

Invest Today
For Tomorrow

The Daily Collegian

"FOR A BETTER PENN STATE"

Harry James
To Play at Ball

VOLUME 49—NUMBER 42

STATE COLLEGE, PA., TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 5, 1949

PRICE FIVE CENTS

College Voting Begins Tomorrow

Senior Voting For Gift Fund To Halt Friday

Ballots Accepted At Student Union

Voting deadline for use of the senior class gift fund has been extended to Friday, and ballots will be accepted at Student Union from 2 to 4:30 p.m. any day this week.

The time extension was made in order to coincide with cap and gown orders and to secure a greater participation by the almost 2,000 students eligible to cast ballots.

Seniors will record their choice for disposition of the estimated $8,000 in the fund by marking one of four choices on the ballots.

The four alternatives are (1) the entire sum toward a student press, (2) the entire sum toward a memorial gate at the corner of Pollock road and Atherton street, (3) $2,000 to the student Co-op and the remainder toward the student press, (4) $2,000 to the student Co-op and the remainder toward the memorial gate.

Student Press

The student press, for the second time in two years, appears as one of the choices open to seniors for disposition of the senior gift fund. Last year the senior class voted $6500 toward establishment of the press.

Minimum cost of the press is approximately $25,000. The Board of Trustees opposes a bond issue to gain the additional funds necessary to install the press on campus. Therefore, as an alternative, the press suggestion was once more placed before the senior class to raise another $8,000. Combined with the previous $6500 and $4,000 in a Daily Collegian, Inc. sinking fund, the total would be $18,500.

Private loans, which the President of the Board of Trustees has privately intimated he will not oppose, are suggested as a means

(Continued on page eight)

Late AP News, Courtesy WMAJ

12 Nations Sign Atlantic Pact

WASHINGTON—In a solemn ceremony in Washington the foreign ministers of 12 western democratic nations have signed the North Atlantic Security Alliance.

The treaty would pledge all 12 nations to resist an attack on any one of them. To become effective, the treaty need be ratified by only seven original sponsors. They are the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, and Luxembourg.

Arrest Communists

YUGOSLAVIA — A broadcast dispatch of the Yugoslav news agency Tanjug says that 300 Bulgarian State and Communist party officials have been arrested. There has been no confirmation of this from Bulgaria.

New Aircraft Engine

NEW YORK — The Curtiss-Wright Corporation has disclosed that it will soon have in quantity production an aircraft engine which could carry long-range patrol bombers around the world non-stop.

The engine, called the "Turbo-Cyclone 18," could make the round-the-world flight at the 55th parallel, where the globe is 14,000 miles around.

Weather

Fair with little change in temperature.

All-College Candidates

Robert Gabriel—Pres. (S)

Ted Allen—Pres. (L)

Joel Bachman—Vice-pres. (S)

Harry McMahon—Vice-pres. (L)

James Barry—Sec.-treas. (S)

James MacCallum—Sec.-treas. (L)

Candidates List Qualifications

State Nominees

ROBERT GABRIEL, All-College president — president, Education Student Council; All-College Cabinet; member of student work agency committee; member of student council budget appropriations committee; football manager; sophomore counselor; Pi Kappa Phi, IFC representative.

JOEL BACHMAN, All-College vice-president — chairman, NSA international relations committee; co-chairman, Junior Prom; Tau Beta Pi; Chi Epsilon; Beta Sigma Rho, IFC representative.

JAMES BARRY, All-College secretary-treasurer — AIM representative.

ROBERT KELLER, senior class representative.

(Continued on page six)

Lion Nominees

TED ALLEN, All-College president — vice-pres., Penn State Christian Association; chairman, orientation committee; co-chairman of men counselors for Orientation Week; purchasing agent and member of the board of control of the student book exchange; ex-officio member of All-College Cabinet; agricultural education club; president, sophomore class; glee club; forestry society; president, freshman forestry club; Alpha Zeta.

HARRY McMAHON, All-College vice-president — Thespians; Blue Key; golf manager; member

(Continued on page six)

Students To Cast Votes by Machine

Balloting for All-College and class officers gets underway on the second floor balcony of Old Main at 8 a.m. tomorrow.

Voting machines will be set up to handle the large turnout expected after the week's-long political campaign. Members of the elections committee and volunteer workers from the staff of the Daily Collegian will be on hand to assist voters.

