Reports Show WSSF Success

Scattered reports from WSSF solicitors indicated that the World Student Service Fund drive is progressing well, said Mark Elcan, co-chairman today. However, women students have been less responsive than men to the drive, Elcan continued.

The drive which is being held to raise relief money for university students in Europe and Asia will continue today and tomorrow for students. Faculty members will be contacted until Thursday. In conjunction with the drive, WSSF is sponsoring an exhibit on the second floor of the library.

Although the government supplies food stuffs and heavy equipment to ERP countries, there is still an urgent need for funds for books, medical care, food, clothing, and housing for students in these countries, according to the WSSF national executive committee. WSSF operates on the principle that "the future of man rests in the minds of the students of the world" and that aid from university persons to fellow students and professors is important for building universal solidarity.

The major portion of this year's funds will be sent to the Philippines for books and supplies. Funds over $2400 will put into WSSF's general fund for emergency use.

Last year's drive aided a student-operated hospital in Triplicane Madras, India, and 12 Polish tubercular students in a Swedish sanatorium.

Werner Lists Track Records

Barney Plessner teamed together in 1942 to set the record of 3 minutes 26.5 seconds.

The distance medley relay was set one year ago by Paul Koch, Mitch Williams, Bill Shuman and Gerry Karver. The quartet sped over the distance in 10 minutes 17 seconds.

FIELD

Turning to the field events, the most recent varsity record is that set by Dave Pincus in 1948 when he threw the discus 153 feet and three-fourths of an inch.

The pole vault record is somewhat older, having survived since 1941 when Joe Bakura established it with a jump of 13 feet 5 inches. The high jump record was set by Jim Sykes in 1946 when he cleared the bar at a height of 6 feet 5 and one-half inches.

The running broad jump record has lasted for 21 years. In 1928, Ad Bates set it with a leap of 24 feet 10 and one-half inches. Mike Brown owns the record for the 16-pound shot put. In 1937, Mike tossed the iron ball 48 feet and three-fourths of an inch.

One year later Nick Vucinanic set the javelin mark with a toss of 223 feet 10 and one-half inches.

Oldest field record belongs to Lee Talbot, an Olympic man, who, in 1911, threw the 16-pound hammer a total of 173 feet 6 inches.

FACTORS

Although these are the official Nittany varsity records, some better ones have been turned in by Penn Staters through the years. According to Coach Werner, there are several factors which enter into the consideration of a record before it is declared official.

"Some boys finishing second have turned in better marks than those recorded but a boy must finish first before we will consider his record as official," he said. "Also, the conditions under which the record was set must be favorable. We will not credit a boy with having set a record if he is aided by a strong wind, as has been the case in several instances in the past."

Such was the case with Barney Ewell. In his senior year Barney turned in times of 9.4 seconds for the 100-yard dash and 20.5 seconds for the 220-yard dash. Both times were set at the IC4-A meet but the referee disallowed both times, claiming that Barney was aided by a slight wind.

There have also been times, according to Werner, when a Penn State man or relay team has bettered the world's record, but for one of the reasons already mentioned, has not been officially credited with the mark.
