

Three Nittany Lion Coaches . . .

COACH JOE BEDENK (left), football and baseball; Charlie Speidel (center), wrestling coach, and Gene Wettstone, gymnastic mentor, are members of Penn State's top-flight coaching crew. Bedenk begins his first season as head grid coach, but served for 19 seasons with the diamond team. His 1949 baseballers were runners-up in the NCAA District 2 playoffs. Speidel has tutored the matmen for more than 20 years, and annually fields a tough aggregation. He is looking forward to a big year for his wrestlers in 1950. Wettstone was picked as the United States' Olympic gym coach in 1948, after his Lion gymnasts completed the cycle by capturing the Eastern National Collegiate and NAAU crowns. Three of his pupils were on the eight-man USA team.

Softball Loops Muddled; Playoffs Start Tuesday

Teams entered in the Main Session Softball League are urged by C. M. "Dutch" Sykes, recreation director, to play off all postponed games by Monday evening. In order to be eligible for the playoffs, which will start Tuesday, a team must complete its schedule.

In case the teams have not played all their games, the intramural department will pick a champion from each league, A, B and C, to engage in the championship series.

Team managers are also reminded to report their game scores to the intramural office, extension 95, as soon as possible, or by informing Sykes in his office in Rec. Hall.

3 UNBEATEN

Only three of the eight nines that were unbeaten last week have maintained their clean records. In League B, the Yahoos and Red Valley are riding on the crest of undefeated strings. The Yahoos, holding a half-game advantage over the Valleyites, have won five straight contests.

These two teams looked up in a duel last night, with the possibility that the winner clinched the race for League honors.

In League A, the high-flying Newman Club was dashed to the ground by an upstart Reds' team Monday, 4-2. It was the first loss for the Newman Clubbers, and their lead over the second place Intellectuals dwindled to a half-game. Newman Club has played one more game than the Intellectuals.

LEAGUE A

League A championship honors will undoubtedly be decided tonight, when the Intellectuals and the Newman crew fight it out on the golf course. Both teams, as well as the third place Rockets, were unbeaten last week, but suffered losses since then. The Rockets, who socked the Intellectuals, 11-8, were beaten by Newman Club by a 5-2 tally.

Zeta Beta Tau, which was tied for first place in League C with Sigma Pi last week, was slashed, 7-1, by Sigma Phi Epsilon, which moved into third place as a result of the win. Sigma Pi owns a 2-and-0 record, and failed to play a game last week.

LEAGUE C

As a result ZBT, while behind in the percentage column with Sigma Pi, is actually tied for first place. SPE is running a half game behind in third place, tied with Phi Kappa. The League C race is still far from over, and is the most wide-open scramble in the Main Session loop.
