

Penn State Golfers Open EIGA's - Win 6-1

Smith, Yerkes Shoot Par As Lions Trounce Pitt

With Tom Smith and Jim Yerkes blazing out par 69's on the Penn State links yesterday afternoon, the Nittany golf team loomed as the favorite to annex the Eastern Intercollegiate Golf Association Regional title for the second consecutive year.

Play will continue this morning with the Penn Staters meeting Cornell and Army meeting Pitt. This afternoon the final match will be played in the round robin competition with Penn State vs. Army and Cornell vs. Pitt.

In yesterday afternoon's competition, Army slid by Cornell, 4-3, while Penn State crushed Pitt, 6-1.

SMITH

Tom Smith, leading off for the home team in its defense of the EIGA title, outclassed his Pittsburgh rival, Bill Buerres, at the onset. The Nittany golfer was holding a four under par going into the 15th hole and when he won his match, six down and five holes to go, held a three under par mark.

In spite of some tough breaks on the last three holes, the veteran turned in a par 69 for win number one on the Blue and White scorecard.

Shooting in the number six spot, Jim Yerkes carved out his best record of the competitive season with a par 69 to defeat Anderson of Pittsburgh by ten strokes. Yerkes' and Smith's marks will stand as a record on the Penn State course, since this match marked the first time since par was established two weeks ago that two men have shot 69's.

71.5 AVERAGE

Ray Artz's 71, George Mazanowski's 72 and Marv Goldenberg's 73 gave the team a 71.5 average, an excellent record for a par 69 course. The team's only loss was a 2-and-1 loss suffered by Joe Durniak, who toured the 18 holes in 75 strokes.

Lacrosse Heads Card For Weekend Sports

Sport fans at the College will be treated to another big Spring sports weekend today with the Lacrosse, lacrossemen, and tennis team battling opponents on the home grounds. Seven YMCA volleyball teams play in Rec Hall this afternoon.

Coach Nick Thiel and his band of Penn State lacrossemen, hopeful of changing fortunes after sustaining three straight losses, will oppose an outstanding Syracuse team at 2 p.m. on New Beaver field.

The Lion jayvee lacrosse match with Oberlin at 3:30 p.m. has been cancelled.

In order to spring a surprise upset win over the Syracuse Saltine Warriors, the Lions will have to tie-up one of the highest scoring midfielders in the business. Buoying one of the strongest lacrosse teams in Orange history is the All-American trio of Bill Fuller, George Cody and Bill Archbold.

Combined with Captain Bob Severance, Jim DeNicola and Jack Britton, on the attack spots, the Syracuse offense is clicking-off goals at the alarming rate of 17 per contest.

Lions Cop 7th Victory, Defeat Dickinson, 14-0

Special to The Daily Collegian

Although held to five hits by two Dickinson pitchers, Penn State's once-beaten baseball team took advantage of some erratic hurling and trounced the Red Devils by a 14-0 score on Biddle Field in Carlisle yesterday.

Loose fielding by the home team also led to their downfall. The Dickinson nine committed seven bobbles.

BAIR WINS 2ND

Righthander Bill Bair won his second straight 4-hitter for the Lions as Coach Joe Bedenk's charges ran up their fifth consecutive win and seventh in eight starts.

Bair, pitching for the first time since he took Swarthmore into camp by 10-1 April 14, struck out five and walked but a single batter. He was never in trouble.

The Lions tallied a run in the first inning on four walks by losing pitcher Jim Abbott, who gave up 10 passes and wild pitched four times. Second baseman Gene Solomon scored his first of four runs on a fielder's choice.

Jack Kurty, Nittany catcher, led off with a triple in the second inning and scored a moment later on Abbott's wild pitch.

FOUR MORE RUNS

Third sacker Bill Tegtmeier slammed a double in the fifth to lead the Lions to four more runs. Abbott walked four more Nittanians and wild pitched twice in this frame. Three more Blue and White runs crossed the plate in the sixth as the Red Devil infield fell to pieces and was charged with four errors.

Singles by Captain Hal Hackman and Bair, and Kurty's second triple were the big blows in a five-run uprising by the Bedenkmen in the seventh.

Roth Tosses IM One-Hitter

Giving up only one hit and striking out 18 batters, Gerry Roth, Phi Sigma Kappa, came up with the best mound job of the young intramural softball season Thursday night, as his mates battered Beta Sigma Rho, 11-2.

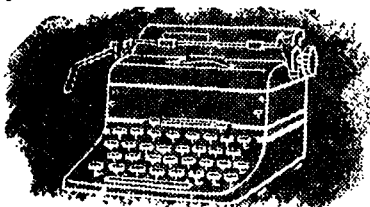

Roth was in trouble only in the sixth frame when the losers ganged up for two tallies, but by that time the game was on ice.

The Phi Sigs socked Earl Shaffer of the losers for six runs in the second inning, and added one in the fourth and another quartet in the fifth.

Ramblers Win

Punching across one tally in the last of the seventh inning, the independent Ramblers squeaked through with their second straight victory of the season, this time over the Nittany Co-op, 5-4. The win moved the Ramblers into the semi-finals of the independent tourney, where they will meet the high-flying American Society of
