

8 V-Ballers Triumph Again

Eight undefeated IM volleyball teams Tuesday chalked up additional triumphs on the Rec Hall boards.

Joe Does blasted Dorm 14, 15-8 and 15-7, and Dorm 24 measured Dorm 40, 15-7, 12-15 and 15-4, to remain in the unbeaten class among the independents.

Among the fraternity squads adding to perfect records, Pi Lambda Phi-A walloped Acacia, 15-8 and 15-7; Sigma Nu-A easily handled Sigma Alpha Epsilon-A, 15-3 and 15-10; Phi Kappa Sigma-Atrounced Phi Kappa Tau-A, 15-3 and 15-9; Phi Epsilon Pi-B defeated Theta Xi-A, 15-12 and 15-12.

Two other outfits—Alpha Zeta-A and Theta Chi-B—remained undefeated by annexing forfeit wins over Alpha Epsilon Pi-A and Alpha Sigma Phi.

In other contests, Dorm 37 nipped Team Y, 8-15, 15-11 and 15-9; Dorm 36 forfeited to Dorm 27; Kappa Sigma-A rallied to defeat Theta Chi-A, 9-15, 17-15 and 15-13; Sigma Phi Sigma-A won by forfeit over Zeta Beta Tau-A.

Phi Sigma Kappa Receives Plaque

Kappa Chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa received a plaque for 50 years of service from Herbert C. Brown, national president, at their Founder's Day banquet last Saturday.

The guests of honor were President James Milholland, '11, Harold W. Loman, purchasing agent, '28, and Dr. J. Benjamin Hill, associate professor of botany and faculty advisor of the fraternity since 1930.

Gerhard Roth, chapter president, served as toastmaster and received the plaque for the fraternity.

Speeches and an informal party followed the dinner served at the fraternity house.

AEPHI's Capture IM Table Tennis

Alpha Epsilon Phi defeated the Kappa Kappa Gammas to win the table tennis finals in intramural competition. The complete results of the badminton and volleyball tournaments were not available and will appear in tomorrow's Collegian.

Umpires are needed for intramural softball games on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights. Any girl with a knowledge of the game is asked to sign up. The girls need not be physical education majors and no previous experience is necessary.

Coeds Sign for Matrix Table; Woman Journalist To Speak

Coeds invited to the Matrix Table are reminded that they must sign up at Student Union by 12 noon tomorrow if they intend coming to the dinner.

Approximately 130 outstanding women on campus have been invited to the dinner at the Nittany Lion Inn 6:15 p.m. Monday. Awards for Cap Girl, Matrix Girl, and Quill Girl will be made during the formal dinner sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary.

Laura Lou Brockman

Laura Lou Brockman, managing editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, will be guest speaker at this 12th annual Matrix Table. Miss Brockman was born in Vermillion, South Dakota. After graduating from Vermillion High School, she entered the University of Missouri and graduated with Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Journalism degrees. Miss Brockman then started working as a reporter and, later, as Sunday Editor of the Des Moines Register. After leaving the Register, she became Women's Editor of the Baltimore Post. Her next job was that of Fiction Editor of the Newspaper Enterprise Association Service in Cleveland, later going to New York to assume the position of Women's Editor of the NEA Service.

'Alice In Wonderland' To Be Aquacade Theme

If you see a group of coeds looking bedraggled with their straight wet hair, don't blame it on the rain entirely. These girls are getting ready for the big "Alice In Wonderland" aquacade to be given next Friday and Saturday, April 8 and 9, in White Hall.

Forty-five girls will dramatize the many lively scenes from out of one of the all-time favorite children's books. The mad tea party, the caucus race, the croquet game, and the lobster quadrille will be a few of the incidents portrayed by the swimmers. Some of the numbers will be humorous while others will be serious in nature. The swimming will be done in groups, with no individual specialties.

Pool of Tears

The pool itself will be in perfect harmony with the occasion. It will represent Alice's pool of tears. If you will remember, Alice made herself alternately, very small and large. As she became small once again, she had to swim around in the tears she had shed when she was so big.

The aquacade, which is given by the WRA Swimming Club, includes all original routines which the girls themselves have worked on. The costuming, also, is original.

Tickets

Admission to the two performances will be by ticket only.

Tickets may be obtained from any of the participants or members of the Swimming Club. Admission is free and the show starts at 8:15.

The president of the Club is Reta Reed. Misses Ruth Leonard and Jacqueline Zivic are the faculty members who are helping with the aquacade.

Gamma Phi Wins Softball

Gamma Phi Beta won 11-4 in its two-inning softball game Wednesday night with Chi Omega.

Jean Garretson made a home run, Ish Piccone, Connie Bevan, and Betty Black each scored two runs, and Ann Courtney, Barb Sprengle, Barbara Brown and Garretson got one run each for Gamma Phi.

Jodie Bihl hit a homer for Chi-O, and Christie Post and Lou In-serra each got home with walks. Joan Good made a run.

AOPI won against Kappa Alpha Theta 2-1 in a one-inning game that was stopped due to darkness.

Dean Brown and Kay Bitner scored runs for AOPI, and Peg Irwin got one run for the Thetas. ACHIO lost to the Kappas by forfeit.

Kappa Delta

Kappa Delta entertained their alumnae, parents, and guests from the dean of women's office at a tea held at their house last week.

Etiquette Baffling? Here are Date Hints

In answer to many questions which concern college students in regards to dating, the Daily Collegian has secured a list of the most popular and will pass along the answers in the hope they may be of use to the College students.

What expenses does a man pay when he invites a girl for a weekend?

The girl pays her own transportation to State College. On many campuses she pays for her room. In State College it is customary for the man to obtain the room for the girl and pay for it, as well as for all meals and entertainment.

What expenses does a girl pay when she invites a man to a college dance and weekend?

She pays for tickets to the dance, and he pays for room and meals.

How far in advance should a man invite a girl to a dance?

Usually depends on type of dance. Three weeks for a large formal, two for others.

Who suggests sitting out a dance?

The girl.

Should you introduce your date to the chaperones at a dance?

At a small dance, yes. At a large dance, only those who have been responsible for any of the arrangements and whom you may know personally.

How does a man find out how to buy a corsage?

He may find out the girl's color choice from her friend, or he may ask the girl rather than risk the chance of selecting the wrong color.

Will one corsage serve two nights?

In most cases, yes.

How do you wear a corsage?

Individual choice. Florists suggest that they should be worn in an upright position if possible.

We want to thank Mrs. George Free, instructor of home economics, for her assistance in answering these questions, and hope that they may be of some help to Penn Staters this weekend.
