

Sykes Plans Varied Recreation Schedule for Main Session

 which is in front of Old Main and directly back of the Pugh street entrance to the campus. There will be no charge for these Hollywood showings, which include such films as "Stagecoach" with John Wayne, "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" with Gary Cooper in the leading role, Charles Laughton in "Captain Kidd," Fred Astaire and Paulette Goddard in "Second Chorus," and "Howards of Virginia," starring Cary Grant.

The order in which the films will be screened has not yet been determined, but the first showing is slated for Thursday, July 7, July 14, 21, 27 and August 2 are the other dates for the movies.

A free-admission Summer Session reception is booked for the TUB from 9 to 12 p.m., Thursday. Similar dances, with a 50c admission charge, are slated for July 8, 23 and 29. The July 23 affair will be devoted to square dancing. "Fun Nights" will be held in Recreation Hall Saturday, July 9, 16 and 30. Dancing, ping pong and card games will be the main entertainment.

July 4 will be a red-letter day in the Session's recreational program. A bike hike and picnic lunch is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. and last till 1 p.m. Saturday will be the final day for students to obtain tickets. Priced at $1 each, they can be purchased at the Bicycle Agency, 401 E. College avenue, or reservations can be made by dialing 4200.

Swimming is open to men every day, Monday through Friday, at the Glennland Pool—located on the corner of East Beaver avenue and Pugh street. The pool will be available from 3 to 5 p.m. and no charge will be made. Towels and lockers will be provided, and suits are not necessary.

For the women, the White Hall pool will be used from 3:30 to 5 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, with Tuesday and Thursday sessions set for 7:30 to 9 p.m. Women must purchase towel-locker tickets at the Bursar's Office. The tickets cost $2 and are good for the entire Main Session.

Every Tuesday from 8 until 10 p.m., the Glennland Pool will be the scene of an admission-free recreational swimming program. Swimmers should bring their own suits, but towels and lockers will be furnished. On Monday, July 4, co-recreational swimming will take place in the Glennland from 2 to 5 p.m., and recorded music will be played.

Athletic activities in softball, golf and tennis are being planned by Sykes and the intramural department. Full details are on page 4.

No Holds Barred

Six of eight members of the 1949 Penn State wrestling team will be back in harness again next year.

Hall of Fame

Barney Ewell, of Lancaster, former Penn State track hero, has gained a place in the track and field Hall of Fame established in Los Angeles, California, by the Paul H. Helms Foundation. He was one of 18 track stars so honored.

Soccer Hopes

Coach Bill Jeffrey will build his 1949 Penn State soccer team around two All-America players—Captain Ralph Hosterman, of State College, and Dick Hannah, of Philadelphia. Both won all star honors as juniors.
