

Panhel Installs New Officers Inserra, Edelstein and Wolfe

New Panhellenic officers, Louise Inserra, corresponding secretary; Ruth Edelstein, recording secretary; and Patricia Wolfe, treasurer, were installed at the final meeting of the Council Tuesday night.

The Council first passed an amendment providing for the election of corresponding and recording secretaries from the Council in contrast to the previous statute stating that the secretary should be someone not a member of Panhel.

Elections were then held naming Miss Inserra and Miss Edelstein to their offices. Miss Wolfe was elected to the treasurer's post at the previous meeting.

Mrs. Cyrus E. French was introduced as the new advisor to Panhel. Miss Delores Jelacic, president, presented a farewell gift to Miss Helen Heckler, past advisor, and thanked the Council for the work of the outgoing year.

A party for old and new representatives and new presidents of sororities was held immediately following the meeting.

'Too Too Too' Address Brings Bohemia To College

A hangman's noose starkly decorates the curtained front window of an apartment at 222 West Beaver avenue. A placard in this window reminds the world that Tuesday is Froth day. A sign on the door bears the simple legend, "Too, Too, Too!" By these characteristics is the Bohemia of State College designated.

Started a few years ago by students bored with the exigencies of ordinary dormitory life, the apartment at 222 has become a more or less legendary haven for eight gentlemen who could be mildly termed as campus personalities.

An abandoned florist's shop, complete with green house, forms the setting for this picturesque establishment. The previously-mentioned front window, from which a battered piano can be seen leaning in a dejected manner, was formerly used as a glass showcase.

Furnished in true Greenwich Village style, the apartment contains all the usual frippery of women's pictures, candles in aient, wax-spattered bottles, and stylistic water color prints. A pair of crossed fencing swords hang in a corner and a weird Dionysian mask eels menacingly down over a doorway. A Cotton Bowl blanket, a pledge paddle, and framed Froth covers are strewn indiscriminately over the walls.

Present occupants of the apartment are Francis Fatsie, Hank Glass, Jim Heanue, Tom Lyon, Ted Mann, Frank Philippbar, Hal Waltzer, and Art Ward.

Upon interview, these unassuming individuals blushed becomingly and refused to comment.

Theta Phi Alpha

Theta Phi Alpha recently elected the following officers: Helen Stalcoski, president; Enid Lorraine Lombardi, vice-president; Kathleen Hoy, recording secretary; Eleanor Vasilich and Mary Lou Rule, rushing chairmen; Virginia Sinclair, corresponding secretary and Florence Tereshinski, pledge mistress.

Patricia Kring was recently pledged by Theta Phi Alpha.

The members of the sorority honored their Mothers at a tea
