Allen, Gabriel Nominated For All-College Prexy

Lions Shelve Policy Decision

A packed throng in 10 Sparks heard the name of Theodore Allen introduced as the Lion party's sole nominee for All-College president in preliminary nominations Sunday night.

Other candidates put up for nominations are Harry McMahon and Frank Lucia, All-College vice-president; James MacCallom, All-College secretary-treasurer.

James Balog and Bernard Carbeau, senior class president; Joseph Reinheimer, senior class vice-president; Loraine Stotler, senior class secretary-treasurer.

All nominations were made from the floor, the steering committee submitting no recommendations of its own.

Pressed for time, acceptance speeches by the nominees were delayed until Sunday when final nominations and elections of Lion party candidates for the April elections will be made.

Submission of the party's platform for the forthcoming elections was also held over until Sunday because George Bearer, head of the policy committee, was forced to leave State College for the weekend.

Book Receipts Available Now

Veterans who submitted receipts for the first book refund accounting and who have initials M-Z may pick up their checks at the Bursar's Office today. The first half of the alphabet is scheduled for tomorrow.

Richard Baker, Coordinator of Veterans Affairs, has announced that all receipts for the second accounting must be turned in by noon, March 26. These receipts will be processed and returns made in the latter part of next month.

No refunds will be made at this time to any whose receipts are not in acceptable order, and who will be notified concerning the details. Veterans whose period of eligibility expires this semester before the halfway point will have their fees and book expenditures prorated. The Veterans Administration will pay the proportion of these expenses represented by the amount of eligible time left relative to the whole semester.

9 Days to Carnival.

There may still be nine days left until the gigantic Spring Week Carnival, but there is only one more day left for organizations to enter their booths. After tomorrow it will be too late and the unfortunates who did not enter will have to stand by and watch other groups have the fun and win the prizes. Entries must be in Student Union by 5 p.m. tomorrow.

More entries have been pouring in. Chi Omega and Phi Kappa Tau will have a side show consisting of three to six acts. They will have a small band and barkers to announce to Carnival patrons the "oddities which can be seen inside."

Kappa Alpha Theta and Phi Gamma Delta will search deep into the hidden talents of their members and come up with a

State Considers NSA Resolution

Robert Gabriel, a junior in psychology, headed the preliminary slate of All-College and class officer nominees placed before the State party at a meeting in 405 Old Main Sunday night.

Gabriel is the clique steering committee's choice for All-College president in the elections slated for Apr. 6 and 7. Other steering committee recommendations are Joel Bachman, All-College vice-president; James Barry, senior class president; Joel Fleming, senior class vice-president; Frances Eshleman, senior class secretary-treasurer.

David Owen, junior class president; and Virginia Lee Diver, junior class secretary-treasurer, John Kraft, Charles Morrison, and John Meszaros were submitted to the floor as preliminary nominees for junior class vice-president without steering committee recommendation.

Nominations from the floor added the names of Shirley Johns to the junior class secretary-treasurer post and Sarah Pate and Margaret Howe to the list of nominees for senior class secretary-treasurer.

Nominations for all offices are still open, and final nominations and elections of candidates will not be conducted until Sunday.

Following the submission of nominees, Bachman proposed a resolution that the "State party support NSA in its efforts to establish a Campus Chest on the Pennsylvania State College campus."

There is a strong possibility that the resolution will be included in the clique's platform which will be introduced on the floor at the Sundays meeting.

Froth Features 40th Year Issue

Froth's biggest issue of the year, to be featured in promotion as the "Big 40th" Anniversary issue, will go on sale next Tuesday as a feature of the College's Spring Week festivities.

Included between the covers will be a complete schedule of Spring Week activities, a picture of the Spring Queen, who will be given the title of Miss Penn State and entered in the national Miss American Coed contest, and a feature story by James Dugan, former Froth editor.

Dugan, who is currently doing free-lance writing for national magazines, has been editor of Yank, the Army weekly, and Salute magazines.

display of songsters and comedians.

"Win yourself a pack of cigarettes" will be the cry of the Sigma Pi's at their cigarette shooting gallery. Each customer of the booth will try to knock down a pack of cigarettes shooting a popgun loaded with corks.

One shop window will have extra window trimming the day of the Carnival when Delta Zeta and Phi Sigma Sigma put on their "Calendar Comes to Life" show. Each section of the window will display a girl dressed to represent a month of the year.

Alpha Zeta will try another angle of the shooting gallery, with their "Douse the Dopes" booth. Three Alpha Zetas will stand at the rear of the booth while customers try to hit their bobbing heads with pistols loaded with colored water. Prizes will be awarded for direct hits.

Dr. Rayford W. Logan

Logan To Speak On Race Factor In World Polity

Dr. Rayford W. Logan, head of the department of History at Howard University, will speak on "Race as an International Political Factor," in Schwab Auditorium, 7:30 p. m. Friday.

Dr. Logan is an internationally known speaker on Negro-white relationships. He is special consultant on colonial problems to the United States delegation to the United Nations. In his lecture here, he will tie in the international aspects of the race question with the local situation.

Author of "The Diplomatic Relations of the United States with Haiti," "The Negro and the Post War World," and "The African Mandates in respect to Politics," Dr. Logan also edits the publication, "What the Negro Wants."

