Bill Jeffrey, veteran Scot, expects to field an outstanding soccer team at Penn State this fall.

1950 TRACK CAPTAIN is Jumpin' Jim Gehrdes, one of the nation's top timber toppers.

Sidelights . . .

THREE-YEAR MEN

Three Penn State gridders who'll report to Coach Joe Bedenk August 29 for pre-season drills, already own three varsity letters. Seeking their letter in this sport for the fourth time will be Co-Captains Bob Hicks and Negley Norton and Chuck Drazenovich. All played one season of football as wartime freshmen.

FOURTH TO PLAY

Ralph Hosterman, 1949 captain, is the fourth Hosterman to play soccer for Bill Jeffrey at Penn State. His brother, Walter, who twice won all-American honors as a Lion boater, now is assistant graduate manager of athletics at his alma mater.

TOUGH FOE

University of Pittsburgh not only is the oldest opponent on the Penn State football schedule, but also the toughest to handle. In the 56-year-old series, the Panthers own 28 victories as against 18 defeats and 2 ties. Last year, Pitt's 7-0 upset victory broke a Penn State 17-game winning string.

NON-KEYSTONERS

Only two non-Pennsylvanians are listed on Penn State's pre-season football roster. The out-of-state prospects are Bill Mathers, guard, of Lambertville, N. J., who did his high school playing in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, and Alan Helfrich, Jr., back, of Old Greenwich, Conn., son of the former Penn State track great.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Penn State's Coach Joe Bedenk anticipates "double trouble" when his 1949 football team opposes Michigan State at East Lansing, Mich., October 22. New addition to the Spartan coaching staff is Earle Edwards, for 19 years end coach and high-ranking scout under Bob Higgins at Penn State.

WITH DONS AGAIN

Jeff Durkota, standout halfback of the 1947 Penn State football team, will play for the Los Angeles Dons of the All-American Conference again in 1949. Durkota backed up Herman Wedemeyer on last year's coast eleven, averaging 4.71 per carry running, and totaling 198 yards on nine kickoff returns.

HOLD-OVERS

Penn State's new basketball mentor, Elmer Gross, will build his 1949-50 aggregation around a quartet of hold-overs, including the indefatigable Joe Tocci, of Ridgewood, N. Y. The diminutive Tocci, who also played on the Lion baseball team, is rated as one of the best small men ever to play at Penn State.

A junior, Bob Patsons, of Philadelphia, Pa., is captain-elect of the Penn State cross-country team.

Lion Lacrossers . . .

A CONTRAST IN HEIGHT features Augustus (Buddy) Thomas (left) and Big John Finley, both members of the 1949 edition of Coach Nick Thiel's stickmen. Thomas was named to receive the Pittinger Award, an annual tribute to the outstanding player on the team. Finley, who cavorted at tackle during the football season, was a big cog in the Nittanies' attack, as was Thomas. Both athletes graduated in June.

Tennis Play Begins, Golf in 3rd Round

The Main Session golf tournament has moved into the third round of play, while officials of the tennis tournament have requested that registrants play off their scheduled matches as soon as possible.

In the links tourney, three complete flights of club-wielders have completed their second round. Third round play, however, must be completed by tomorrow.

In the championship flight, Ray Artz will tee off against J. E. Kruper in third round action, while the remainder of the first flight playoffs include Charles Werner and M. Goldenberg, Alex Munro and R. B. McGhee and Joe Durniak and Tor Toretti.

8 Softball Teams Still Unbeaten In Session Loop

Eight teams in the Main Session Softball League can still claim undefeated records after one week of competition in the loop. In League A, the Rockets, Newman Club and Intellectuals own identical 2-and-0 records, while Red Valley and Yahoos boast the same log in League B. Pi Kappa Alpha, another League B outfit, has won its only game.

Zeta Beta Tau and Sigma Pi have clean slates in League C. Each team has won two.

Rockets and Newman Club appear to have the edge in the face for League A honors. The Rockets slipped by the Reds, 7-3, and tipped the Windjammers, 9-0. The Newman Clubbers copped a close, 8-7, from the winners, and then rolled to an 8-1 conquest of the Old Men, who have dropped three straight.

LEAGUE B

In League B, Red Valley rode to a 4-2 win over Delta Upsilon and then roped Lambda Chi Alpha, last year's champions, 5-1. Jim Wolf's Yahoos copped a 17-11 slugfest from a pesky Phi Kappa Sigma nine, and won by forfeit over Big Ten.

Pi Kappa Alpha smashed its way to a 14-1 decision over Big Ten in Listed for play in flight two are R. Nein and Bob Kistler, Berle Haynes and Greenwald, F. Wermuth and J. L. Thomas and Tom Graham and R. Powell.

William Ballou and John Kola, A. R. Shassian and L. Kleinman, R. E. Park and D. L. Platt and Bill Hoyer and L. Bernstein are slated to shoot it out for the flight three title.

Only a few matches have been played in the tennis tournament—most of them in the men's singles. No scores have been reported in the mixed doubles competition.

In the men's singles, Murburger defeated Gitlitz, 6-0, 6-3; Vas defeated Allewelt, 6-2, 6-1; Nalls defeated Shank, 5-7, 6-1, 8-6 and Davis defeated Max Peters, 7-5, 6-3.

Segal defeated Newman, 6-0, 6-2; Gearhart defeated Solomon, 6-0, 6-0; Amarnek defeated Sloan, 6-4, 6-1, and R. Peters defeated Gallagher, 6-0, 6-3.

Parsons won by forfeit over Lubowitz, Gingrich defeated Petrovsky, 6-2, 6-2, and McKenna defeated Weidman, 6-4, 6-1 in the women's singles.

Competitors in the tennis event are asked to play their matches immediately.

the PiKA's only outing thus far.

Zeta Beta Tau out-lasted Phi Kappa, 13-12, and then flattened the Beaver House team, 14-1. The co-leader in League C, Sigma Pi, captured a tight tilt from Sigma Phi Epsilon, 4-3, and took Alpha Chi Sigma into camp in its second game.
