

Stickmen Draw Season Curtain; Trample Red Raiders, 14-2

Belfield Scoring Star As Lions Notch Triumphs Over Hobart, Colgate, for 5-4 Season Record

By Ray Koehler

Penn State's lacrosse team closed its 1949 season with a bang Saturday, knocking a weak Colgate team 14-2 at Hamilton, N. Y., following a 13-12 upset triumph over Hobart, Friday.

The victory over the Red Raiders, which made it a clean week-end sweep for Coach Nick Thiel's stickmen, enabled State to hop over the .500 mark. The final readings show five wins against four losses.

The Nittany Lions jumped right off to a four-goal lead the first quarter and were never threatened, leading 7-2 at halftime and 9-2 at the start of the final period.

Showing evidence of their inexperience, Colgate could counter only twice. State goalie John Nehoda was called on to make only 16 saves as against 24 in the Hobart scrimmage.

LOUIS SCORES

Bob Louis paced the Pennsylvania collegians with three swipes past the Red Raiders' guard post. The trio of points gave the husky midfielder his 14th goal of the campaign. Scoring two counters apiece were Ed Belfield, Bud Thomas, John Finley and Waldo Weaver.

According to Coach Nick Thiel, his warriors put on their best exhibition since their loss to Virginia on the Lions' Southern tour early this Spring. Reviewing the Hobart game, in which his stick-wielders snapped their four-game losing streak, Thiel acknowledged a defensive laxity. With this finally solved in the final period State went on to score four goals and cop the contest.

With the score mounting to runaway proportions against Colgate, Thiel gave his regulars a rest and went along with the second-string most of the game.

The summary:

Penn State	Pos.	Colgate

Tennis Team Loses to Colgate; Points for Three Home Meets

Penn State's tennis team is looking forward to three home matches this week after suffering an 8-1 lacing at the hands of Colgate on Friday at Hamilton. The State-Syracuse match, scheduled for Saturday at Syracuse, was rained out.

Sherm Fogg's netmen battle Bucknell tomorrow in a return engagement and take on Washington & Jefferson the following day.

Pitt's Panthers invade State College Saturday to exchange volleys with the Nittany Lions.

For the second time this season, the Red Raiders from Colgate proved to be too strong for Penn State as they chalked up their seventh win in nine starts. The New York Staters trimmed the Lions, 7-2, here a few weeks ago.

Owen "Sonny" Landon, the sophomore star who is rapidly becoming the mainstay of the Lion net crew, prevented a white-washing Friday by defeating Bob Milgrim, 4-6, 6-2 and 6-4, in the singles.

Captain Frank Warren of the Red Raiders started the victors off on the right foot in the first singles match by downing Jim Howells, 6-2 and 8-6. Bill Lust followed with a 6-2 and 6-1 win over Penn State Captain Herb Beckhard.

After Landon edged Milgrim for the Lions' only victory of the day, Colgate's Stew Bicknell defeated Bill Aiken, 6-4 and 6-4. Bob Barker won over Bob Ogden in a hotly contested match, 4-6, 6-4 and 8-6. Ed Nelson rounded out the singles action by taking over Bill Gray, 7-5 and 6-3.

LOSE DOUBLES

In the doubles, it was pretty much the same story. The Red Raiders' first doubles team of Warren and Lust clipped Beckhard and Landon, 6-2 and 6-2. Milgrim and Bob Prewitt rallied to defeat Aiken and Howells, 7-8, 6-2 and 6-0. Nelson and Bob Fullem tripped Gray and Jerry Gearhart, 6-3 and 6-3.

The Summary:
 Singles: Frank Warren, Colgate, defeated Jim Howells, Penn State, 6-2 and 8-6.

Bill Lust, Colgate, defeated Herb Beckhard, Penn State 6-2 and 6-1.

Sonny Landon, Penn State, defeated Bob Milgrim, 4-6, 6-2 and 6-4.

Stew Bicknell, Colgate, defeated Bill Aiken, Penn State, 6-4 and 6-4.

Bob Barker, Colgate, defeated Bob Ogden, Penn State 4-6, 6-4 and 8-6.

Ed Nelson, Colgate, defeated Bill Gray, Penn State, 7-5 and 6-3.

Doubles: Warren and Lust, Colgate, defeated Beckhard and Landon, Penn State, 6-2 and 6-2.

Milgrim and Prewitt, Colgate, defeated Aiken and Howells, Penn State 7-9, 6-2 and 6-0.

Nelson and Fullem, Colgate, defeated Gray and Gearhart, Penn State, 6-3 and 6-3.

IM Sports

Phi Delts Earn Track Spots In All Events

Chalk Fastest Times In Century, IM Relay

Phi Delta Theta came off with the most marbles in the time trials of the intramural track meet at New Beaver field last night by grabbing qualifying spots in all three events: the 100-yard dash, the 440-yard dash, and the 880-yard relay.

Sweeping over the century in just .1 of a second short of the 9.9 intramural record, Bill Hickey of the Phi Delts earned the number one spot in that event.

WILSON

Vince O'Bara and Don Reynolds chalked up times of 56.3 and 57.6 to qualify for the 440-yard dash finals, although Charlie Wilson, Alpha Gamma Rho, chalked up the best time, 54.7, for once around the track.

