No Right ...

At the bottom of mimeographed sheets passed out to students and townspeople on the streets of State College are these words: "Issued by the Communist Party Club, Pennsylvania State College."

If there is such an organization on campus, we question its right to identify itself with the College, for no more complex reason than this: No charter has been granted by the College to a Communist Party Club.

It is the right of the College Senate to grant charters to student organizations. This right is delegated to the Senate Committee on Student and Staff Welfare. An inquiry reveals that no formal charter has been granted by the Committee to a Communist Party Club and furthermore, that no charter application has been made.

Therefore, the view of the College on this group passing out literature identified with the College is probably that it is a clear-cut violation of established practice. No doubt there are court records which uphold the right of an institution to control use of its name.

In the light of this, a "Communist Party Club" (if it exists) has no right to attach the name of the Pennsylvania State College to its literature, and should forthwith end such a practice.

Students may turn in their used text books to the Student Book Exchange from May 25 to June 1. The Exchange will operate in the BX room at the TUB, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Although the Exchange does not buy any book, it serves as a centralized handling agency where students may purchase or put up for sale their own used books. Only those texts currently in use at the College will be accepted at this time.

No books will be sold until the beginning of the Fall Semester but students may turn in texts either now or in the Fall.

Ag Students Vote On Fee Increase

Agriculture students have been requested to vote on a proposed 50-cent increase in activities fees by Penrose Hollowell, chairman of the Fee Increase Committee.

Voting will be held in the Ag Building lobby between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. today and tomorrow. Registration of voters will take place immediately preceding the voting.

The revenue derived from the proposed increase will be used to support the Penn State Farmer, Ag student magazine, which will publish six issues beginning October 5, and will give a student a free one-year subscription. In addition, the added capital will help support Ag Student-Faculty mixers, convocations, picnics, dances, and other student activities.

MAN SWEARS By Better Razor Blade

STATE COLLEGE, Pa.— Plenty of men swear at their razor blades, but here's a man who swears by his! When reporters called on Joe Muldoon, they found him whistling in the bathroom. "Boys," he said, "just tell my public I'm razor blade happy. After years of trial and error, mostly error, I finally found my blade — just a 'feather-touch' and so long whiskers! Why, shaving with Pal Hollow Ground is as easy as flicking the top off lemon meringue pie." Mr. M forgot to say that Pal Hollow Ground still gives you 4 for 10¢ (or 10 for 25¢, 21 for 49¢, 44 for 98¢). He uses Double Edge. Single Edge cost the same.
