

Lion Trackmen Triumph Over Colgate Runners

Lancaster, Gehrdes, Freebairn Excell in Hamilton Meet

By Joe Breu

Winning 10 of 14 events, the Penn State track team overwhelmed Colgate Saturday on the loser's home grounds. This was the Lions' last meet prior to this weekend's battle with one of the top cinder teams in the nation, Michigan State.

The Wernermen, rolling up 86 1/3 points to the Red Raiders' 39 2-3, were sparked to victory by Jim Gehrdes in the 220 low hurdles.

GEHRDES

Gehrdes, in his only start of the day, sped over the 220-yard low hurdles in 22.9 seconds, clipping three-tenths of a second from the record which he set himself last year. Jim was followed by George Kline of Penn State and Garrett McCandles of Colgate.

Gehrdes' deed overshadowed the outstanding performances turned in by Wil Lancaster in the 100-yard dash and the distance man who swept every position in the 880-yard, the mile and two mile runs.

DASH

Lancaster turned in what was probably the best race of his life in winning the century in 9.8 seconds. He was followed by Captain Jack Schulze of Colgate, who closed fast, and George Thomas of Penn State.

Despite the absence of ace distance man Horace Ashenfelter, the Lion runners proved to be too much for the Colgate thinclads. Coach Werner's lads took all the laurels in the distance division.

In the 880-yard run, Paul Koch crossed the finish line first, followed by Bob Auman and Jack Stevenson. Bob Parsons, John Bates and John St. Clair finished in that order in the mile run. The two mile contest was captured by Bob Freebairn, who continues to improve with each meet. Bob was followed across the line by Bill Ashenfelter and Al Porto.

BROAD JUMP

The Lions also chalked up wins in the broad jump, the pole vault, the javelin and the 440-yard run. Bill Reynolds took the title in the broad jump with a leap of 21 feet while Ron Coder and Merle Sieber tied for top honors in the pole vault.

Larry Gerwig won the javelin for the second time in two meets with a toss of 165 feet 2 inches. Bill Lockhart took the crown in the 440-yard run, traveling the distance in 51 seconds.

Gehrdes to Face Top Hurdle Talent

Jim Gehrdes, star hurdler and winner of his specialty at the Penn Relays, will have his work cut out for him in forthcoming meets.

In successive weeks, he'll run against Michigan State's brilliant array of timber toppers, Bill Fleming, of Notre Dame, and the current crop of IC-4A title aspirants.

Michigan State will pose perhaps his toughest problem when the Spartans come to the Penn State campus Saturday loaded down with a trio of top-ranking hurdlers.

Paige Christiansen won the IC-4A 120-yard high last year, Horace Smith took the indoor IC-4A title, and there are many who consider Fred Johnson the equal of both men.

IBA Leaders

Penn State tops the Intercollegiate Boxing Association with 48 individual titlists in 26 years of tournament competition. Runner-up Syracuse University boasts 43 individual champions.

State; second, Bates, Penn State; third, St. Clair, Penn State. Time 4:27.5.

Two-mile run—won by Freebairn, Penn State; second, Bill Ashenfelter, Penn State; third, Porto, Penn State. Time—9:51.

Tennis Team Gains First Win; Outclasses Duquesne by 8-1

After swamping Duquesne, 8-1, Saturday for its first win, Penn State's tennis team will begin a three-match tour of Eastern Pennsylvania and Northern New York tomorrow by meeting Lehigh at Bethlehem. The Nittany Lions will then trek northward to battle Colgate and Syracuse on Friday and Saturday.

Sherm Fogg's netmen, after losing three straight, made their first victory a convincing one by copping five of six singles matches and all three doubles events. Joe Short, the Dukes' number one singles man, prevented a shutout by defeating Herb Beckhard, 10-6 and 6-3.

