

Nittany Golfers Open Season With Home Win Over Bisons

With perfect weather helping to open the Nittany golfers' home season yesterday, the Lions made it two in a row by tagging a seven to two defeat on the Bucknell squad.

Playing in familiar surroundings, the varsity lost only one point by way of individual defeat, that being on Jim Yerkes' loss to Fred Cholewinski, 4 and 3. The remaining Lion golfers pounded out wins in individual competition.

Playing by last season's rule of having three foursomes with a total of three points to a group, the Lion linksmen took five individual and two best ball points for their total. One best ball point added to their lone singles victory gave the Bisons their scoring for the day.

In the first foursome, Captain Joe Boyle downed Bill Allen of Bucknell, 6 and 4, and Tom Smith defeated Bison Don Montgomery one-up. Besides giving Bucknell their only victory, the second doubles produced a Penn State win as George Mazanowski won over Harry Cholewinski, 3 and 2. In the final foursome Marvin Goldenberg beat Russ Long, 4 and 3, and Bob Kunkle edged Don Thomas, 3 and 2.

The win yesterday brought the varsity's pre-league record to two wins against one defeat. The Lions meet two more warm-up opponents before Eastern Inter-collegiate play-offs next week. Coach Rutherford's men will play Colgate Saturday and Gettysburg early next week, both on the Nittany course. All the league matches are to be played at home, also.
