

Lions Meet Gettysburg; Seek 4th Straight Today

Penn State's baseball forces seek their fourth straight victory today at 4 p.m. when Gettysburg invades the New Beaver Field diamond.

Cy Miller, top twirler on the Lion staff, will handle the pitching assignment, while Clarence Buss is slated to catch. Miller displayed fine form in holding Georgetown's batsmen to two hits Friday, as he copped his second win against a single loss.

After today's clash, the Nittanians take to the road for a game with Dickinson at Carlisle Friday, and then invade Navy's stronghold at Annapolis, Md., the following day.

Coach Joe Bedenk plans to stick with the same lineup that trounced Georgetown in the two-day series. Hen Albright will bat first and play left field, with Jumpin' Gene Solomon, second sacker, hitting number two.

Captain Hal Hackman, shortstop, will follow Solomon, and Stan Laganosky will bat fourth. First baseman Dick Wertz, who leads the Lions with a .400 average, center fielder Bill Ondick, third baseman Bill Teg Meyer, Buss and Miller complete the lineup for the Blue and White.

For the Bullets, Coach Ira Plank plans to use either Ken Houtz or Bill Brown, both veteran righthanders, with Houtz the likely choice. The Gettysburgers have won three and lost three this season.

JV Stickmen Face Harrisburg

Penn State's Jayvee lacrosse unit will attempt to bring its season record up to the .500 mark today, squaring off against Harrisburg Center's varsity stickmen on New Beaver Field at 4 p.m.

Coach John McHugh's largely uninitiated horde dropped their first battle to Navy's cubs, 11-0, at Annapolis. McHugh looks for the torrid weather to take its toll, believing that the team with the best conditioned players will draw the winning nod.

Mat Team Elects Maurey Captain

Jim Maurey, 145 pounder from Clearfield, was elected captain of the varsity wrestling squad for the 1949-50 season at a banquet given in honor of the team at the Eutaw House Monday night.

Netmen Meet Strong Middies

Coach Sherm Fogg and his tennis squad leave State College at 7:15 this morning for Annapolis where the Nittany Lions will clash with unbeaten Navy.

The Lion netmen have been finding the going rough so far this season, having dropped decisions to Bucknell and Colgate, two of the better teams in the East, in their first two matches.

In Navy, the Lions will find an opponent that has won seven meets in a row, five by 9-0 scores and two by 8-1, and rates as one of the best net crews in the country.

Fogg announced that Captain Herb Beckhard, Jim Howells, Sonny Landon, Bob Ogden, Bill Aiken and George Lawther will make up the Lion singles contingent. Beckhard and Landon again will combine as the number one-doubles team, Howells and Aiken number two and a new team, Frank Pessolano and Jerry Gearhart, in the third spot.

After today's meet with the Middies, the Lions have only three more away matches, Lehigh, Colgate and Syracuse, which will be played May 11-14 on the Eastern tour.

Two junior varsity matches have been scheduled with Bucknell on a home-and-home basis. The first is at Lewisburg on May 9 and the second here on May 18. State has also lined up a meet here with the Altoona Center but no date has been set.

Phi Sigma Delta Defeats AGR, 6-5

Playing dog-eat-dog, drag 'em out softball through seven tight innings, Phi Sigma Delta came under the wire, 6-5, over Alpha Gamma Rho in another fast night of diamond intramural action Monday.

The Phi Sigs watched their 4-0 lead fade in the sixth frame when Alpha Gamma Rho battered the horsehide to tie the contest. But the winners came back with two in the last of the inning to salt away the contest with another pair of tallies. AGR tallied its last run in the seventh, but it was a case of too little, too late.

On the same program, Delta Tau Delta pummeled Delta Chi, 9-1 and the Independent 300 Club bludgeoned the pitching of Mary's Muggs for a 9-7 win.

With Frank Lisk tossing shut-out ball, Chi Phi exploded for eight big runs in the third frame to drown Phi Epsilon Pi, 8-0, in the other game.

Bischoff Explains IM Golf Rules

Intramural golfers must play nine holes and keep complete cards for each match in the tournament, the IM office directed yesterday.

Since there is a possibility of a 3-3 tie in team scores at the end of a match, the team winner in that case will be determined by the lowest individual card scored in the match.

Further, if two opponents are tied for low card, the two low-score men will shoot one hole or more until one man is one-up on his adversary. His team will then be awarded the match.

Don't think for one moment that this guy has anything on his mind but the comfort of the tropical formal jacket he is wearing. He recalls uncomfortable spring formals, wearing a regular weight tux. And, he smiles. He smiles too, thinking of the extra money he has in his pocket—for the cost of this jacket is surprisingly low—and the night so beautiful . . .
