ly an hour to play. We alternated with our three woods, using each five times before gaining sight of the green. Ruth and Rutkowski waited on the next tee and managed to play three games of gin rummy until we caught up. When driving, aim between water tower and Rec. Hall.

EIGHTEENTH HOLE

Par 4, 320 yards. Home at last. Hungry, dog-tired, discouraged, we swung blindly and watched awesomely as the ball sailed straight and true toward the green. We flexed our muscles, extracted a seven iron from our bag, surveyed the approach carefully, swung and missed the ball. Are there any questions?
