

Frosh, Sophs

(Continued from page one)

At 8 p. m. new women and men students are expected to be present at New Beaver Field to meet and hear student leaders. Informational material about numerous student activities and organizations will be presented at the meeting.

A follow-up meeting on WSGA will be held in the women's living units at 10 p. m. by the women's counselors.

A presentation of Leonides and Panhellenic information will be given to new coeds at a meeting in Schwab at 7 p. m. tomorrow. Rose Eifert, president of Leonides, and Delores Jelacic, president of Panhellenic Council, are in charge of this meeting.

"CA" Mixer

Following the women's meeting all new students will attend a "CA" mixer in front of Old Main at 8 p. m. Square dancing, round dancing and a general get-together will be featured.

Following an open house in White Hall at 7 p. m. Friday, new women students as well as men will attend a pep rally at the Lion Shine at 9 p. m.

The All-College Mixer for new students will be held in the Temporary Union Building at 8 p. m. Saturday.

Special Teas

Special teas for new women students have been planned for Sunday afternoon in the respective living units of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors and seniors. Cwens are in charge of the freshman tea in Atherton Hall at 2 p. m., while Chimes will organize the tea for sophomores in Simmons Hall from 2 p. m. to 3 p. m. Mortar Board and Alpha Lambda Delta have planned the tea for junior and senior transfers in McElwain Hall at the same time.

An interdenominational religious meeting in Schwab at 8 p. m. highlights the evening program on Sunday.

A final women's get-together for new sophomores, juniors and seniors will be held in White Hall

GRIN AND BEAR IT

By Lichty

"—And here's a telegram from Senator Snort: 'Regret unable to attend stop reminded funny story about traveling salesman'—"

Candidate Call

A call for candidates for editorial positions on the Daily Collegian will be made, next Tuesday, according to Tom Morgan, editor. All students, men and women, regardless of school or curriculum, are eligible. Further details will appear Tuesday.

New Students

(Continued from page one) mann and Rose Eifert, representing independent men's and women's associations; Thomas Morgan, editor of the Daily Collegian, who will outline student publications; Shirley Gauger, president of WSGA; Robert Keller, chairman of Student Tribunal, and Fred Auch, who will speak on "Mechanics of Politics at Penn State."

Songs and other entertainment will be interspersed among the talks, according to Harry McMahon, in charge of student orientation. In his capacity as emcee Fleming will explain other campus organizations and opportunities for joining.

A skit has been prepared by representatives of campus publications to precede Morgan's talk.

Hatmen—

(Continued from page one) ture this year in cooperation with the cheerleaders is Hat Societies Council. Tom Morgan, president, declared:

"This year's set-up of row captains in the flash-card section is expected to be the forerunner or nucleus of a permanent Penn State Society of Row Captains."

Thirteen of the 15 row captains were named yesterday. They are Fred Auch, Ray Caton, Bob Fast, Harry Kondourajian, Wilbert Lancaster, Don Love, Fred Phillips, Jack Reen, Ramon Saul, Henry Schoenfeld, Marlin Weaver, Dick Wertz, Ty Wheeler.

Last Flights --

(Continued from page one) Sunday there will be two East and two West.

It was also announced that in addition to discontinuing flights 704 and 705, the mid-day flights 702 and 703 will operate six days a week but not on Sunday or holidays, starting Sunday.

Several time changes were also reported. The first east-bound plane will leave Pittsburgh at 7:30 a.m. EST and arrive at Newark at 10:51 a.m. The second east-bound flight will leave at 11:10 a.m. and arrive at Newark at 2:16 p.m.

West-bound changes showed 701 leaving Newark at 7:05 a.m., arriving in Pittsburgh at 10:37 a.m., leaving at noon and landing at Pittsburgh at 3:16 p.m.

Official word on which flights will connect State College and Johnstown starting Sunday was not announced.

Fraternities Fettered

For many years both the Trustees and the faculty of the College looked with disfavor upon fraternities and refused to grant permission for their establishment. At one time a pledge was exacted of freshmen to hold no membership in a secret fraternity, and on several occasions steps were taken to dissolve such secret organizations that existed.

Big Boys

Penn State's 1949 football team will pack more weight than any eleven of postwar vintage. The prospective starting line will average 204 pounds, the backfield 191 pounds. Of the 65 players who reported for early drills, 30 weighed 200 pounds or better.

Captains Meet Today

Row captains for the Nittany flash-card section will meet today at 1:30 p.m. at the Phi Sigma Delta fraternity house, according to Dick Clair, head cheerleader.

at 7 p. m. Monday. This meeting will be the same as one presented last Monday to the freshman women.

Pep Rally—

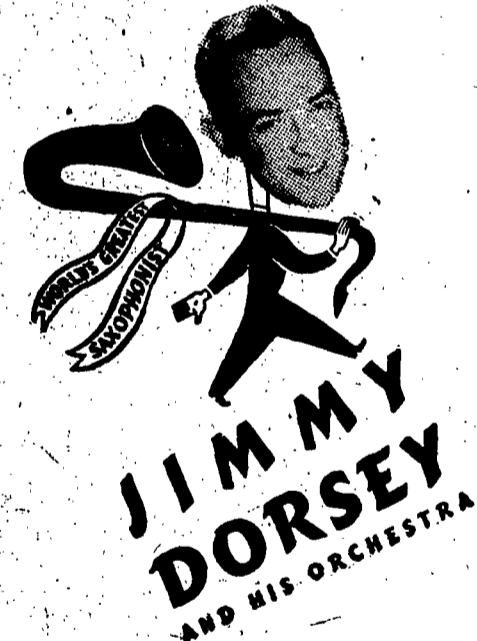

(Continued from page one)

co-captain; Hummel Fishburn, head of the music department.

Master of ceremonies will be Ted Allen, All-College president. Songs and cheers will be led by Clair and his cheerleader assistants, Ben Carbeau, George Kurtz, Joe Courtney, Norm Freyman, Rudy Valentino, Joe Bowers and Vic Lynch.

Riding Classes

Riding may be taken as a credit for Physical Education or as an elective. Captain Gagarin, riding instructor, will be in Rec Hall during registration to make arrangements for all interested students. A fee of $25 will be charged.

The JUNIOR CLASS

Proudly Presents

Jimmy Dorsey

and HIS ORCHESTRA

For the Biggest Weekend of the Year

Junior Prom—Houseparty

FRIDAY, OCT. 28

JUNIOR PROM

Rec. Hall, 9 to 1

$4 per couple

Semi-formal

SATURDAY, OCT. 29

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Syracuse vs. Penn State

New Beaver Field -- 2 P.M.

Fraternity Dances