Wilson Replaces Warnock As College's Dean of Men

Dr. Harold K. Wilson, vice-dean and director of resident instruction in the School of Agriculture at the College, was named dean of men and director of the Division of Intermediate Registration at the College.

The appointment, approved early in June by the Board of Trustees, was announced by James Milholland, acting president of the College. It will become effective with the retirement of Dean of Men A. R. Warnock on September 1.

On March 26, the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees named Wilmer E. Kenworthy to the new position of Assistant to the President, in Charge of Student Affairs, and Dean of Men. With Dr. Wilson now named as Dean of Men, Kenworthy will devote his time to the new position of Assistant to the President.

Dr. Wilson will perform the established duties of the Office of the Dean of Men with special emphasis on the counseling function, assisted by Daniel A. DeMarino, assistant dean of men. He also inaugurates the services of the Division of Intermediate Registration, authorized by the Board of Trustees a year ago, but not yet put into effect.

This division will replace the Transition Section, formerly operated by the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women. Its purpose is to assist students who desire to change curricula because of changed objectives, and those who are having difficulties with certain types of courses.

Kenworthy will be responsible for the coordination and development of the several student personnel agencies of the College and will assist the President in dealing with all matters affecting students other than academic and business affairs. He will continue as Executive Secretary to the President, and Acting Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

Born and reared in Iowa, Dr. Wilson took his undergraduate work at Iowa State College and received his master of science and doctor of philosophy degrees at the University of Illinois.

Dr. Wilson served on the faculty at the Iowa State Teachers' College and at the University of Minnesota before coming to Penn State on July 1, 1935 as professor and head of the department of agronomy.

Senate Okays T-H Change

WASHINGTON—In an amendment approved by the Senate by a vote of 50 to 40, the injunction provision in the Taft-Hartley Law was retained. In addition to injunctions, the amendment also provides for government seizure of important plants during strikes.

The amendment, regarded as a serious defeat for the administration, now becomes part of the administration's bill that was meant to replace the controversial law. It was written by Taft and two other Republicans.

Coplon Case to Jury

WASHINGTON—The Judith Coplon case goes before the jury today after winding up in a blaze of oratory.

While government attorneys argued yesterday that she actually was chosen by the Russians as a spy because she hated the United States, Defense Attorney Palmer continued his claim that his client was framed by the government.

Russians Seize Tools

BERLIN—Russian guards seized a shipment of power plant machinery on the way to the west sector of this city from the western section of Germany. The United States and Britain have joined in protesting to the Soviet military government, but the machinery is still in Russian hands.

House Holds Bill

WASHINGTON—After rejecting a plan to forbid racial segregation in publicly owned housing projects, the House postponed final action on the housing bill until today.

As approved by the Senate, the bill would permit the government to contribute up to $308 million a year for 40 years for construction of 810,000 dwelling units. It also provides for slum clearance.

Campus Books Aid Filipino College

A drive to collect educational books for Villamor College in the Philippine Islands has been started by Pi Gamma Mu, national social sciences honorary, and PSCA. Over 1500 volumes have already been contributed according to Franklin Fry, chairman of the book drive committee.

The drive will continue indefinitely and more boxes will be placed on campus and in town in which students and faculty members can deposit books. Contributions have already been received from the three book stores in State College and the College Extension Service.

"We have invited the Philippine ambassador to come to the college and accept the books on behalf of Villamor College," said Mr. Fry.