The Phi Delts were first in the relay as Vince O'Bara, Don Reynolds, Bill Hickey and John Reese did the half-mile in 1:39.7.

Sigma Nu and Beta Theta Pi qualified in both the relay and the 100-yard dash, Delta Upsilon and Alpha Tau Omega earned qualifying times in the relay and 440-yard dash, Alpha Gamma Rho qualified in the 100 and 440-yard dashes, and Kappa Sigma, Kappa Delta Rho, and Sigma Phi Epsilon qualified in the 100-yard dash.

SOGGY TRACK

On a soggy track covered in spots by puddles of water, the trackmen turned out times that nearly matched the all-time intramural records. Hickey was only .1 of a second short of the mark set by Larry Joe, Sigma Nu, in 1947, 9.9 for the century. Wilson's time in the 440 was 1.4 seconds off the record, and the winning relay time set by Phi Delta Theta was 1.2 seconds off the mark set last year by Sigma Nu.

The following men qualified for the finals to be held at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow:

100-yard dash—Bill Hickey, Phi Delta Theta, 10 seconds; Charley Wilson, Alpha Gamma Rho, 10.1; Chuck Bentley, Kappa Sigma, 10.2; Larry Joe Sigma Nu, 10.3; Lloyd Amprim, Kappa Delta Rho, 10.4; Joe Cook, Beta Theta Pi, 10.5; Tony Orsini, Sigma Phi Epsilon, 10.5.
 440-yard dash—Charlie Wilson, Alpha Gamma Rho, 54.7; Don Ashenfelter, Delta Upsilon, 55.5; Vince Cavanaugh, Delta Upsilon, 55.9; Vince O'Bara, Phi Delta Theta, 56.3; Bob Hetrick, Alpha Tau Omega, 56.7; Don Reynolds, Phi Delta Theta, 57.6.
 880-yard relay—Phi Delta Theta, 1:39.7; Alpha Tau Omega, 1:41.8; Delta Upsilon, 1:41.8; Delta Sigma Phi, 1:42; Beta Theta Pi, 1:42; Sigma Nu, 1:42.6.

Lion Golfers Place Third In EIGA Tilt

Smith Shoots Low 72 For Medalist Honors

Penn State met defeat in its bid to win the E.I.G.A. title at Rivervale Saturday. Coach Bob Rutherford's Lion golfers took third spot in the elimination tournament staged at the Country Club of New Jersey by topping Brown 5-2 in the consolation match played in the afternoon.

Yale, ultimate winner of the play-offs, downed the Nittany Lions in the first match by a 5-2 score. An oddity of the tournament was the fact that all final scores were 5-2. Navy downed Brown 5-2 to drop them from the running and Yale won the E.I.G.A. crown by sinking Navy 5-2.

Tommy Smith lived up to his advanced notices by winning honors as tournament medalist with a 72 in the Yale match and one over par on the fifteenth hole in the Brown contest.

LINEUP

The lineup for the matches for the Lions showed Tom Smith, Joe Boyle, Jim Yerkes, Bob Kunkle, Ray Artz, Joe Durniak, and Marvin Goldenberg playing in both matches.

In the initial match, Smith and Goldenberg were the only Lion winners. In the second contest only Boyle and Goldenberg lost their rounds.

NEXT MEET

Penn State plays its next dual meet against Bucknell whom they have previously beaten this year. Dual meet competition so far this year accounted for four wins and one loss for the Lions.

E. I. G. A. SUMMARY

Saturday, 9:00 a.m.
 Yale 5, Penn State 2
 Navy 5, Brown 2
 1:30 p.m.
 Yale 5, Navy 2
 Penn State 5, Brown 2

Gehrdes to Meet Stiff Competition

Penn State's Jim Gehrdes, a candidate for IC-4A timber topping in a few weeks, will face one of the nation's ace hurdlers Saturday when Bill Fleming leads the Notre Dame track team into Pennsylvania for a dual meet with the Lions.

Fleming is highly regarded in the mid-West and since early Spring has been prepping for this opportunity to compete against the Altoona Express. The Irish star plans to run in both hurdle races, and may also compete in the high jump.

Jayvee Lacrossemen Triumph Over Swarthmore Stickmen, 7-4

Penn State's jayvee lacrosse squad followed in the footsteps of their big brothers Saturday, closing their quickie schedule on the winning side with a 7-4 triumph over Swarthmore Center.

Attackman Paul Raffensperger and goalie Phil Benedetti combined their talents to bring the State junior varsity its second win against a single loss. Raffensperger again highlighted his team's attack with three goals, two of which came in the final canto to ice the decision for the Lion fledglings.

Benedetti sparkled as usual on the defense at his goal station, stopping all but one Swarthmore attempt at a score in the third and fourth periods.

"Silent" George Weber initiated the scoring for Penn State in the first period when he whipped in a shot at 6:48.

With Swarthmore holding a three-two lead, Raffensperger scored just before half-time to tie the game at 3-3.

State outscored its guests four to one the final half. Steve Meisel gave the Lion cubs their tie-breaking counter shortly after the opening of the third session with a shot down the middle. Reed, of Swarthmore again tied the count at 4-4 with a slice from the left side.

However, Raffensperger again took things in hand with two point-scoring shots and the Lions breezed in.
