zeta Tau Alpha at a tea dance Sunday.