In the other singles, Jim Howells beat Duquesne's Dan Winn, 6-3 and 7-5; Sonny Landon trounced Jack Livingston, 6-0 and 6-1; Bill Aiken won over Fred Dalzell, 7-5, 4-6 and 6-3; Bob Ogden handled Vince Condeni, 6-4 and 6-3; George Lawther edged Jack Leonard, 6-4 and 7-5.

Beckhard gained partial revenge for his singles loss by teaming with Landon to defeat Dalzell and Short, 7-5 and 6-3, in the first doubles match. Howells and Aiken took over Wynn and Livingston, 6-1 and 7-5, and Bill Gray and Frank Pessalano belted Leonard and McGrath, 6-0 and 6-2.

The Lions junior varsity, which was scheduled to battle the Bucknell Jayvees yesterday at Lewisburg, will host the Altoona Center seconds this afternoon on the varsity courts.

Summary of the Duquesne match: Short, Duquesne, defeated Beckhard, 10-6, 6-3; Howells, Penn State, defeated Wynn, 6-3, 7-5; Landon, Penn State, defeated Livingston, 6-0, 6-1; Aiken, Penn State, defeated Dalzell, 7-5, 6-4, 6-3; Lawther, Penn State, defeated Leonard, 6-4, 7-5; Ogden, Penn State, defeated Condeni, 6-4, 6-3; Beckhard and Landon, Penn State, defeated Dalzell and Short, 7-4, 6-3; Howells and Aiken, Penn State, defeated Wynn and Livingston, 6-1, 7-5; Gray and Pessalano, Penn State, defeated Leonard and McGrath, 6-0, 6-2.

Phi Kaps Trip Triangle; IM Soccer Semi-Finals Today

By Harry Endres

Phi Kappa Sigma reached the semi-finals of the intramural soccer competition yesterday afternoon by tripping Triangle, last year's soccer champions, by a 2-0 count.

Phi Kappa Sigma will tangle with Delta Upsilon, and Alpha Gamma Rho will battle Lambda Chi Alpha in the semi-final contests at 4:30 p.m. today.

Lambda Chi Alpha beat Alpha Tau Omega, 2-0, and Alpha Gamma Rho won by a peculiar forfeit from Sigma Phi Epsilon. Someone at the S.P.E. house was notified of the scheduled game, but he forgot to tell the other members about it.

Shahadeh booted in both of the Phi Kaps' goals in the first period for the win over Triangle. Two second-period goals, one by Bagoly and the other by Kolarik, gave Lambda Chi Alpha the nod over A.T.O.

Delta Upsilon gained the quarter-finals and the semi-finals at the same time last Friday afternoon by blanking Phi Sigma Kappa, 3-0.

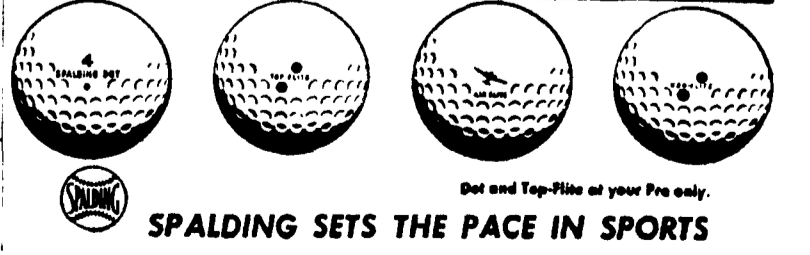

When Alpha Chi Rho and Beta Theta Pi both failed to show up for their scheduled game, it was declared no contest, and a double forfeit. This deprived the D.U.'s of a quarter-final opponent, and moved them into the semi-finals.

All the scoring in the D.U. vs. Phi Sigma Kappa game was done in the first period. Lane booted in two goals and Papachazalambos one.

Four victories were eked out in intramural soccer play last Thursday as Lambda Chi Alpha, Triangle, Phi Kappa Sigma, and Alpha Tau Omega advanced into today's quarter-finals.

Phi Kappa Sigma edged Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 1-0, on Horn's first-period boot. Triangle also won 1-0, with Axe's score in the