Police Crack Down On Prohibition Violators

Police Chief John Juba and four of the State College police force added more realism to Alpha Tau Omega's "roaring twenties" houseparty than many of the guests had hoped for Saturday night.

Juba and his deputies stilled the noise of more than 150 ATO's and their guests when they "raided" the chapter house shortly after 11 p.m.

The guests present, all of whom were wearing shoulder holsters and playing black jack, roulette, and other forms of prohibition-era gambling devices, quickly fell into a strained hush when the chief of the local gendarmes rushed into the house, announced that no one would be permitted to leave, and asked all persons under 21 to line up.

Outside a throng of curious bystanders gathered to watch the drama unfolding inside the "raided" fraternity house.

Heavy frowns and worried faces were quickly dissipated, however, when Juba revealed that plans for the faked "raid" had been made well in advance as a practical joke. John Erickson, perpetrator of the idea, said the police captain missed his calling by not becoming an actor.

"He played the part to the hilt," Erickson reported.

Climaxing pre-election fireworks, the Lion party will stage a parade and rally beginning about 7:15 p.m. today. The parade will assemble in front of Rec Hall, march on foot past West dorms and down the mall, and parade along Pollock road through the Pollock Circle and Nittany dorm areas.

Convertibles

At Atherton hall all Lion candidates will be bundled into open-topped convertibles and the line of marchers will continue through the fraternity section and climax its march at the Delta Upsilon fraternity house.

Rudolph Valentino, Lion nominee for the post of junior class secretary-treasurer and varsity tumbler, will perform tumbling antics along the path of the victory parade.

Following the procession an all college open rally will be held in the DU house.

At 9:30 p.m. today the State party will hold a similar victory procession and rally ending at the Pi Kappa Phi fraternity house.

Radio Broadcast

Bob Gabriel and Ted Allen, rivals for the all-college presidency, will speak tonight over Station WMAJ at 9:45 p.m. They will appear on Jack Baldwin's "Meet the People" show.

Tomorrow night, in the midst of the two-day election, Ted Allen and James Balog of the Lion party will debate party platforms with Robert Gabriel and Robert Erickson reported.

(Continued on page eight)

Collegian Elects New Boards; Morgan, Weaver Head Staffs

Thomas Morgan has been elected editor, and Marlin Weaver, business manager of the Daily Collegian for 1949-50, according to Lewis Stone and Vance Klepper, graduating editor and business manager, respectively.

Additional members of the senior editorial board are Wilbert Roth, managing editor; Jack Reen, news editor; Dorothy Werlinich, assistant news editor; Elliot Krane, sports editor; Edwin Watson, assistant sports editor; Seymour Barash, editorial director.

Marboe Gives Curie Lecture

Mrs. Evelyn Chostner Marboe will deliver the annual Marie Curie lecture in 119 Osmond Lab at 8 p.m. today instead of Saturday night as was erroneously stated Saturday's issue.

Her topic will be "Gas Evolution from Supersaturated Liquids." The problem deals with the evolution of gases or vapors from superheated liquids and is one of vital importance in various fields of scientific research.

Mrs. Marboe is assistant professor of Glass Technology Research in the School of Mineral Industries at the College. She has worked in various research laboratories and was previously an instructor in the chemistry department at the College.

The annual lecture series is sponsored by the Palladium chapter of Iota Sigma Pi, the women's science honorary. Following tonight's lecture the group will hold a public reception in the Mineral Industries art gallery.

The lecture is open to the public.

Anna Keller, society editor; Barbara Brown, assistant society editor; Pauline Moss, feature editor; Raymond Benfer, photo editor; George Vadasz, promotion co-manager; and Sylvia Oekner, Robert Rose, Charlotte Seidman and Myrna Tex.

Business Staff

Senior business staff members include Joseph Jackson, assistant business manager; Louis Gilbert, advertising director; Donald Baker, local advertising director; Mark Arnold, assistant local advertising manager.

Robert Bergman and Thomas Karoluk, circulation co-managers; Thelma Geier, classified advertising manager; Betty Jane Hower, personnel manager; Karl Borish, promotion co-manager; Ann Zekauskas, office manager; and Marian Goldman and Suzanne Stern, secretaries.

Collegian senior board members.

(Continued on page six)