Trials Hampered

Because of a strong wind and poor track conditions, the results of the Penn State track team's time trials, held Saturday on New Beaver field, were not up to expectations, Coach Chick Werner reported.

Werner added that the time trials would probably be held again sometime next week. The team faces its first test April 23 when it travels to Annapolis to meet Navy and Penn in a triangular meet.

Lacrosse Team Invades Penn For Opening '49 Encounter

By Ray Koehler

Penn State's 37th uninterrupted season of lacrosse will be written into the record books tomorrow afternoon when the Nittany Lions open their 1949 campaign against Penn at Philadelphia.

Dating in spurts from 1913 (State's first year in the intercollegiate ranks) the records show a Penn State bulge of nine games to six over the Quakers. A glance through past-year scores indicates a traditional hard-fought low-scoring contest in the brew.

One advantage in favor of the Philadelphians—in addition to playing on their home field—is that they already have copped four games this year.

LOSE
Penn saw its record lowered to the .500 mark in its most recent game, dropping a 14-8 tilt to Yale. In one of its early games Penn knocked off Harvard, 8-7. Last year State defeated its Eastern Pennsylvania rival, 13-4, at Philadelphia as the Nittanymen rolled on to a seven and three season.

According to Nick Thiel, head lacrosse mentor, Penn has potentially a much stronger team this year than in 1948. Basing its attack around a group of varsity holdovers, Penn also features an outstanding crop of sophomore rookies, several of whom have earned recognition while cavorting with Baltimore Prep School teams.

SCRIMMAGE
The State stickmen, in anticipation of the Quaker encounter, held their final big scrimmage Saturday. They played an intra-squad varsity tilt and followed up with a tussle between last year's Jayvees and the present crop of Jayvee stickwielders.

Among the players making the trip to Philly tomorrow, Thiel plans to start John Nehoda at goalie with Dick Hannah as a replacement. Irv Smith, Dean Kissell and John Hayes will open in the close defensive with John Hagerman, Harrie Bragg, and either Joe Owens or Bob Pee operating as State's second-line defensive unit. In the midfield Ernie Baer,

BOLGER
Bolger's nose and won a clear unanimous decision. Only one Eastern boxer earned a National title, Syracuse heavyweight Marty Crandell copped the unlimited crown. Syracuse's Al Sauerwine, Virginia's Al Hollingsworth, Joe and Basil Miragliotta, and "Bat" Masterson fell by the wayside.

BERNARDO
Army's Pete Monfore lost in the finals to Miami's Carl Bernardo. Bernardo was a Penn State assignee at California State Teachers two years ago and was the roommate of Al Peluso, Nittany boxer, but at the last minute decided to transfer to the Florida institution.

Chuch Davey of Michigan State copped the 145-pound title for his fourth NCAA crown. W. O. Moss and Tad Thrash of Louisiana garnered 125- and 130-pound titles respectively, Michigan State's Pat Dougherty won the 135 toga.

At 155 pounds it was San Jose State's Dwaine Fontes who walked off with the title, while Collin Connel of Minnesota wrapped up the 165 laurels.

Baseball Squad Begins Season At Temple; Tkac May Hurl

By Ed Watson

Coach Joe Bedenk's Lion baseball team leaves for Philadelphia today in quest of an opening-day victory over Temple's Owls tomorrow afternoon.

Either Cy Miller of Al Tkac will handle the mound chores for the Bedenkmen, with Tkac the most likely choice. Bill Bair will hurl against Swarthmore Thursday, while Miller will probably be saved for the starting role in the Penn game Friday.

Temple enters the game tomorrow with a distinct advantage in experience. The Owls have played five games thus far, chalked up three wins against two losses. The '49 Blue and White squad has yet to test its wares in intercollegiate competition.

UNCERTAIN
In addition to the pitching post, three other positions are uncertain, and Coach Bedenk will indicate his final choices at game time. Clarence "Buzz" Buss and John Kurty are running neck-and-neck for the catching assignment, while letterman Gene Solomon and little Joe Tocci seek the second base spot. Red Mayer and Bill Tegtmeier are both vying for the third base spot.

MONOGRAM
Monogram winners Dick Wertz and Captain Hal Hackman will be stationed at first base and shortstop, respectively, while three newcomers will comprise the outfield combination. Hen Albright, Bill Ondick and Stan Laganosky will be at the left, center and right field posts when the umpire yells "Play ball."

STRIVE
Bedenk's 1948 unit rolled to a twelve and four record, and the Nittanians will be striving to gain a good start in hopes of bettering that tally with this week's three-game series in Philadelphia. Included in the twenty-man squad making the trip, in addition to the starters, are:
