

Judicial Gets New Members

Gay Brunner and Patricia Carlisle have been elected to Judicial by that organization and upon the approval of Senate, Elizabeth Taylor, chairman of Judicial announced at WSGA meeting Thursday night.

Final preparations were made in obtaining Miss Elizabeth M. Lee, executive secretary of the Latin American division of the Methodist Church missionary service, for the WSGA Convocation to be held April 28.

Further business included a report from the House of Representatives concerning May Queen. Each coed group which has a representative to the House has the privilege of nominating one girl from its group to be May Queen and must submit a 3 x 4 or 5 x 7 picture by March 22.

WSGA wished to remind all coeds over 25 years of age that by applying to the dean of women's office and gaining approval of Judicial they may obtain 11 o'clock weekday permissions.

WRA Executives Make Revision In Intramural Posts

WRA executive board revised its Constitution at Tuesday's meeting.

Instead of having one intramural chairman and one assistant intramural chairman, there will now be an intramural chairman, a junior intramural chairman, and a sophomore intramural chairman.

This amendment brought about the revision of several other Constitution clauses in accordance with the new offices that the amendment has set up. An additional article will be added to the Constitution to include the duties of the three intramural chairmen.

WRA elections will be held in conjunction with the WSGA elections during the last week in March, Nancy Smith, acting president of WRA, said yesterday.
