

Pi KA's, Sigma Nu's Remain Undeclared in IM Handball

Handball duos from Pi Kappa Alpha and Sigma Nu took a breathing spell from the furious intramural tournament this week and prepared for the final battle in Rec Hall Monday night.

After running up three straight set wins, both squads came back again Thursday night to emerge from the semi-finals and vie for the fraternity crown.

Elwood Petchel and Art Oberg, slugging for the PiKA's, recovered their equilibrium after losing their first game and drummed back with two straight triumphs to upset John Frassenelli and John Mink, Delta Upsilon, 13-21, 21-17, 21-4.

The Sigma Nu duo, Henry Marten and Joe Colone, slapped 21-15, 21-13 defeats on Jerry Wolf and Mary Menaker, Alpha Epsilon Pi.

Also on Monday night's program, independent "once-losers" Al Tkac and Walt Cominsky line up against Milt Simon and Marty Costa in an indie semi-final clash. Finals in the independent tournament will be staged at Rec Hall, Tuesday night.

On Wednesday night, Milt Silberman and Herb Rossman won their third straight match and worked into the independent finals, downing Al Tkac and Walt Cominsky, 21-9 21-8.

Milt Simon and Marty Costa socked Eugene Kashmar and Bill Miller, 21-18, 21-17, then defeated Bob Rauscher and Al Fegley, 21-18, 21-11.

Rauscher and Fegley had two previous wins, 21-15, 12-21, 21-15, over Simon Jacobson and Al Kowal, and a forfeit win.

Independents Register Shutout Win in Bowling Competition

Three shutout triumphs were registered in Independent Men's Bowling League games recently. Maintaining its first place edge, the 7-11 Club scored a whitewash over Newman Club. Other shutouts found the Zeros triumphing over Penn State Club and Kaufman Club topping Cody Manor. All scores were 8-0.

In other games, Mac Hall was victor over Beaver House; ITK over Btyflysks; Nittany Co-op topped Tipplers and Ale and Quail conquered Mets, all via the 6-2 route.

The week's high game singles honors went to Ted Petry, 7-11 Club keglar, who rolled 211, barely edging Mac Hall's Mike Ostafy, 210, and Dan Polansky, Beaver House, who was close behind with a 209 effort.

Other high game singles scores were 206, posted by Red Phillips, Beaver House, and Cody Manor's Bob Hetrich, with 203.

Petry's 602 score in the high series competition bested the endeavors of 535 scored by Ostafy, whose margin was but two pins over 7-11 Club's Willie Merritt. Though they wound up on the short end of the ledger in their match, the Beaver House Keglers captured the high team singles event with a score of 874. The league-leading 7-11 Club walked off with high team series laurels by toppling 2537 pins.
