

Lions Tangle With Bucknell In 2 Sports

Vie With Bisons In Baseball, Golf

Two Penn State athletic teams tangle with Bucknell's Bisons in away meets today. Coach Joe Bedenk's baseballers and the Blue and White golfers both travel to Lewisburg to test the Orange and Blue. The Lion linksmen have already defeated Bucknell in a dual meet this season.

Cy Miller will pitch for the Bedenkmen, who are in quest of their eleventh win in thirteen tries. The only loss was inflicted by Rutgers early in the season, while a 7-inning tie with Navy is the only other mar on the record. Miller has copped five decisions and lost but one this season. In his last two outings, he has given up but seven hits, and has not allowed a run to score against him.

29 INNINGS

Lion foes have not scored since the fifth inning of the Navy tilt—a stretch of 29 consecutive frames.

Bucknell enters today's fray with 8 wins and 4 losses on its slate. Six lettermen bolster the Bucknell roster, a team which the Nittanians defeated twice last year.

Clarence Buss will be behind the plate for the Nittany nine, with the infield composed of Dick Wertz, first base; Joe Tocci, second base; Captain Hal Hackman, shortstop and Bill Tegtmeyer, third base.

OUTFIELD

Hen Albright, Bill Ondick and Owen Dougherty will patrol the outfield for the Lion diamondmen.

Righthander Art Raynor, who pitched against the Statesmen last year, but lost because of poor defensive support, will probably do the hurling for the Bisons.

Foggmens Battle Bucknell Here

Meet W&J Tomorrow, Pitt Panthers Saturday

Penn State's tennis team will try to improve on its 2-4 record this afternoon when Bucknell comes here to battle the Nittany Lions. The match is the first of three home tilts this week for Sherm Fogg's netmen, who will meet Washington & Jefferson tomorrow and Pitt on Saturday.

In an earlier engagement, Bucknell downed the Lions, 6-3, at Lewisburg. However, since that time, the Foggmens have defeated Duquesne and Lehigh while losing to Navy and twice to Colgate. The Bisons have also lost to Colgate.

Bucknell, coached by Hank Peters, is a much improved team over last year, according to Fogg. Captain Jack Nothel and Joe Gillespie are the only seniors on the squad. John Sandin, Jack Koch and Drew Mathieson are juniors while John Dunkle, Bill Reitz and Gray Rogers are promising sophomores.

Coach Fogg is expected to use Captain Herb Beckhard, Sonny Landon, Jim Howells, Bill Aiken, Bob Ogden and George Lawther in the singles with Beckhard and Landon teaming for the first doubles event. Howells and Aiken will be the number two team and Bill Gray and Jerry Gearhart number three.

KDR's Winner In Field Events

Gaining ties for first and third places in the high jump and a tie for third spot in the broad jump, Kappa Delta Rho scored nine points and the team title in the IM field events last night.

Pi Kappa Phi was second with seven points scored on a first place in the broad jump and a tie for third in the high jump. Sigma Pi ranked third, scoring five markers for a first spot in the shotput.

Don Murray, Sigma Pi, set a new record in that shotput, tossing the 16-pound shot 40 feet, 7 3/4 inches. The old IM record was 38 feet, 8 3/4 inches chalked up by Jeff Durkota for Delta Upsilon in 1947.

Bob Harter, Delta Upsilon, and Ted Swain, Kappa Delta Rho, cleared the high bar at 5 feet 7 1/4 inches to tie for high jump awards.

Bob Conrad, Pi Kappa Phi, ranked first in the broad jump, leaping a distance of 20 feet. His competitors were pressing closely behind him, with Cook, Beta Theta Pi, falling just a half inch short as he cleared second with a leap of 19 feet, 11 1/2 inches. Bob Kennedy, Theta Chi and Ted Swain, Kappa Delta Rho, tied for third jumping 19 feet, 7 1/2 inches, and Bob Harkless, Alpha Tau Omega, ranked fifth by leaping 19 feet, 6 inches.

Charlie Wedekind, Alpha Zeta, Bob Conrad, Pi Kappa Phi, and Ken Simons, wound up in a three-way tie for third place in the high jump. All cleared 5 feet, 5 1/4 inches.