The lecture is open to all students, faculty and town residents. Tickets are on sale at Student Union at $.50, for the lecture which is sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

'Exchange Dinner Week' Begins With IFC Sponsoring New Plan

Interfraternity Council this week is sponsoring "Exchange Dinner Week" in which men from various fraternities will be dinner guests at other houses.

The week will serve as a trial for future exchange dinner plans which soon are to be put into effect under a scheduled system.

Moon Determines Easter Sunday Celebration

One hundred thirty one years ago today Christians throughout the land were celebrating Easter. Due to the dependency of the date of this holiday on the behavior of the moon, March 22 is the earliest possible date on which it can occur.

April 25 is the latest possible date on which the festival can fall. This happened for the first and only time in the twentieth century in 1943.

Easter is the Sunday following the Pascal full moon on or after March 21. Thomas Jefferson's birthday, Wednesday April 13, is the date astronomers have agreed on for the full moon governing the holiday this year.

Five O'Clock Theatre

"West End Express" by Timothy Hayes, will be presented by the Five O'Clock Theatre in the Little Theatre, Old Main, this afternoon.

The cast includes Charles Barisch, Shirley Betts, Olivia Crider, Francis Fatsie, and Thomas Lyon.

Seniors Approve Three Class Gift Suggestions

Seniors approved three gift suggestions and rejected three others at a meeting in Schwab auditorium Sunday night. Only 62 of the approximately 2,000 students eligible to attend were present.

Recommendations that the fund be used for a student press, as capital for the student co-op, or to erect a memorial gate at the corner of Pollock road and Atherton street were approved by seniors in the auditorium and will be voted for April 4, 5, and 6 at Student Union.

$2,000 Ceiling

A ceiling of $2,000 was placed on the student co-op proposal, making it necessary that any senior voting for that suggestion also vote for one of the other two to absorb the remainder of the approximately $8,000.

For the second straight year the suggestion that the fun be set aside for a student press was accepted. If approved, the fund will be merged with last year's gift fund to provide $14,000 of the more than $25,000 necessary to establish the press.

The suggestion that the senior class gift fund be used to establish a memorial gate was a last-

Cornerstone ceremonies at the Plant Industries building, Willard Hall, and the Mineral Sciences building will be held Friday, March 25. Ceremonies will begin at 4:10 p.m. at the Plant Industries building, located across from the dairy barns on Ag hill.

James Milholland, acting President of the College, will preside, with Dean Lyman Jackson of the School of Agriculture and Mr. K. S. Bagshaw of the Board of Trustees also taking part.

The official party will move to Willard Hall, on Pollock road, where President Milholland will introduce Admiral Behrend of the Department of Property and Supplies of Pennsylvania. Mrs. J. M. Willard, widow of Professor Willard, for whom the building is named, will take part in the ceremony.

The concluding ceremony will be held at the Mineral Sciences building. Dean Edward of the School of Mineral Industries will present J. B. Morrow, Vice-president of the Pittsburgh Consolidated Coal Co., and President of the Bituminous Research Institute.

At 6 p.m. Friday the annual student-faculty dinner of the School will be held in the Nittany Lion Inn as part of the construction ceremonies.

Glenn Miller Dance

Moonlight serenaders, nostalgic for their bobby socks days, will have a chance to recapture a bit of the past at the Cwens Glenn Miller record dance in the TUB from 9 to 12 p.m. Friday.

To make the flashback to days of noon dances in the high school gym convincing, the appropriate costume for the evening will be sweaters and skirts — and, of course—bobby socks. A photographer will be on hand to take pictures of the Miller fans.

Proceeds from the dance will go to WSSF. Tickets at $1 a couple are now on sale at Student Union.

B-X Special

Legal size, extra long clipboards selling for 25 cents are the special at the B-X this week. Store hours remain 9 to 5 including the lunch hour.

Gould Directs Band Festival

Morton Gould, eminent American composer and conductor, will direct the second Intercollegiate State Band Festival scheduled for March 24, 25, 26 at the State Teachers College, Indiana, Pa.

Gould will be assisted in his conducting of the 135 piece Intercollegiate Band representing twenty-two Pennsylvania Colleges by C. David McNaughton, band director at Indiana State Teachers College, W. Valgene Routh of the Lock Haven State Teachers College music faculty, and R. Leslie Saunders of Lebanon, president of the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association.

Radio Concerts

Two concerts performed by the Intercollegiate Band will be broadcast over Radio Station WDAD at Indiana Friday, March 25, 3 to 3:45 p. m. and Saturday, March 26, from 8:30 to 9:30 p. m. Both concerts will originate in the Indiana State Teachers College Auditorium. The Saturday evening concert will be a feature on the College Life Series.

Eleven men from the College, all members of the Blue band, are participating in the festival. James Dunlop, orchestra and band director, will accompany them and remain at the festival for the entire time.

PSC Musicians

Franklin Cree, is playing second flute and piccolo; Eugene Fred Golla, second cornet; George A. Kandra, first clarinet; Donald E. Mattern, second clarinet; Paul Nippes, alto clarinet; Robert Manning, first French horn; Samuel C. Rice, third clarinet; Wayne S. Rockwell, E-flat bass tuba; Frank M. Rupp, tenor saxophone; Grant Thompson, alto clarinet; and John Y. Wills, III, second alto saxophone.
