

Golfers Split Verdicts In Weekend Hoya Tilts

The Nittany Lion golfers gained an even split in two matches played at Washington, D. C., over the weekend against the Hoyas of Georgetown University.

On a rain-soaked course, with still more rain showering upon them, the two teams managed to complete the match started at the Congressional Country Club. The task of playing on a course they had never seen before may have been a contributing factor in the Lions' loss to Georgetown in the Friday contest.

CLOSE

The 5-2 Georgetown victory was featured by a close battle between Jim Yerkes of the Nittany squad and Bob McCarvin of the Hoyas. After 22 holes, McCarvin added a one-up victory to his team's total.

Penn State gained a 4-3 win in the Saturday match to break even in the two contests. Having had an opportunity to try out the Georgetown Prep course, on which the teams played, the varsity men registered an improved showing.

Medalist of the competition was Tom Neylan who scored a low of 72 in his win over Marvin Goldenberg of the Lions, Saturday.

The Penn State golfers, coached by Bob Rutherford, have two matches scheduled for the home course this week as they meet Bucknell tomorrow and Colgate Saturday.

SCORES

Individual scores of last weekend's matches follow: Friday: Georgetown, victories went to Ray Larrow over Tom Smith, 3 and 2; Bob McCarvin over Jim Yerkes, one up; Harold Jobe over Joe Boyle, 2 and 1; Charlie McCarthy over George Mazanowski, 1 up and Moose Marchesson over Ray Artz, 5 and 4. For Penn State, Bob Kunkle downed Bob Newell, 4 and 3; and Marv Goldenberg defeated Tom Neylan, 6 and 5.

Saturday contests showed four individual wins for the Lions as Boyle edged Jobe, 2 and 1. Mazanowski defeated McCarthy, 2 and 1; Kunkle beat Newell, one up in 19 holes; Yerkes won over McCarvin, one up. Victories for Georgetown went to Larrow, one up, over Smith; Marchesson over Artz, 2 and 1; and Neylan over Goldenberg, 4 and 3.

Phi Delt In V-Ball Playoff With Sigma Nu

The independent championship game between Joe Does and Ridge Runners, also scheduled for tonight, was postponed until Thursday when it was learned that two of Joe Does' players—Jimmy Masticola and Al Tkac—are traveling with the Penn State baseball team and would be unable to appear tonight.

Penn State's baseball team starts a week of topnotch competition today at New Brunswick, N. J., when it faces Rutgers high-gearcd diamond crew. Tomorrow afternoon, the Lions travel to Easton to challenge Lafayette's once-beaten batsmen, and then the Nittanies return to State College to open a two-day home stand with Georgetown on Friday and Saturday.

So many women have been commenting on the improvement in male appearance hereabouts that we put a sleuth on the story. He snooped, he interviewed, he checked all over town. Here's his scoop: "The men who look better are using Pal Hollow Ground razor blades 100%. I've talked to dozens and the story's the same—Pal Hollow Ground.
