

Lion Lacrossemen Return Home; Southern Tour Nets 3 Wins, 1 Loss

A crazily bouncing shot past the outstretched stick of Goalie John Nehoda in the final two minutes of play deprived Penn State of its fourth consecutive road trip lacrosse victory against Virginia Wednesday night by an 8-7 count.

All totaled the Nittany Lion stickwielders came out of their four-game eight-day Southern sojourn with a bill of three wins against a single loss.

Coach Nick Thiel, hoping to duplicate the 1948 feat when State copped its first five games, saw his veteran proteges run over Penn, 9-3, Western Maryland, 14-5, and Washington and Lee, 9-4, before faltering before the Cavaliers.

STANDOUTS

Standout performers on the attack for the Thielmen were Buddy Thomas and Ed Belfield. Both athletes fed well, with Thomas topping the State scorers with ten goals and four assists. Belfield scored four times in addition to handing out six assists. Thomas' peak came against Western Maryland when he countered four tallies.

On the defense Dean Kissell and Tom Smith turned in brilliant performances, collaborating in bottling up All-Americans Tongue, of Washington and Lee, and Hooper, of Virginia. The two Southern aces were limited to one goal apiece.

At the State goalie spot Nehoda turned in four stellar jobs, topping his defensive prowess against Virginia and Washington and Lee.

Captain Rodger Nestor, Bob Louis and John Finley, Penn State's starting midfield trio, played driving, fast games.

SUBS GLISTEN

Rocco Iannetta, Ernie Baer and Waldo Weaver, in second-string roles, also came in for a share of the praise.

One of the more noteworthy events to come out of the trip was the playing of the Lions' first night lacrosse game, against Virginia. Although the mazda surroundings at first appeared a bit strange, State came back to play its best game of the series against the experienced Cavaliers. The Virginia engagement was a charity contest attended by a large crowd.

Top Nittany point producers were Thomas with ten; Louis,

Diamond Forces Prepare For Home Opening Tilt

Penn State's unbeaten baseball team settled down to the task of preparing for its home opener with Western Maryland Saturday, after returning from its three-game road-trip to Philadelphia with two victories in the bag.

Swarthmore and Penn fell before the potent Lion bats, while the Temple encounter was cancelled at the end of the first inning with the Owls in front by 1-0. Newcomer Bill Bair turned in a sparkling performance on the mound as the Bedenk charges swept past Swarthmore's nine by a 10-1 count Thursday.

Bair allowed only five hits while fanning five and issuing two free tickets. The lone run was tallied against him in the eighth inning when a single and a triple accounted for the marker.

LION CAPTAIN

Captain Hal Hackman led the Blue and White at the plate as he bashed out two hits in three times at bat, and counted two times. The Bedenkmen chased three runs home in both the fourth and seventh innings, and with the aid of six Swarthmore errors, built up their winning margin.

Pitching proved ineffective in the slam-bang 12-10 affair over Penn Friday. Veteran Cy Miller hurled until he was replaced by Jim Masticola with one away in the fourth inning. Masticola finished the inning, but was relieved by Bill Benyish, who finished the game.

Miller was the winning hurler, thanks to big outbursts in the second, third and fourth frames. First-sacker Dick Wertz ap-
