HAVE YOU MADE Your Honeymoon Plans?

If you are seeking a place of great natural beauty, where you will find congenial young companions, and plenty to do, where you can rest (breakfast until 11:00), and play, and enjoy amazing meals—here is a lovely old homestead whose guests are all newly married. It is friendly and informal with just the right amount of privacy. You may have a cottage all your own (heated, with bath), or a cheery, inviting room with bath. Open all year. Rates include meals. Mention dates if you wish our "Three Honeymoon Plans." The Farm on the Hill, Box 1510, Stillwater, Pa.

Ed Students To Hold Mixer

A "Get-acquainted" meeting, sponsored by the department of Education through its student-faculty acquaintance committee, will be held in 121 Sparks from 7-9 p.m. today.

A series of skits involving both students and faculty will make up the program, introduced by Dean M. R. Trabue. Prof. Robert Patrick's Education 189 class is writing the script. A coffee hour will follow the meeting.

Members of the committee include Ralph Lantz, Walter Palmer, Glenn Piper, representing the students; Nell Murphy, Robert Patrick, and Abram Vander Meer, representing the faculty.

This meeting grew out of the requests of students, expressing the desire to better know the members of the department, and its services and curriculum offerings. The committee expresses the hope that the meeting will be widely attended, in order to pave the way, by popular support, for closer relationships between students and the staff of the School of Education.

Hillel Hour Marks 100th Program

Hillel Hour, weekly public service program of the Penn State Hillel Foundation, will make its 100th appearance over Station WMAJ at 8:45 p. m. today. The program will commemorate the forthcoming Passover holiday.

Rabbi Benjamin Kahn, foundation director, will speak. Special Passover music will be rendered. Shirley Felman and Carol Siswein will serve as chairman for the affair.

Collegian Ad Staff

The Collegian ad staff will meet at 7 p.m. today in 100 Carnegie Hall.

Debaters Leave For Final Tour

The Men's Debate team of the College will take part in its last intercollegiate competition of the year in the Grand National Debate tournament tomorrow through Saturday at Mary Washington College, Fredericksburg, Va.

Leaving today for the tournament will be Richard S. Schweiker and Peter M. Giesey, affirmative debaters; Richard K. Hill and David M. Barron, negative debaters; John Fedako, who will enter several other forensic contests at Fredericksburg; and Joseph F. O'Brien, debate coach.

"Federal Aid to Education" will be the debate topic for the tournament, championship of which was won last year by Navy.

Phi Deltas ---

wrestling was Phi Gamma Delta, which annexed a champ seat and a runner up position with its twin-brother act, Fred and Charlie Rodgers. The Phi Gams piled up 113 points in wrestling, and 95 for top spot in handball singles to move from seventh place to fourth in all-year standings with 353 points. This is just two less than the third-running Phi Eps.

Alpha Gamma Rho and Alpha Tau Omega, weak in both grappling and handball singles, dropped out of the top ten in all-year standings. Delta Upsilon moved up from tenth spot to sixth, while Sigma Alpha Epsilon raced past the field to pull itself from twenty-fifth spot in the last reckoning to an up-and-coming eighth position.

Standings of the first ten fraternities for the all-year point award follow:

1. Sigma Nu—504
2. Phi Delta Theta—450
3. Phi Epsilon Pi—355
4. Phi Gamma Delta—353
5. Pi Kappa Alpha—295
6. Delta Upsilon—243
7. Pi Kappa Phi—225
8. Sigma Alpha Epsilon—194
9. and 10. Phi Kappa Sigma—193.
- Phi Sigma Kappa—193

Captain Roger Nestor and John Finley will draw the opening nod with Robert Louis, Rocco Ianetta, and Waldo Weaver alternating with them.

At close attack, Thiel will go with veterans Augustus Weaver, lightest man on the team at 135 pounds, John Lux, a 140 pounder, and Ed Belfield at 148 pounds. Subbing for this trio will be John Hughes, James Case and Leonard Ritchie.

Two Penn State veterans who will not see action tomorrow are Jim Worley and John "Murph" Szadziwicz. Worley will be absent because of a college field trip, while Murph is recovering from a minor injury.

Because of Szadziwicz's being unable to play, Thiel will switch Hayes, a defensive man last year, back to his original berth from the attack spot where he had been tried this spring.

Most one-sided score ever played between Penn and Penn State occurred in 1941 when the Lions trampled the Quakers, 15-4.

the girls out on the gridiron. We don't care if the girls of Penn State never have a chance to climb into the ring.

We have been looking for a valid reason why intercollegiate girls' sports can't appear on the Penn State campus. So far, we haven't even found an invalid explanation.
