Johnson Given Defense Post

WASHINGTON — The nation got a new Secretary of Defense yesterday who promised to make the country secure by discouraging any potential aggressor. Louis Johnson, sworn in at an elaborate ceremony in Washington, told a crowd of 15,000 that the defense job we have is not of our own choosing. He said it has been thrust on America by the tension of the world today.

Forrestal Decorated

WASHINGTON — James Forrestal, calling on the White House to say goodbye yesterday, was presented with the Distinguished Service Medal. "You deserve it, Jim," said the President.

Rent Bill Favorable

WASHINGTON—Senate-House conferees have agreed on a rent control bill with a phrase calling for a "fair net operating income" for landlords. It extends controls for 15 months and maintains the "home rule" clause. Senator John Sparkman of Alabama, predicts that both the senate and the house will approve the compromise measure by tonight.