Right behind Murray's winning toss in the shotput, Dan Kline, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, tossed the sphere 39 feet, 3 inches; Wallace Chambers, Delta Sigma Phi was third with a heave of 38 feet, 8 3/4 inches; Herb Kurtz, Theta Chi, was fourth, heaving the shot 36 feet, 9 1/4 inches; and Bill Mathers, Delta Tau Delta, ranked fifth with a put of 36 feet, 8 inches.

Golf

The IM golf tournament entered the second round with Alpha Phi Delta banging out a win over Phi Delta Theta, Alpha Sigma Phi defeating Sigma Pi, and Beta Theta Pi winning over Pi Kappa Phi.

Chi Phi also defeated Phi Gamma Delta, Kappa Sig beat Theta Kappa Phi, Theta Chi defeated Acacia, and Theta Xi defeated to Phi Sigma Kappa.

Phi Kappa Wins Horseshoe Title

Phi Kappa won the championship of the fraternity horseshoe tournament last night by downing Alpha Gamma Rho, two games to one, on the Rec Hall courts.

Represented by Bob Burden and Al Porto, the Phi Kaps had to come from behind to win the crown. AGR got off to a good start by winning the first game, 21 to 2. But Burden and Porto lashed back to capture the second round 21 to 8 and the third 21 to 13.

The Phi Kaps built up a large lead in the final game only to have AGR close the gap and come within five points of a tie. But the Phi Kaps quickly tossed on three points to take the crown. The victory was the fifth straight win for the Phi Kaps and the first time that they were forced to go to three games to triumph.

Softballers Enter Quarter-Finals

It was Kappa Delta Rho's night to howl last night, and while the field stars from that house were chalking up points on the high jump and the broad jump, the boys with the bats were clicking one off for themselves.

Sparking for a pair of tallies in the first inning and adding five more in the fifth and sixth innings, the KDR's trounced Phi Gamma Delta, 7-3, behind the stingy pitching of Lloyd Amprim.

The win gave the KDR's a seat in the quarter-finals of the intramural softball tourney. They meet Chi Phi at 6:30 p.m. today.

Over on the golf course diamond, Penn Haven and the Penn State Club tangled in a pitching duel that saw the Haven's Bill Crosby and PSC's Ernest Sladies each toss shutout ball except for one frame.

Cindermen Meet Notre Dame In Season's Last Home Test

No rest for the weary! That's the position of the Penn State track team as it prepares to meet Notre Dame's trackmen on New Beaver field Saturday.

It will be the second big meet within a week for the forces of Chick Werner, the Lions having bowed to Michigan State last week. Both the Spartans and Notre Dame are rated among the better teams in the nation.

Michigan State has been the only common foe of the Irish and Nittany Lions. The Spartans were victorious in both meets, having taken the measure of Notre Dame, 86-56, and Penn State, 83 1/2 to 47 1/2.

In addition, Coach Elvin (Doc) Handy's Irish forces have chalked up a win over Pitt by an 86 2-3 to 44 1-3 count, and placed in four events at the Drake Relays.

OUTSTANDING

The South Benders will bring a group of outstanding performers to Penn State. Bill Fleming, in addition to participating in the high jump, will offer Jim Gehrdes in his second successive week of topflight competition in the hurdles.

John Helwig will head the Notre Dame delegation in the field division. The junior from Los Angeles set a new Notre Dame record in the shot put this season when he tossed an iron ball 52 feet, one inch. Helwig also tosses the discus.

GERWIG

Penn State's undefeated Larry Gerwig will have his hands full this weekend with John Murphy, the South Benders' javelin tosser. Murphy tossed the javelin 193 feet, 3 1/2 inches at the Southern Relays this season and is listed as a 200-foot tosser.

The pole vault is the specialty of Jim Miller, who has jumped 13 feet, 9 inches this year. Miller also performs for the Irish in the javelin.

Robert Smith and Bill Leonard are the outstanding Notre Dame runners. Smith has in the past turned in a 9.6, 100-yard dash and a 21.1, 220-yard dash. Leonard, captain of the Irish, will test the mile runners of Coach Werner. He ran a 4:15.7 mile in 1947.

Notre Dame will face the Nittany Lions with a team made up largely of veterans. Coach Handy has 14 lettermen to call on for service.
